Schoens vs. Pheasants
Kennedys vs. Papermakers

No 15-inning marathon was witnessed at the year ago, but history was nevertheless manufactured as Waits and the Papermakers met on Sweetland last night.

George Roth, with beautiful support, pitched the first no-hit, no-run game on record for the regular night season, allowing only two runs to reach base as he set the Papermakers down, 8 to 0, in seven innings.

For the first five frames, and in the final inning, Roth set the "makers down in order. In the sixth he walked big "Dutch" Schueller, who then took second on Mickenham's infield hit.

Long Flies Scarce
But three balls were hit out of the infield on Roth, two to Jimmy Nicholson in center and one to Tommy Drynan in right.

Real fist: According to measurements on this desk, the fist with which Leo "The Lion" Turner next Wednesday night hopes to lift Buddy Peterson's state middleweight crown is smaller than that appended to the arm of Joe Louis, generally known as the world's heavy-weight champion.

Luck of the Irish
Costly, this game of softball, to Waits' Manager Pete McCaffery. The fiery Irishman has no pennant as a receiver in the local loop, has been knocked over for a couple of iron eagles by Municipal Judge Warren Jones on wagers, and lost a small flatfull of spondulicks to a tramp pitcher whom he signed and fed for a few days.

Best fight pictures yet, the Galento-Louis films now running at the Grand. The "intimate" dressing rooms shots, especially that of Two-Ton and the slow motion stuff on the knockdowns are, as time has it, curt, clear, concise and complete.

BROOKLYN, July 12.—(AP)—Mace Brown, the Pittsburgh Pirates ace relief pitcher, went the route tonight and hurled a six-hit 3 to 0 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers. He pinned the first defeat of the season on Whitey Wyatt, who had previously won eight straight for Brooklyn.

More Teams Sign up for Pacific Trapshooting Meet Here Soon
Birds hit Salem yesterday—120,000 of them.

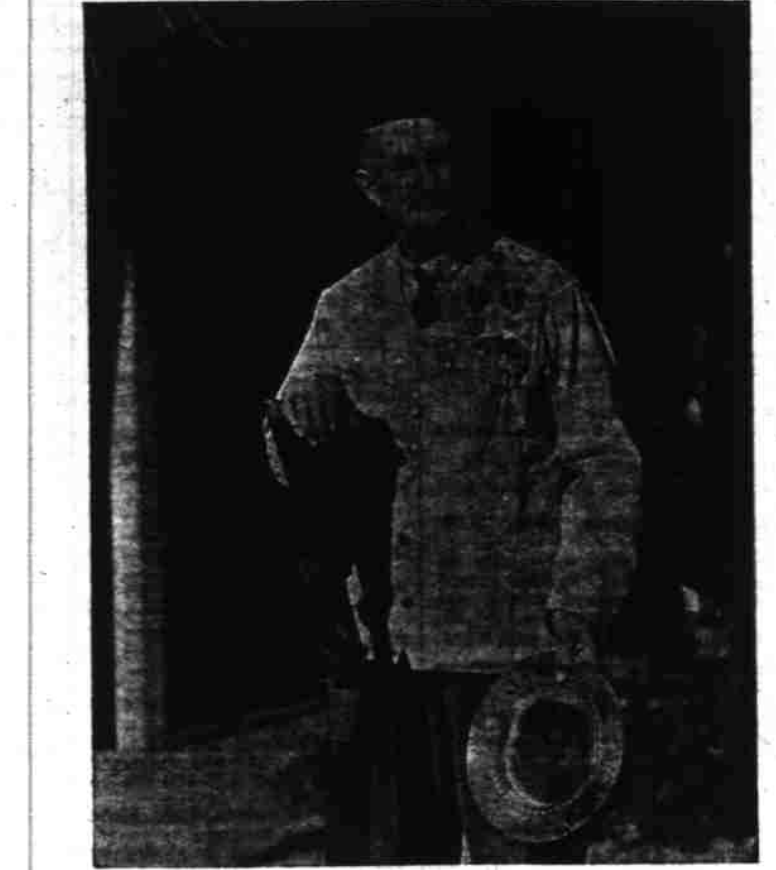

With 80,000 birds already on hand, the additional 120,000 are expected by Salem Club Secretary Clarence Townsend to be "just about enough."

Townsend yesterday announced a warm-up merchandise shoot for this Sunday, during which the new traps that have been installed for the PITA meet will be in service.

Two Salem squads have already posted entry to the big meet, and at least one more is expected to enter. The personnel of one includes L. White, R. Welty, W. D. Carter and W. H. Wolf, and the other is made up of Gordon Hull, C. G. Hiltbrand, Clarence Townsend, C. G. Rob-

Miller Limits Portland Team to two Singles in Silverton Tilt

GAMES TONIGHT
St. Paul vs. Verboort, 7:30.
Silverton Red Sox vs. Portland Babes, 8:45.

SILVERTON—G. Miller, hurling for the Milwaukee Oaks, limited Woodstock to two singles as his team scored an 8 to 0 victory in the first game of Wednesday night's semi-pro tournament double header.

Milwaukee sewed the game up with a five-run spurge in the sixth inning, featured by a home run by C. Schoenheinz, a triple by Mize and a double by J. Schoenheinz. Three errors had contributed to Milwaukee's earlier scoring in the fourth.
