

Committees Named For Flax Festival

Mt. Angel Business Men Pledge Support to Celebration

MT. ANGEL—The Mt. Angel Business Men's club unanimously selected Paul Schwab, president; Frank Hettwer, vice president; and W. D. Harris, secretary-treasurer at its meeting Monday noon. Discussion of the Flax Festival was also held.

The Flaxarians, headed by their new president, Arthur W. Holmes, pledged a united front in trying to make the coming festival, August 18, 19 and 20, one of the best yet. The club promised its hearty cooperation.

Mr. Holmes outlined plans for the celebration and, as general chairman of the festival, appointed the following committees: parade, Lee Withers, chairman, Leonard Fisher, Mark Hungeate, Douglas Harris, John Bigler, Frank Hettwer, Albin Bean, Al Wilde, Walter Cain and Paul Schwab; decoration, A. J. ### Life Goes on Despite Damage Wrought by Flood

—International Illustrated News Phonophoto
Scene at Morehead, Ky., after flood

Despite the damage done to her home by the disastrous flood in eastern Kentucky, this Morehead, Ky., woman calmly reads her newspaper with the front of her home blown away and the floor buckled under her feet. This scene was typical of the damage done throughout the region where the death toll continued to mount as rescue workers recovered additional bodies.

Gervais Will Be Scene of Reunion

GERVAIS—The 49th annual reunion of the Stevens family will be held Sunday, July 16, at the L. A. Esson home instead of the Sam H. Brown home as formerly announced. A large attendance is expected with members coming from all sections of the state.

Mrs. Sarah McCubbins of Dayton, Wash., queen mother of the clan, will be present. She is past 90 and the only living member of the original pioneer family of Hanson and Levina Stevens, who crossed the plains in 1852 and settled on a donation land claim in North Howell.

A picnic dinner will be served at 1 o'clock followed by a program. Among the speakers will be Dr. Guy Mount of Oregon City and Dr. A. M. Esson of Portland who is president.

Grain Harvest at Dayton Is Rushed

DAYTON — Grain harvest in this locality is being rushed; all binders and combines are being pressed into service.

In the Unionvale locality an unusual crew is working where Miss Ida Hobson is running her father's tractor to pull the Royal Hibbs binder, because her father, J. A. Hobson, is ill. Miss Georgia Hobson is sheeking grain in her father's field.

Many fields of rye, vetch and Australian peas are drawing the immediate attention because in a few days the pods pop open and the seed is lost if not harvested at the right stage after ripening.

Civic Club Holds Meeting in Park

DAYTON—The July meeting of the Dayton Woman's Civic club was held in the city park Tuesday afternoon with 15 members present.

After a short business meeting Mrs. M. R. Cooper, who returned Sunday from a two months' trip that took her to the Atlantic coast states to visit relatives and the New York fair, gave a very interesting travelogue of her trip.

The next meeting will be at Lafayette Locks in an all day county federation picnic, Tuesday, August 1. Mrs. Cleo Gell and Mrs. W. S. Hibbert served refreshments.

Big Hatching Season

LEBANON—L. E. Arnold, poultry grower, has closed the hatching season at his yards south of Lebanon with setting for the season of 100,000 turkey eggs and 70,000 chicken eggs, an increase in turkey eggs over any previous season.

Installation Tonight

DAYTON — The semi-annual installation of officers of the Dayton Odd Fellows and Rebekahs will be held jointly Friday night with Sheridan lodge's installing teams putting on the work.

Garner Signs Monetary Bill

Prior to signing by President Roosevelt, the hotly disputed monetary bill, restoring the president's powers to change the gold content of the dollar and operate a $2,000,000,000 stabilization fund, gets the senate's okay through the medium of Vice President John Nance Garner's signature. Senator Alben W. Barkley of Kentucky, senate administration leader, is at the right.

Miss Bourbonnais Seeks Flax Tiara

MT. ANGEL—Newest candidate for queen of the Mt. Angel Flax Festival, August 18, 19 and 20, is Miss Elaine Bourbonnais of Mt. Angel.

Sixteen and very popular, Miss Bourbonnais lists swimming and dancing as her favorite recreations. She keeps house for her father, Albert Bourbonnais, and two brothers. A sister, Mrs. Georgianna Bourbonnais Kruse, was Mt. Angel's first queen in 1935.

Miss Bourbonnais is a junior at Mt. Angel academy. She is greatly interested in collecting poetry and in interior decorating. She is being sponsored by Oberle Bros., local merchants.

George Steelhammer III While on Trip, Father Flies to Be With Him

SILVERTON — George Steelhammer, sr., left by plane at 6 o'clock Wednesday night from Portland for New York City following a wire Mr. and Mrs. Steelhammer received from there to the effect that their son, George, jr., was ill.

Young George Steelhammer left several days ago with a touring group of young people for a voyage around the states. The message asked permission to operate, Mr. Steelhammer said on leaving Silvertton.
