

Time Extended On 3 Projects

Sewage, Disposal Plants Continued to Autumn Council Decision

SILVERTON—Four councilmen, Mayor Zetta Schiador and Recorder George Hubbs met at the city hall Wednesday morning at 7 o'clock to hold a special meeting. Three resolutions were passed pertaining to the extension of the sewage system, the disposal plant and the outfall sewer.

Most Polk Lands In AAA Program

Conservation Cost Higher Than Benefit, County Agent Points out

DALLAS—Approximately 95 per cent of Polk county's crop land is included under this year's AAA farm program, according to a summary compiled at the county agricultural conservation office in Dallas.

This represents 392,802.2 acres of land on 1700 farms, said W. C. Leth, secretary of the county agricultural conservation committee.

Eastern Star Has Last Summer Meet

AMITY—Amity chapter, Order of Eastern Star, met Monday evening in the Masonic hall. The chapter has been honoring all its past matrons and patrons each month during the year.

Roberts Grange To Give Degrees

ROBERTS—The Roberts degree team will confer the first and second degrees Friday night, July 7. An invitation is extended to any grange wishing to bring candidates for these degrees.

Fewer Meetings of Grange to Be Held

TALBOT—Ankeny grange No. 540 met Saturday night in the hall for the regular meeting. It was decided to hold only one meeting a month until after the busy season.

Laying of Mains To HS Is Begun

SILVERTON—Twenty eight men went to work on the WPA project under the supervision of the water commission Wednesday morning to lay water mains to the new high school building.

Mrs. Roosevelt Honors Singer

Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt is shown here as she presented to Marian Anderson, negro contralto, the Springarn medal at a conference at Richmond, Va., of the National Association for Advancement of Colored People. In presenting the medal, given for the highest achievement in any "honorable field" of endeavor, Mrs. Roosevelt said: "You achievement far transcends any race or creed."

Water Office to Be Open at Noon

SILVERTON—The Silvertown water department office force is announcing new hours. From now on the office will be open from 9 to 5 o'clock each day but Saturday, when it closes at 12 o'clock.

Lebanon Observes Holiday Quietly

LEBANON—Display of national colors on street and dwellings, closed business places, the popping of fire crackers and the exodus of citizens to mountains, lakes and streams marked the national holiday in Lebanon where no program was arranged.

Goes Modern

Bertha Koyopa (above), Hopi Indian girl from the reservation at Tuba City, Ariz., preferred an up-to-date bathing suit to traditional native costume when she appeared preliminary to an Indian beauty contest held in conjunction with the annual southwestern all-Indian powwow at Flagstaff, Ariz.

Jeanne Abraham Home for Visit

Amity Girl Has Attended School in Ann Arbor for Two Years

AMITY—Miss Jeanne Abraham, who has been attending school at Ann Arbor, Mich., for the last two years, arrived here Tuesday to spend the summer vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Abraham.

A. B. Watt was a pallbearer Saturday at the funeral of Mrs. Carrie Phillips Hancock, 74, who died at her home in Forest Grove Thursday, June 29.

Kester Is Hurt in Combine Accident

Three Ribs Broken When Clothes Caught; Is Improving now

SUVER—Ralph Kester was badly bruised and received three broken ribs when he was caught in his combine. The sprocket caught his clothes and tore them off.

Yvonne Kerr and Mrs. Sue Plunkett left for Reno, Nevada, Wednesday morning to visit Mrs. Plunkett's daughter there.

Mrs. Thomas Better Mrs. Jay Thomas was taken to her home on the Fourth and is improving in health each day.

Bob and Dick Maxwell of Portland are spending a few weeks vacation with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Benedict.

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Cowan of Pomona, Calif., are spending some time at the Wilnot Kester home.

At a family dinner at the Kester home Sunday the above mentioned group were joined by Mr. and Mrs. Oral Ray and children of Cloverdale.

