

Two More in Queen Race

Portland Girls Are Latest Entries in Contest for Flax Ruler

MT. ANGEL—Two more Portland girls have entered the queen contest race for the Mt. Angel Flax festival August 18, 19, and 20. Miss Violet Eterno is the candidate of the Portland Italian citizens and Miss Flora Chiodo, daughter of Mrs. G. Chiodo, 7969 SE 13th avenue is the other entrant.

Miss Marie Schneider, the other Portland candidate, was the first to enter.

Miss Eterno is 21 years old, has brown eyes and dark brown hair and is five feet, four inches in height. She was born in Portland and resides at 230 NE Glisan street with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. Eterno.

Hobby Is Music

She is a graduate of the January, 1936, class of Washington high school and also attended one term at the University of Oregon where she majored in music. Her hobby is studying music and she aspires to be an opera singer. She is also an accomplished pianist and has performed at a number of church and civic club banquets.

In 1938 she was Silver Jubilee queen at St. Philip Neri church. She is fond of all sports, particularly golfing and horseback riding, loves to dance and likes to travel. Besides her interest in cooking she likes to sew and makes all her own clothes.

Miss Chiodo, the latest candidate, has lived in Portland for the past eight years, having moved there from Boring. A dark-eyed brunette, she is 20 years of age, five feet three inches tall. She is a graduate of the St. Johns high school in Milwaukee, and is a member of St. Agatha's church.

Likes Sports

Sports are popular with Miss Chiodo, tennis and roller skating being her favorites. Her ambition is to become a milliner, as she is interested in designing and styling ladies' hats. Music also holds a top spot with this young lady, who is a talented pianist and singer.

Other candidates thus far entered in the contest are Virginia Meek, Mt. Angel, Lee Ryan, Salem, Jeanne Domogalla, Silverton, Pauline Jones, Marquam, and Margaret Whitney, Woodburn.

Four Vie for Queen Title

Three new entrants for Flax Festival Ruler Are Brunettes

MT. ANGEL—Miss Virginia Meek, pitcher for the Mt. Angel girls' softball team and sponsored by Walter C. Cain, local jeweler, is the first Mt. Angel entrant in the Flax Festival queen contest. Several more are expected to file during the week.

Miss Jeanne Domogalla has been entered by Silverton and Marquam is sponsoring Miss Pauline Jones.

Miss Meek is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Meek of Mt. Angel, is 17 years of age, 5 feet, 5 inches tall, and has brown eyes and hair. She graduated from Mt. Angel academy in June and will take up a teaching course at Mt. Angel normal next fall. She is keenly interested in all sports, particularly in softball and is also fond of dancing.

Is Also Brunette

Miss Jeanne Domogalla, 19, is a graduate of the Ilwaco high school and was also a student at Mt. Angel academy for two years. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Domogalla. Born in Astoria, she came to Silverton at the age of two. She has light brown hair and blue eyes and is 5 feet, 5 inches tall. At school she was active in orchestra work and her hobby is collecting match covers.

Marquam's candidate, Miss Pauline Jones, is another music lover. In fact, she hopes to make music her career. She is talented singer and was connected with orchestra and chorus work in the Ilwaco high school. At present she is a majorette in the Silverton American Legion Junior band.

She is a native of Marquam, where her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. L. Jones, reside. Her hair and eyes are brown and she is 5 feet, 4 inches tall.

With Miss Schneider of Portland, the first girl to file candidacy, there are now four contestants. The girl with the highest number of votes will become Queen of Flaxaria and win the expense-free trip to Treasure Island. A crown princess and three princesses will be selected from the four next highest in number. Votes are secured by the sale of Flax Festival buttons.

Fire Burns Roof In Independence

INDEPENDENCE—An early Sunday morning fire destroyed the roof of the W. E. Herrington home at 336 Log Cabin street.

The fire which was discovered shortly after 2 o'clock Sunday morning, was thought to have started from defective wiring.

Prompt action of the Independence fire department and assistance of neighbors saved the home from complete loss and all the furniture was saved.

Charles and James King, who reside at the Madison hop yard east of Independence were apprehended at 2:10 Monday morning by Night Officer Ray Howard stealing gasoline from a car at the Fulmer service station. The boys were brought before Justice of the Peace E. A. Weddle Monday afternoon. Charles King was sentenced to serve 30 days in the Polk county jail and James King was paroled to William Noble for six months.

