

Astorian Takes Dallas Church

Dr. Pemberton to Arrive This Week, Succeeding Rev. John Linn

DALLAS—Rev. John L. Linn, pastor of the First Methodist church here for the past four years, is leaving Thursday for Hood River where he will assume the pastorate of the Asbury Methodist church.

Townpeople here regret the leaving of the Linn family but are pleased that the Hood River post is an advancement for Rev. Linn.

Miss Hester Linn was a junior in Dallas high school the past year where she took a prominent part in student activities. A son, Lloyd, graduated from Dallas high school in 1938 and has been taking a business course in Portland the past year. Mrs. Mary Linn attended the Dallas elementary school.

New Pastor Due Soon
Dr. Harry Pemberton, pastor of the Astoria Methodist church, was appointed to the Dallas pastorate. He and family are expected to arrive here the latter part of the week.

A son-in-law of Dr. Pemberton, Claire Price, is the superintendent of the Falls City schools.

New Minister to Speak on Sunday

SILVERTON—Rev. Edward Terry, new pastor of the Methodist church at Silverton, will deliver his first sermon here Sunday morning at 11 o'clock. Rev. Terry will arrive the last of the week from his former pastorate at North Bend. He has a wife and child of two years. Sunday school will open at 9:45 a. m. Epworth League will be held at 7 o'clock and evening services at 8 o'clock.

Lacomb Elders Hold Reunion

Turnidge Home Is Scene of Meeting of Former School Partners

LEBANON—The farm home of Elder John Turnidge of Lacomb was the scene Sunday of a reunion and reception of those in the community who have passed three score and ten years and for Mr. Turnidge's schoolmates of 55 years ago. A banquet was provided at noon.

An informal program was held on the lawn in the afternoon, an interesting part being the reminiscences of the elderly people.

The host's brother, W. J. Turnidge, of Scio described the early history of Lacomb to which he gave the name and where he kept the first store in the community. Previous to his naming the postoffice the town was known as Fern Ridge. Oldest Residents Absent

The oldest residents of the community, Mr. and Mrs. Smith Inge, 92 and 85, were kept away by illness but were noted among the honor guests.

Among the older people present were Mrs. Mattie Shell, 83, and P. B. Powell, grandson of the pioneer minister, Joab Powell, 82. Those of 70 or more included Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Raines, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Edwards, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Found, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Turnidge, Mrs. and Mrs. J. E. Gray, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Curran, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Bird, Mrs. Irene Deyerle, Mrs. Cordelia Edwards, Mrs. Martha Purcell and James Nave.

Schoolmates present were L. S. Clark, J. W. Cox, Theodosia Harden and their families.

NORTH DAKOTA'S DEPART
LEBANON—Mr. and Mrs. Will Schmidt have returned to their home in North Dakota after a visit with his brother, Alex Schmidt.

Coos Bay Pirates To Attend Fiesta

Marshfield Crew to Give Nautical Touch to Redhead Round-Up

T A F T, Ore.—(Special)—A nautical theme will be introduced into the Redhead Round-Up, scheduled for August 5 and 6, at Taft, when the Coos Bay Pirates, of Marshfield, bring their leader, Chief Skull M'Neil, to the coast resort to act in the capacity of "Eric, the Red," ruler of Titania, who, together with the redhead queen and her court will preside during the round-up.

The motley group, in full regalia, will accompany the newly-appointed "Red King," who, in private life is V. A. McNeil. Last year's monarch, Marvin Headrick, Salem, will be on hand to give pointers on how a "king" should behave when surrounded by a bevy of beautiful copper-tressed damsels.

Salem Girl Enters
Among "Eric's" many duties is the selecting of Redhead Round-Up bathing beauty judges. Copper-topped Nina Fahey, of Salem, 1938 champion, is again out to compete for sweepstakes honors and the world's fair trip which is presented to the winner of the bathing beauty classic. Any redheaded miss is eligible to compete. Portland area offices for the Red Head Round-Up are located at 415 S. E. Alder St., where entry blanks may be obtained.

The royal court contest is now under way, with a number of titian-haired young ladies, ages 16 to 26, announcing their candidacy for queen. The queen will also be given an expensive free trip to the Golden Gate exposition, with the runner-up or crown princess being presented with a diamond ring. In addition, beautiful gowns will be given the queen and the princesses.

Gyllie's Gulch Is Open; Near Falls

SILVERTON—Gyllie's Gulch, an 80-acre playground, a half mile east of the main entrance to the Silver Creek Falls park is opening this week. Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Gyllenberg own and manage the place.

In former years the ranch was a millsite. Mr. Gyllenberg has converted some of the millworkers' cottages into modern tourist cabins and is renting these. The Gulch offers horseback riding, fishing, hikes and rest.
