the hitting attack that netted six earned runs off Kelsay, with two doubles and a single in five trips. His double and Johnny Oravec's sacrifice fly, though dropped by Howard Parks in center, scored the third-inning marker. His double figured in the fifth-frame blasting, and his lead-off single in the ninth paved the way for the final Oak run.

Mendenhall Is Class 'A' Top

Wind Hampers Scattergun Artists; Salem Men Do Well in "C"
Firing in the ninth annual Grand Pacific International trapshoot officially got underway here yesterday, with Salem gunners continuing their domination of the class "C" event.
W. H. Wolf, of the local host gun club, cracked down on 191 birds to win the "C" championship handily. Wednesday, in a warm-up program, Salem's Lowell White was the top "C" marksman. The program moves into full stride today, with three events scheduled, including the world's championship 200-bird staggies, from the 16-yard line. Also in the 50-target five-man state team and preliminary doubles events.

Mendenhall Wins
Oregon took the tournament's first big championship in class "A" singles, shooting against a field that includes many of the best trapshooters in the nation, behind near-perfect firing by S. G. Mendenhall, of Grants Pass. Mendenhall, who also sported the day's longest unbroken run, 178 successive birds, broke 198 of his 200 targets in the class "A" division. His feat was equaled by Ernest Carstens, sr., of Camino, Calif., but in a 50-bird championship shoot-out. Mendenhall went straight through the crowd, with his targets and the crown.
Salem's class "A" competitors had plenty of trouble with the breezes, finishing far down the list. Best marks posted by locals were the 189 totals of C. G. Hillibrand and C. G. Robertson, good for 11th place.
The class "B" firing went to California's Stones, G. P. of Modesto and W. J. of Sacramento. The two, who broke 196 and 194 birds, respectively, are no relation to each other, however. In fourth place, with 190 broken targets, was Bert Jones, Gervais marksman.

Viesko's Score Good
Fred Viesko had the best score for locals, 184 birds.
The "D" division title went to a woman, Helen Odell, of Modesto, Calif., in an upset. Miss Odell broke 174 birds to 173 for Weldon Kline, of Coquille, and 172 for another feminine ace, Mrs. R. W. Munger, Astoria.
Miss Odell also gained the first-day lady's championship, with Shirley Nusum, of Quincy, Ore., running up on 173 targets, and Mrs. Munger a close third.
Earl Troeh, Portland, was high professional with 196. His famed father, Frank Troeh of Portland, had his usual first-day jinx and wound up at tie for eighth place with only 191 broken targets.

Two Reach Finals in Women's Golf
PORTLAND, July 20.—(AP)—Mrs. Waitt Nagel, Portland, and Mrs. Blanch Herbig, Eugene, reached the finals of the Oregon Women's Golf association championship today.
Mrs. Nagel edged out Mrs. Dick Grubbs, also of Portland, 1 up. Mrs. Herbig won from Mrs. Victor Hesse, Portland, 2 up.

Big Leagues Scout Them

Guldahl Is Ready For Western Play
Husky Star Has "That old Feeling" as Tourney Gets Started
CHICAGO, July 20.—(AP)—Big Ralph Guldahl has "that old feeling" again.

Big league baseball scouts were devoting attention to the two Dominics of the Pacific Coast league: Dallesandro (left), of the San Diego Padres, and DiMaggio of the San Francisco Seals. Dallesandro is leading the Coast league in batting, with DiMaggio close behind. They are shown in the Seals stadium, San Francisco. DiMaggio is a brother of Joe of New York Yankee fame and also a Seals graduate.

Sailor Bill Hurls Six-Hit Victory

Cubs Defeated 2-1 When Pitchers Stage Duel; Giants Defeated
BOSTON, July 20.—(AP)—Boston's Bees took their second consecutive game from Chicago's Cubs 2 to 1 today in an old-fashioned pitchers' duel which saw Sailor Bill Posedel allow the visitors but six hits and Vance Page give eight to the swarm.
