Several Are From Salem; Nine Girls Already Seeking Honors

INDEPENDENCE—An exciting contest to choose the queen of the 1939 Hop Fiesta was predicted this week when nine girls started selling buttons for the event. The candidates include girls from Independence, Monmouth, Salem and Dallas, and John E. Black, contest director, stated that a number of other girls from both Independence and neighboring cities are yet to be entered.

In a bulletin issued Wednesday, Fiesta headquarters listed the following girls:

Martha Jean Kurre, 18, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Kurre of Dallas.
Elsie Bowler, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Weaver Bowler of Independence.
Marian Cannon, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. A. Cannon of Monmouth.

June Brooks, 16, of Independence, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Brooks of Wrigley.
Kathryn Wade, 16, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jess Wade, 175 S. 15th street, Salem.

Rose Margaret Miller, 21, Salem, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Valentine Miller of Gervais.
Ramona DeLashmatt, 20, of Monmouth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. D. DeLashmatt of Terrebonne, Ore.

Dorothy Zurlinden, 17, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. D. Zurlinden of Rt. 7, box 154, Salem.
Button Sale Begins

Sale of buttons began in Independence Tuesday and was reported to be heartily welcomed. The buttons are distinctive this year in that they bear a picture of a hop leaf and hop and are declared to be excellent advertising for the Independence area and its million dollar industry.

The Hop Bowl organization held its regular meeting Monday and discussed details of the program for the fiesta. It has been decided that the buttons will be the only admission charged at the Thursday and Friday evening performances, the Saturday afternoon and Saturday midnight matinee shows.

Would Be Queen

Invitations were ordered sent to a number of prominent individuals and organizations urging them to be present for the fiesta. Mr. Black stated that the contest, being barely started, is still open to any girl wishing to enter.

A list of the sponsors of the girls is expected to be announced in the near future.

Then take a large 'Sweet Spanish' Onion and cut a slice through the middle about a quarter of an inch thick. Spread about an eighth of an inch of sugar over onion; then squeeze the juice of a lemon on the sugar until it becomes saturated with juice. Slip the other slice of bread on top, and you're all set for the best onion sandwich you ever ate! Try it, if we are wrong, let us know.
