George Roth, of Waits, in the last 28 innings. . . . Giving some indication of what Square Deal will be up against Monday night, along with the fact the Meatmen have raised their team batting average by about 50 percentage points in the last week. That Square Deal-Waits game Monday night is likely to set a new one-night attendance record in our old softball orchard. . . . It now seems to be a neck-and-neck race as to who will uncover the most sin and vice in New York-Michigan's Governor Dickinson or Dewey. "There has been a change in Wednesday night's games-Tuesday night's games have been moved to Saturday night." last week announced Heber Princehouse, mike maestro at Sweetland. There has been a revival of the once popular phrase, "that's a horse on you," in these parts. . . . Last week's riding academy episode would, in fact, lead one to believe there has been a public "paper" chase in progress for several months. . . . For every horse there seems to be a bale of, not hay, but "paper." . . . .

Semi-Pros Sign Pro Contracts

Two errors afield and four straight strikeouts at the plate was the record of one Oregon semi-pro tournament player at Silverton last week immediately after he'd signed a big league contract. . . . "Skeet" O'Connell, Hillbilly shortstop, was signed to a Detroit Tiger contract just before the Hills Creek-Albany semi-final Thursday night, Grant Ilseng, national skeet chamand promptly did his best to make Scout Carl King of Cottage Grove look bad. . . . King informed your correspondent he was sending each with scores of 115. The tar-O'Connell, (who played outstanding basketball and baseball for Al get wrongfully scored, witnessed Cox last year over at Monmouth), to the Tiger farm at Beaumont, by many shooters, cost Troch a where also is Oregon's Bob Hardy. .

O'Connell, a big, loose kid of 21, played a whale of game at short for the 'Billies against Toledo in the quarter-finals, handling eight tough chances errorlessly and collecting a triple in three trips. . . . One of the boots charged against him in the Albany tilt could easily to forfeit the championship to IIhave been called a hit, in our opinion, as the batsman had the slow seng was refused, and the talented roller beat out anyhow. . . .

Also signed out of the semi-pro meet was Frank Kendall, Silverton Bee flinger. . . . "Happy" Howard Maple signed him for Lewiston | first place money. of the Pioneer loop. . . . The Oregon semi-pro champ will play the winner of a four-team Washington tourney now in progress at Walla Walla for the regional title and trip to Wichita, Kansas, for the national, championships. . . .

Gifted Softball Gals Coming

Teams vying in the Washington meet are Walla Walla's Jaycees, Seattle's Glaser's, Roslyn Indians and Bellingham. . . . In opening games the Jaycees beat Glaser, 3 to 2, and Bellingham bounced Roslyn, 7-0. . . . It begins to appear Bridges didn't burn all of 'em behind him. . . Even should he be proved a red, however, he'll have to go some to beat Cincinnati's rambunctious Reds into the world series. . .

Definitely coming for August 9 and 12 games is the famous girls' softball club from Stockton, Calif., Branch's Tommies . . . According to dope received here by Salem Association Manager Gurnee Flesher, the Tommies have lost but ten games in the 265 played in four years, which same include two appearances in the national championship tourneys at Chicago . . . With 200-pound Erva Nason pitching, the Tommies lost the national title to Chicago, 2-0. . .

He got the fob. did eight-year-old Buzzy Yocom. He telephoned the Sweetland press box during Friday night's games at Sweetland, had Square Deal Manager Bob Schwartz paged, and queried: "Can I come out and be your bat boy?" . . . Pittsburgh may fly to Seattle for its game with Washington this fall. . .

"Bows vs. Niblicks" Going Good

Archers vs. golfers is becoming quite a feud among Salem fire department sportsmen, with the bow and arrow experts out in the lead at this writing . . . Friday Archers Glen Shedeck and Bill Hunt trimmed Golfers Percy Clark and Pete McCaffery by a substantial margin over the Salem course . . . The archers outdrove the golfers by from 10 to 20 yards, netting a maximum of 250 yards off the tee. . . Comparative accumulative scores would tend to indicate Waits place.

as the better offensive club and Square Deal as the better defensive outfit . . . In nine games played by each (up to last night) Waits had scored 75 runs to 30 against them, while Square Deal had tallied 55 to 22 scored upon it . . . Waits' margin of victory over nine opponents is 45, 12 more than Square Deal's 33 for the same number of

The Waits club has steadily improved, while Square Deal isn't playing as good now as the Radiosters did the first of the season . . However, the fact remains they hold 8-1 and 2-1 wins over the

Sincerely hope you all didn't overlook the recent major sports upset? . . . Harrow beat Eton at cricket for the first time in 31 years on Lord's grounds in London . . . No less than six members of Oregon baseball teams on which Joe Gordon scintillated were playing in the semi-pro meet at Silverton. Don McFadden of Albany, Andy Hurney of the Red Sox, Ray Koch of the Babes, and Bob Wiltshire and Dick

The more modern version changes the "cart before the horse" to the "mortgage before the horse" . . . And that's enough of this playing horse for today.

It's not lost yet, but between the two, and mechanical trouble in a trap that forced a 15-minute delay, Troeh wound up in a tie with pion from Santa Monica, Cal.,

Soon after leaving the firing line, Troeh nearly collapsed from a touch of sun stroke. His offer pair will stage a special shoot-off this morning for the crown and

Today is the last day of the shoot, biggest ever to be held in Salem. Two major events will be staged starting at 8:30 this morning. First up is the "President's One Hundred," 100-targets from the 16-yard line, for the trophy offered by PITA Prexy Col. O. N.

Handicap Title up

Immediately following this competition the world's handicap title will be decided. This event will also decide the "champion of champions" and tournament "allaround" championships. Troch and Ilseng are staging a nip-and tuck battle for these crowns at the current reading.

Troeh scored 198 in Friday's singles and 115 yesterday, while Ilseng has 196-115. Also very much in the race is Idaho's J. O. Cotant, with 196-113. Only these three events are counted.
