Under the arcs baseball got lits Salem baptism amidst a batting barrage last night on Sweetland with Woodburn's Legion Juniors unlimbering a 15-hit, 26-base load of 'em to bury Salem' Juniors by a 15 to 4 count.

It was Woodburn's second straight win in the district loop, having beaten Dallas last Thursday. They move to Hillshoro today, while Salem entertains Hillsboro on Sweetland next Tuesday.

· All Hard Hitters Biggest guns in the Woodburn attack were Leftfielder Coleman. Centerfielder Smith, Third Baseman Neal and Substitute Rightfielder Hanauska, who in reality s the team's top hurler but who went in as a pinch - hitter and played the outfitld spot. Coleman rapped a home run that scored one ahead, a double and a single in six trips; Neal poled a pair of triples and a bingle in three official appearances; and Hanauska doubled and singled in two trips Center Patcher Don Barnick collected three of the four Salem hits registered off two Woodburn pitchers, a triple, a double and a single that accounted for three of the local lads' four tallies. His extra base blows came off Yackey. scatter-armed starting hurler, who was relieved in the fifth, with two away, by Miles.

Miles struck out 10 and gave up but two blows in the four plus frames he worked, throwing a fireball that had the Salem hickory wielders stepping in the bucket. Yackey had whiffed seven before he retired, making a total of 17 Salems who bit the dust on Southpaw Clay Patterson started for the locals, giving up 10 hits and allowing 11 earned runs | Seals ran wild to wallop San Diein seven frames. Bob Bailey, a righthander, hurled the last two, in which he was touched for four runs on five hits.