Night Officer Ray Howard was summoned to the James Coon home Saturday evening when Mr. Coon on arriving home found a prowler in the house. No trace of the man could be found by Officer Howard.

A car driven by Vic Jewell collided with a car driven by Frankie Cluck five miles south of Independence Saturday evening. Mrs. Doney, a passenger in the Jewell car, was badly cut when her head was thrown through the windshield.

W. Stayton Home Is Razed by Fire

WEST STAYTON—The small house occupied by Bill Nelson and family on the Bert Perren place burned to the ground Monday morning with all its contents.

Excitement ran high when the Aumsville fire department arrived with instructions to go to the Perren home which was reported ablaze. The confusion was straightened out by a telephone call to Aumsville and the fire truck proceeded to the scene of the fire.

The Nelson's small son was first to give the alarm. His mother was visiting Mrs. Perren at the time the fire broke out.

Sublimity KC Has 42 new Members

Initiation Ceremonies Held at Stayton; Prominent Guests Present

STAYTON—Thirty-four new members and eight reinstatements increased the membership of the Knights of Columbus of Sublimity to 42 members at a large class initiation at Stayton on Sunday afternoon, July 9. By this increase in membership places this council of the Knights of Columbus 300 per cent over their quota of membership for the current fiscal year, beginning July 1, and is the first council of the state to meet its next year's quota.

The day's activities commenced with communion at 7:30 at the Stayton church, followed by breakfast at the Bon Ton restaurant. The exemplification of the three degrees started at 12:30 and continued throughout the afternoon, concluding with a banquet served to 175 at Sublimity.

The first two degrees of the order were conferred by the local degree team composed of officers of the Sublimity council. The major degree was conferred by the Klamath Falls degree team, assisted by Past State Deputy George J. Wilhelm of Eugene. Grand Knight Roy Pickett of the Klamath Falls council was in charge of the class.

Prominent officials of the Knights of Columbus of Oregon, who officiated at the degrees, and spoke at the banquet, besides Deputy Bell and District Deputy Suver were John A. Kennedy, district deputy of Klamath Falls; Otto L. Smith, state treasurer; John F. Dooley, state secretary; George J. Wilhelm, past state deputy; Rev. M. E. Fleming, state chaplain; Chris E. Neilling, local grand knight; L. A. LeDoux, grand knight of Mt. Angel council; Roy Pickett, grand knight of Klamath Falls council.

Ben Quinter, chairman of the local membership committee to whom much credit is due for the successfully large class, the largest for this council since its inauguration and one of the largest in the state the past few years, also addressed the banquet gathering.

The class of newly initiated members of last Sunday were Rev. Geo. Sniderhorn, Leonard Lambrecht, Leo Minden, Herbert Gescher, Alfred Stuckert, Anton Lackner, Richard Duman, Lawrence Frank, Ludwig Pranti, Charles Van Handel, Theodore Jacoby, James Barash, Louis Schwandt, Peter J. Confection Shop Will Be Moved INDEPENDENCE—Mr. and Mrs. A. Griswold have purchased the building at 29 Main street from Mary E. Chappell and will remodel the building and move their candy and confection shop there after October 1.

The building is now occupied by Bert Keller's cleaning and pressing shop. Mr. and Mrs. Griswold have been operating a confection shop at 223 Main street for the past four years and 33 years ago Mr. Griswold conducted a confection and lunch business at about the location of the present Safeway store.

The building which Mr. Griswold purchased was formerly owned by Dr. James Davidson, an early physician in Independence, and Mrs. Chappell became the owner through the will of her uncle, Dr. Davidson.

The building is 13x65 and the lot has a depth of 86 feet. J. G. McIntosh, local realtor, handled the sale.

Marshfield Woman In Car Accident

Was on Way to Visit With Willamina Relatives Last Week

WILLAMINA—Mrs. Howard Word of Marshfield, when on the way to visit her mother, Mrs. Milton Carter, and other relatives here, met with an accident on Wednesday of last week. Her car left the highway at Salmon river summit, hurtling over a 25 foot bank.

Mrs. Word attempted to stop quickly when unexpectedly approaching a wreck on the highway. Consequently her car skidded over the bank. She suffered shock and serious back lacerations. She was taken back to her home Sunday.

About 60 of the Free Methodist church people here enjoyed a picnic supper at the Buell park Saturday night.

Mrs. W. A. Bowen left Tuesday to visit her mother, who is critically ill at her home in New Westminster, B. C.

Has Infected Leg
