

Couple Get Case Of Heinz Product

Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Field Cash in on Wedding Anniversary

Novel wedding anniversary present was the box received Wednesday by Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Field, 1435 North Summer street, who celebrated their 57th anniversary June 18. When the wooden box was opened it was found to contain one each of the 57 varieties of products sold by the H. J. Heinz company.

Presentation of the gift was made by P. M. Craven, district representative of the Heinz company. The 57 varieties assortment is given by the company to all couples they know of who are celebrating their 57th anniversary.

Mr. and Mrs. Field, both white haired but active, have nine children, all living, 30 grandchildren

MORO, Ore., July 20.—(P)—Bob Le Bleu got the worst of it when he shot at a rattlesnake sunning itself on a rock.

The bullet rebounded and struck Le Bleu above the eye. He hastened to a doctor without waiting to see what happened to the snake.

Crash at Albany Fatal for Youth

Ronald Carson Long, 20, Is Killed as Auto Sideswipes Bridge

ALBANY—Ronald Carson Long, 20, son of Mr. and Mrs. Spencer Long of Albany, was killed instantly, about 2 o'clock Thursday morning, as he was returning to Albany from a trip to Salem when a tire on the car which he was driving blew out on Pennywinkle bridge in east Albany.

The car was thrown to the opposite side of the highway, hitting the cement railing along the bridge. Long was thrown 15 feet, suffering a crushed chest and fractured skull.

Coroner F. E. C. Fisher was called to the scene. Roy Gustafson, driver of an oil truck, was the only eye witness. Gustafson said he was approaching the bridge, driving north, and slowed down in order that his truck and the approaching car, coming from the north, would not have to pass on the bridge.

Ronald Carson Long was born at Seilo, May 11, 1919, making his home in Albany for the past 15 years. After attending local schools he attended Oregon State two years, and the past year had been a student at the university. He was a member of the ONS and ROTC, of Chi Phi fraternity of Oregon State, and of the Christian church. Surviving are his parents and