Ralph Kester combined his English rye grass last week. This is the first grain threshed here and as far as known the earliest harvest on record.

Dude Ranch Busy Place on Fourth

SILVERTON—Silvertown's chief of police, Omar Halvorson, reports a busy day on July 4—but not in Silvertown. Mr. Halvorson, who owns the dude ranch in the state park area, reports that everybody wanted to ride horses yesterday and the entire day was spent in getting one party off and the next on the horses.

Honorary Takes In Monmouth Men

MONMOUTH—Nine men students of Oregon College of Education achieved the coveted honor of rating membership in Theta Delta Phi, men's national honorary for teachers, in the spring term. A three or B scholastic average is required.

Burned by Firecracker

RICKREALL—Gladys Doas was burned by a firecracker buried at her from a passing car Wednesday, July 4. She was walking up town with her sister Nora when a huge firecracker was thrown at them.

CENTRAL OREGON VISITED UNION HILL—Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate and daughter Marjorie drove to Suttle Lake on the Fourth. From there they drove on to Redmond where they remained over night and visited with relatives.

Farmers' Union News

The quarterly meeting of the Polk County Farmers' Union will be held on Wednesday evening, July 12, beginning at 8 p.m. Main speakers of the evening will be Harley Libby, state president, and Jessie Williams, state junior leader.

BETHEL—Mrs. W. E. Branch was named as junior leader at the Monday night meeting of the Farmers' union. Mrs. Branch and one junior member are to be sent by Bethel local to the junior state camp at Longbow, July 28, 29 and 30.

SILVERTON—The 19-month-old Boston terrier, Tuffy, belonging to Mr. and Mrs. June D. Drake, is attracting considerable attention not only from local people but from tourists and visitors to town.

Mr. and Mrs. John L. Lorenzen and daughter Dolores spent the weekend with relatives in Waldport and Alsea.

Mary Emma Coad Funeral Saturday

Iowa Native Is Resident of Polk County for About 45 Years

DALLAS—Mrs. Mary Emma Coad, 77, passed away at her home here Tuesday afternoon, July 4, after a short illness.

Mary Emma Neal was born at Drakeville, Iowa, January 27, 1862. She was married to Edward F. Coad, lawyer, at Moulton, Iowa, on October 19, 1882.

Mrs. Coad became a member of the Christian church in early girlhood and has been an active member of the First Christian church here for many years.

She is survived by two daughters, Miss Nola Coad of Portland and Mrs. Ava Hughes of Clovis, New Mexico; and by two sons, Lloyd Coad of Portland and Chetwyn C. Coad of Corning, California.

Funeral services will be held at the First Christian church here on Saturday afternoon, July 8, at 2 o'clock. Interment will be at the IOOF cemetery, Dallas.

Relics Collected By Lebanon Man Are Interesting

LEBANON—W. A. Hunt, Lebanon business man, who spends his leisure days in collecting relics of past ages, is adding many articles to his already large collection.

