Mithun, her two children Calvin and Delores, and her parents from Stanley, N. D., have returned to Silverton to make their home. Following Rev. Mithun's sudden death several months ago, Mrs. Mithun and her children returned to their former home in the midwest. However, they retained their residence here on Mill street and will again live there. Mission Bottom Homecoming Sunday. MISSION BOTTOM—The annual Mission Bottom homecoming is scheduled for Sunday, July 9, and all former residents are invited to attend. W. P. Colvard is homecoming president and Britt Aspinwall is secretary.

Initiation to Be Held by Knights

27 Candidates to Receive Three Degrees; Other Events Scheduled

STAYTON—All plans have been completed for the Knights of Columbus initiation, one of the annual big events of this district, which will be held at the Foresters' hall, Stayton, next Sunday, July 9. Twenty seven applications for membership have been received with a number more still to be turned in, which promises to be one of the largest Knights of Columbus class initiations for this district in years.

The candidates and members will receive Communion in a body at the 7:30 mass in Stayton that morning, followed by breakfast at the Bon Ton. The exemplification of the three degrees will start promptly at 12:30. At 6:30 in the evening will be the banquet at the parish hall at Sublimity. At the banquet will appear noted speakers and an excellent musical program has been secured.

The degree will be under the direction of District Deputy C. E. Suing of Salem, assisted by Past State Deputy George J. Wilhelm of Eugene. A large delegation of members and some candidates will also be here from Klamath Falls, Eugene, and other neighboring communities in Oregon. This is the first class initiation for Oregon of the new fiscal year beginning July 1, under the supervision of Edward J. Bell of Stayton, re-elected state deputy of the Knights of Columbus of Oregon.
