

Rootin' for Her Champ

Mrs. Jack Dempsey leaves hospital in New York after visiting the former heavyweight champion, recovering from peritonitis. She is accompanied by Ned Brown, Dempsey's business associate. The old Manassa Mauler was stricken with peritonitis following removal of a gangrenous appendix.

Bellinger Speaks On Japan Mission

Lebanon Methodist Group Hears Local Man Who Lived in Island

LEBANON—The leading interest of the meeting of the Methodist missionary society at the home of Mrs. W. P. Furth Wednesday afternoon was an informal talk by Jack Bellinger on the missionary situation in Japan where he with Mrs. Bellinger spent two years. The surprise note of the address was the statement that missionaries who have served 50 years or more have a dread of returning to America and when their work when they reach the required age they are sensitive about giving it up.

Devotions were led by Mrs. Olive Gilson and a brief program was directed by the president, Mrs. Rosa Blackburn. Judge B. M. Payne entertained Sunday with a dinner at his country home honoring guests from California, Texas, Canada and eastern Oregon. Friends from Lebanon and Albany were additions to the guest list.

Ed Spoo of Sisters was in Lebanon this week to take his uncle, Carl Kowitz, to his home for an indefinite stay. Spoo brothers, former Lebanon residents, are operating a large sawmill at Sisters. Math Gogi, Roy Connert, Lebanon people interested in the WCTU farm home since its beginning will attend the dedication of the new Frances Elizabeth cottage Sunday. Earl Snell of Salem will be the principal speaker.

Mrs. E. Lansberry, city librarian, reports ten additional books to the library this month by well known authors.

Unifying New York's Subways

Mayor LaGuardia (left), of New York, signs contract for the city's purchase of the B. M. T. subway system for $175,000,000, completing unification of rapid transit with the city-owned lines and the recently bought I. R. T. system. Right, is W. S. Menden, B. M. T. head.

75 Youths Join Swimming Class

SILVERTON—Seventy five youngsters are taking advantage of the Red Cross swimming lessons at Salem, provided by Silverton's recreational center for Silverton people. The classes opened Wednesday and the children rode on the school buses furnished by J. C. Towle. There were 36 pupils registered for the beginners' lessons, 30 for the advanced and 2 for the life-saving tests. Officials expect the total to number 100 students.

The classes will be taught every Monday, Wednesday and Thursday from July 5 to 17. The life-saving and beginners' groups leave at 8 o'clock every morning while the advanced swimming pupils are scheduled to board the buses at 8:30. Miss G. Sterrett, Latin teacher in the summer recreation school here, has consented to teach afternoon classes in Latin for the benefit of those registered for the morning swimming classes. These will be held Monday, Wednesday and Thursday afternoons at 3 o'clock. The morning classes in Latin begin at 8:30 o'clock.

Daughter to Wards

MILL CITY—Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Ward are the parents of a daughter, born July 1 in Mill City. Prof. and Mrs. S. Eliassen of Albany spent the weekend with former Mill City friends.

Sutton Goes East As Brother Is Ill

INDEPENDENCE—Frank Sutton of Independence left Monday for Hancock, Iowa, after receiving word that his brother, Charles Sutton, was very ill and not expected to recover.

Charles Sutton is remembered by Oscar Moore of Independence as they were both with Company F of the 39th US volunteers during the Philippine insurrection from 1899 to 1901. Mr. Moore states that Mr. Sutton was sent home ill a considerable time before the company returned.

TO GIRLS' CAMP

INDEPENDENCE—Betty Belle Henry, Phyllis Harmon, Betty Mae Feyree and Doris Albee will leave Sunday for a week at Camp Kilowan, summer camp for Camp Fire Girls. Mrs. Joe Rogers, Jr., will take the girls to the camp which is located on Teal creek near Falls City.