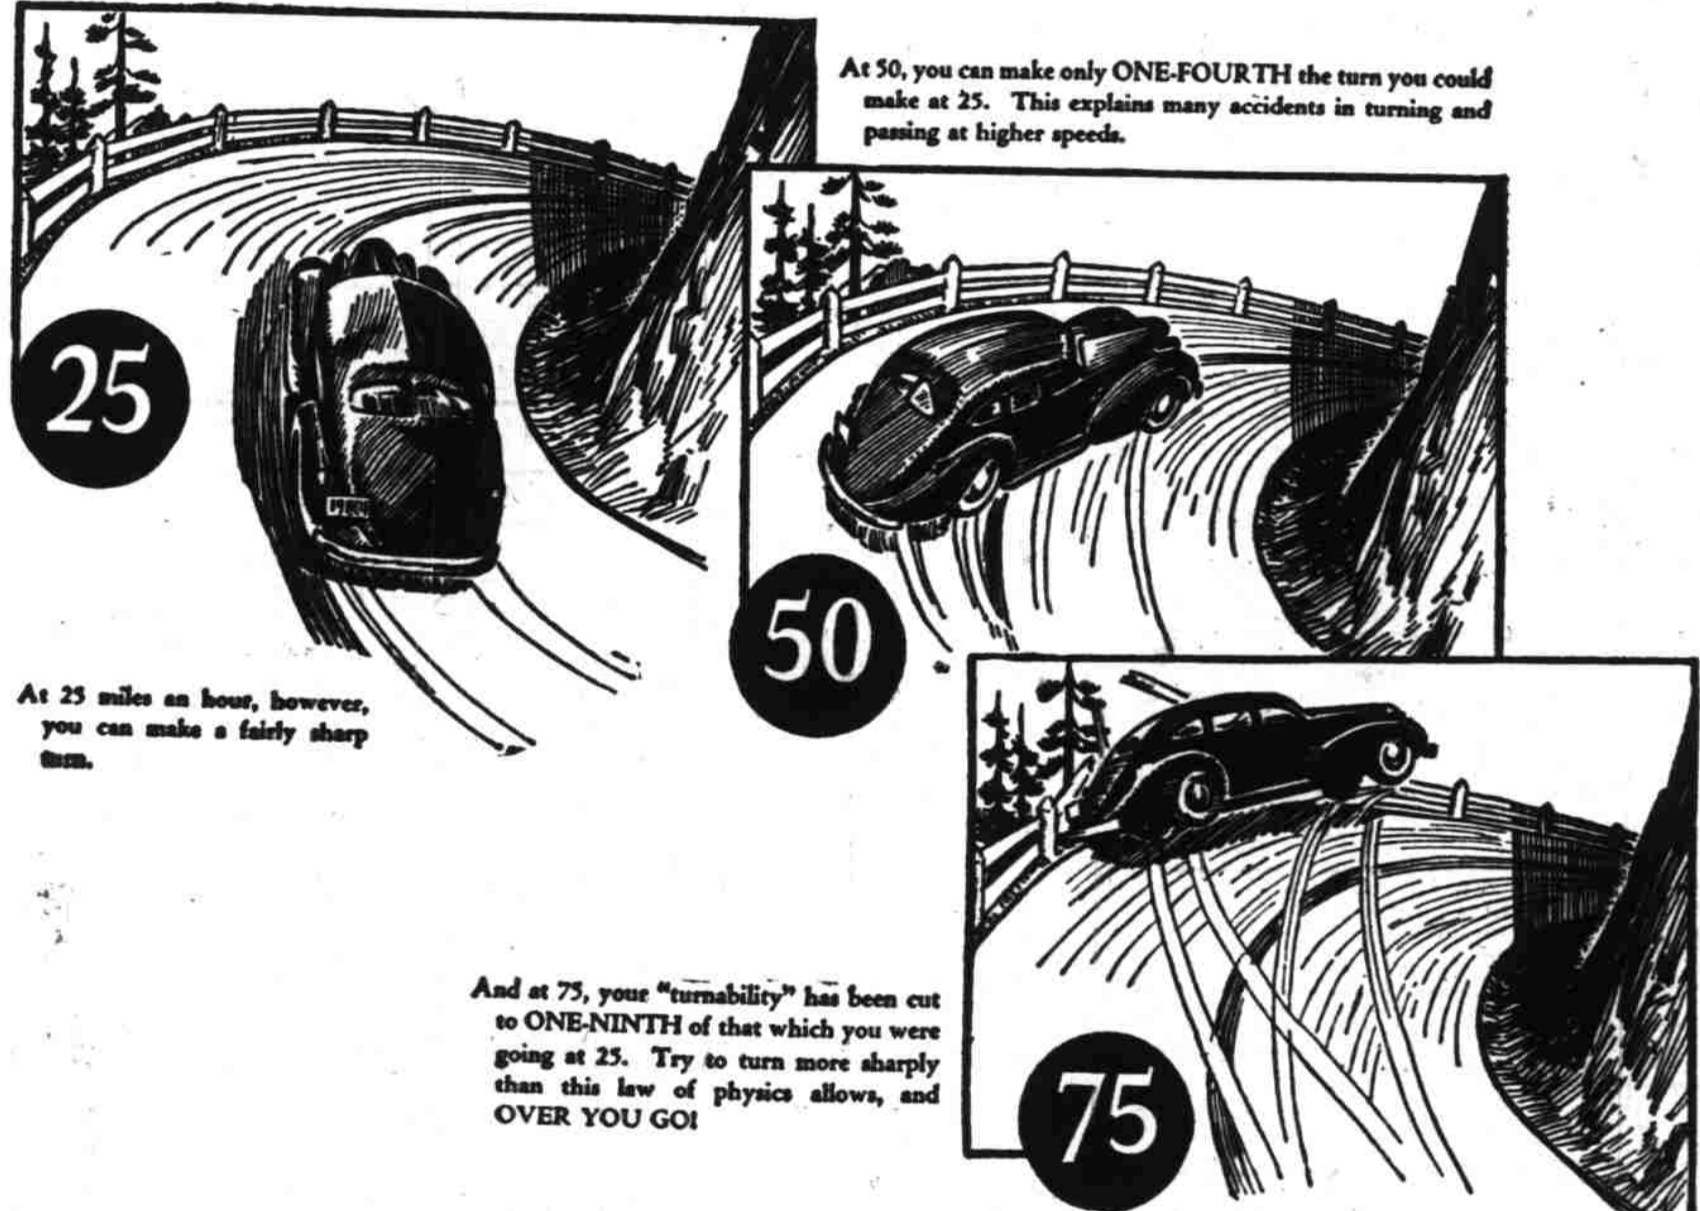

Thunder eggs of volcanic origin from eastern Oregon show when opened, every possible color and tint on hard glassy surfaces in various patterns.

Thunder wood from nearby forests entered the collection, while all kinds of Indian mining bowls and pestles are present and hundreds of arrow heads ranging from finger nail size to the effective weapons of early warfare.

Book ends and permanent ornaments are made from the hard and highly colored material of these age old rocks.

A LESSON IN PHYSICS FOR DRIVERS "Turnability"

The first law of motion is that a moving body tends to continue in uniform motion in a straight line. The energy of a moving body is in proportion to the square of the speed.

Accidents Do Happen!

No one is immune—child, physically strong adult, or the aged. While The Oregon Statesman cannot insure against accident, their Travel Policy does insure income when accident strikes you. Charity adds to mental and physical distress; avoid it! Can you think of anyone on whom you would like to depend while you were laid up from injury?

Many have had to depend on relatives or public charity; or meet the extra expense of injury. Why not let The Oregon Statesman help you with this problem? By investing 2 cents per week NOW, while eligible, you can protect your income to the extent of from $10 to $20 per week.

For $1 Only ...

You Can Be Covered for

$10,000 for loss of life in a railroad accident and $20.00 per week while injured.

$1,000 for loss of life in an automobile or pedestrian accident. $10.00 per week while injured.

DON'T WAIT ... It may be too late ... Call at the Statesman office, 215 S. Commercial St., or phone 9101 for further details.

There are hundreds who have found this Statesman Accident Policy to be a dollar wisely invested.

(Issued to Statesman subscribers or members of the family between the ages of 10 to 60.)

Oregon Statesman

By Mail $5.00 per Year
By Mail 50c per Mo. By Carrier 60c per Mo.

APPLICATION BLANK

Name ..... Age .....
Occupation .....
Postoffice .....
Street or R.F.D. No. ....
Name of Beneficiary .....
Relationship of Beneficiary .....
New Subscriber  Old Subscriber