Mrs. Joseph Wilcox and son, Joseph, Jr., of Alhambra, Calif., have arrived in Salem to spend a fortnight with her mother, Mrs. Della Smallwood.

Miss Ruby Smith Tells Betrothal at Dinner

Miss Dorothy Leeper was hostess for a smartly appointed dinner party Tuesday night at her apartment. Corsages marked places for the guests which revealed the betrothal of Miss Ruby E. Smith of Salem to Mr. Otto F. Vonderheit of Portland. The wedding will be an event of September 12.

Bouquets of gladioli and nasturtiums decorated the guest rooms. Covers were placed for Miss Ruby Smith, Mrs. Richard Farra, Mrs. Charles Taylor, Mrs. Stanley Gaylord, Miss Vera Smith, Mrs. Lloyd Reilly, Mrs. Rollin Clark, Mrs. Harold Strawn and Miss Dorothy Leeper.

Mrs. Garrett Hostess To GAR Ladies

Mrs. Rose Garrett was hostess to the Ladies of the Grand Army Wednesday afternoon at her home. The report of the state convention in Portland was read. The color scheme was red, blue and white, with the birthday of Mrs. Mabel Traglio honored.

Those present were Mrs. Jennie Martin, Mabel Traglio, Clara Lucas, Mary Gosser, Florence Smalley, Lena Taylor, Beatrice Henry, Iva Wells and Mrs. Mabel Bogynski, who assisted the hostess.

Visitors Entertained At Findley Home

Dr. and Mrs. M. C. Findley have as their guests for several weeks, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Brydon (Edith Findley) and young son, Ian, of Berkeley, Calif.

The Misses Muriel and Jo Anne Aliver of Yakima, Wash., have returned to their homes following a two-weeks' stay with their grandparents, Dr. and Mrs. Findley. During their visit here, Mrs. Findley, her granddaughters, Mrs. Roy Lockenour and her children, enjoyed a sojourn at Twin Rocks.

Miss Elizabeth Carey, children's librarian at the Salem public library, announced that this is the last week to enroll in the children's reading clubs. The Beavers, first and second graders, now have over 100 enrolled. Those reading all the prescribed books will receive beaver books. The Pioneers, the older group, has 260 enrolled and 33 members have already read all the books necessary.

Mr. William Wharton, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wharton, is visiting for a fortnight in Condon on the George H. Whyte ranch.

Mr. and Mrs. Hayes Rehm and son, Richard, of Seattle are visiting in Salem for several days. They are former Salem residents.

Women's auxiliary Disabled American Veterans of the World War business meeting for July will be held at the home of commander, Mrs. Otto Merhoff, 1945 Berry street July 22nd at 8 p. m.

After the business meeting and social hour, refreshments will be served. Mrs. Verne Ostrander, national executive committeewoman, will be present to accept all dues and membership so that she can take a membership quota of 102 back to the national convention at Boston, Mass., July 30. Mrs. Verne Ostrander is leaving Sunday and will stop off at Boise, Idaho, to pay an official visit to the Veterans hospital at Boise, Idaho. She will also stop off at Caldwell, Idaho, to install officers for the new auxiliary. For the August meeting a picnic will be arranged.

Dr. and Mrs. Robert Evans are leaving today for Nebraska where they will visit with relatives and friends for several days. They will return by way of the San Francisco fair.

Mrs. Delbert Schwabauer and Miss Rose Marie Kronberg are enjoying the week at Newport.

In the Valley Social Realm

AUMSVILLE—A wedding of interest was that of Miss Dorothy Potter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Potter and Mark Lewis, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lewis, who were married in Vancouver Monday morning at the Congregational church.

The bride wore a blue ensemble with blue accessories, and with a corsage bouquet of roses, sweet peas and lily-of-the-valley. She was given in marriage by her father. Miss Fern Lewis, sister of the groom, sang "On Promise Me" and was accompanied by the bride's mother. The wedding party were dinner guests Monday night at the country home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Lewis. Immediately after the dinner the bridal couple left for points in Washington and Canada. Upon their return they will reside at West Stayton. Both are graduates of the Aumsville high school.

DALLAS—An impressive double wedding service was read at the Bruderthaler church here Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when Miss Esther Ruth Wall became the bride of Henry C. Friesen, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. B. Friesen, of Dallas, and Miss Alma Anne Wall became the bride of Walter Janz, son of Rev. and Mrs. E. P. Janz of Steinbach, Manitoba, Canada. The brides are daughters of Rev. and Mrs. John N. Wall of Dallas.

The ceremony was read by Rev. Wall in front of the altar which was banked with gladioli and sweet peas. White tapers in tall candelabra were also used at the altar.

The brides wore identical wedding dresses of white satin with finger tip veil and each carried bouquets of rapture roses and sweet peas.

Miss Alice Wall, a sister of the brides, and Miss Verda Hamm, a cousin, were their attendants and wore frocks of pink voile.
