

Dealers Shade Wait's 2 to 1

No Runs Earned in Tight Thriller; Pheasants Victors 10-0

Waits scored first, in the fifth, in almost identically the same manner as did the Dealers in the eighth to tie it up. With two away Garbarino bled to right; he stole second, went to third on Drynan's infield dribbler; and scored on Hank Singer's error of Nicholson's chance to the box.

The Dealers eighth-inning, tie-up run came also after two were away. Alley walked and was wild-pitched to second. Hank Singer walked, but was doubled out by D'Arcy—leaving two away and Alley on third; Lou Singer bounded to the box, where Roth fumbled and allowed Alley to score.

So it was all even—in actuality and in the way the scoring was done. And it remained so for three and two-thirds innings—or up until the first of the 12th, when Causey tallied with the third unearned run of the ball game.

George Roth was his old self on the mound, giving but three blows to the usually hard-hitting Dealers. And one of those—a two-base hit to Bill Gentskow in the fourth, shouldn't have been a hit. Outfielders Nicholson and Drynan had a mis-up act to whom Walter take it and consequently neither did.

The first seven Waits' outs were strikeouts, with Singer interspersing the whiffs with passes. He wasn't giving them anything good. Of 36 putouts Catcher Lou Singer registered 16.

Pheasants Blank Makers

The win put the Dealers ar to the fore, while the loss dropped Waits back into a tie with the Pheasants, who in the night's first till scored an easy 10 to 0 win over the hapless Papermakers. It was the Makers sixth straight loss.

Maker Pitchers Lenaburg and Lappin gave up but three hits between them in losing that 10-0 fray, but Lenaburg's eight walks, Lappin's two, and six costly errors—five of them by Third-Base-man Kelley, was far too much of a handicap.

IF MR. GOOP LIVED AS HE DRIVES

Motor MANNERS

RALPH WALDO EMERSON wrote: "Life is not so short but that there is always time for courtesy." There is more need for this sage philosophy now, than when he wrote it before the motor car was invented. The automobile has made many of us into selfish bores. If drivers behaved as considerably when behind the wheel as they do in the drawing room, the death rate would soon be sacrificed to a fraction of its present proportions. Let's have more courtesy, better manners, more sportsmanship on the road.

Take That Chip off Your Shoulder

If you are one of the many to whom driving is no longer a pleasure, here is a hint that may be helpful. Next time you start out on a trip, take that chip off your shoulder! And take your sense of humor along. Promise yourself that you won't let little things disturb you, and see what happens. If someone attempts to steal your right of way, let him have it. Don't yell at him, but smile instead. Be indulgent, as you would be with the small boy who reaches for the largest piece of cake on the plate. A safe journey, and a surprisingly pleasant journey, will be your reward.
