Creole Frosting Tops Summer Cake
 New is this recipe for icing that has a romantic sound to the name.
CREOLE BUTTER FROSTING
 1 1/2 tablespoons butter
 2 cups sifted confectioners' sugar
 1 tablespoon cocoa

Style-Smiles --- by Gretchen

"All this talk about radio some day supplanting newspapers is silly. Did you ever try to wrap something in a radio?"

Oh did you ever try wrapping yourself in a glamorous housecoat—just to see what a lift you'll get? This one is a dream of rosebud print, trimmed all round in ruffles. Grosgrain ribbon emphasizes its princess lines. Box pleats give casual fullness to the white dress at right, and low-laced pockets, above an embroidered belt, seem to form a continuation of the pleats. Note the turnover collar and wide full sleeves.

Local Tomatoes Showing in Markets.

Local tomatoes, bright and red, make summer cooking a real pleasure and salad making simple.

All the root vegetables are ready for salad too.

Cucumbers are just as green as tomatoes are red. Onions are ready for salad too.

Squash comes in wide variety, with summer ones predominating. For instance, there are three distinct summer squashes that are labeled Zucchini, all are good. Scaloped and crook necked also are here. Baking a squash appeared last week.

Corn is really here, looks like corn, too.

Eggplant appears in larger quantities.

Green peppers are beginning to show more frequently and in larger numbers.

All the root vegetables are waiting to be used.

Local figs have appeared, orchards or groves from our own hills have produced excellent fruit, quite low in price for figs.

Among the melons appear casabas, honeydew, cantaloupe, watermelons.

Crabapples are in market this week.

Yellow transparent and gravenstein apples are for cooking.

A few apricots remain; peaches are coming along pretty soon for canning. Plums and prunes are sold by the basket.

Blue, pink and green grapes are from California. No local ones yet.

Bananas are inexpensive and good.

Citrus fruits include juice oranges that are very low in price, good grapefruit and many lemons.

Refreshment Found in Grapefruit Salad

Citrus fruits have the happy faculty of quenching the thirst, and when put into salads will give the same refreshing reaction. Here are several salads to be made from canned grapefruit which means good flavor and simplicity in preparation.

SALAD CHIFFONADE
 1 head lettuce
 1 no. 2 can grapefruit segments
 3 small tomatoes
 French dressing
 2 green peppers

Line a salad bowl with lettuce. In this nest of lettuce leaves arrange the shredded green peppers, tomatoes cut in quarters and the grapefruit. Serve with French dressing, 6 servings.

FLORIDA MOLD
 Dissolve one package lemon flavored gelatin in 1 1/4 cups warm water. Add 3/4 cup grapefruit juice, 2 tablespoons sugar and dash of salt. Turn into individual molds and chill until firm. Unmold and serve.

SPANISH SALAD
 1 no. 2 can grapefruit segments
 1 canned pimiento (cut into strips)
 4 ripe olives or pickled walnuts
 Mayonnaise
 Lettuce or salad greens

Arrange segments of grapefruit on bed of lettuce to form a star. Lay strips of pimiento between segments. Place a halved ripe olive or slice of pickled walnut at center of star and decorate segments of grapefruit with tiny bits of the relish. Serve with plain mayonnaise or any favorite salad dressing. Serves 4.

Molasses Pie Pudding From South

They should know their molasses in the deep south, and they do, if such recipes as these two are favorites, and they are—

PENNSYLVANIA SHOOLY PIE
 1 1/2 cups flour
 1 cup granulated sugar
 1/2 cup butter
 1/2 teaspoon nutmeg
 1 egg, slightly beaten
 3 tablespoons lemon juice
 Grated rind of 1/4 lemon
 1/2 cup molasses
 1/2 teaspoon soda
 1/2 cup hot water

Mix flour, sugar, butter, nutmeg; blend with fork to crumb consistency. Mix egg, lemon juice, rind, molasses; dissolve soda in hot water; add to molasses mixture. Line 9-inch pie plate with pastry; pour in filling; sprinkle crumb mixture on top; bake in hot oven (450 degrees) 10 minutes, decrease heat to 350 degrees; bake 30 minutes longer, or until done. Top of pie should be golden-brown, and filling the consistency of jelly.

LOUISIANA RICE PUDDING
 4 cups milk
 1/2 cup molasses
 1/2 cup washed rice
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup raisins

Mix well; bake in slow oven (275-300 degrees) 2 1/2 hours, stir several times (every 15 minutes for first hour); add 3 tablespoons butter in fourth stirring. Serves 6.

Sleepers' Chart Tells Hours To Sleep

Every woman who wants to look her best, every man who needs to be at his highest efficiency, needs to sleep enough to store up energy. Scientists have recently worked out an accurate chart for sleep. Carefully made beds, with good mattresses and good bedding are taken as standards for this scientifically worked out sleep chart.

Age	Sug. hours of sleep
At birth	20 to 22
At 1 year	14 to 16
6-7 years	13
11-12 years	10 to 11
15-20 years	9 to 10
20-35 years	8
35-50 years	8 to 9
50-75 years	10 to 11

In summer, adults between the ages of 20 and 50 may reduce the suggested sleeping hours to the minimum number without endangering health, if they awaken feeling refreshed and ready for the day. However, the expert's caution, to sleep less and yet not be deprived of any of the benefits of satisfactory rest, one must have sleeping equipment which is well-made and in the best of condition.

Apples Make Filling For Rolls

Hot breads and fancy rolls more than pay their way in popularity. Here is a bun with filling for summer meals:

APPLE, NUT AND RAISIN BUNS
 2 1/2 cups sifted flour
 4 tablespoons baking powder
 2 tablespoons melted butter
 3 apples, diced
 1/2 cup nut meats
 1/2 teaspoon salt
 1/2 cup shortening
 1/2 cup raisins
 2 tablespoons granulated sugar
 1/2 teaspoon cinnamon
 1/2 cup milk
 1/2 cup molasses

Sift together flour, baking powder, salt; cut in shortening; add milk slowly, stir constantly; knead dough 30 seconds on floured board; roll 1/2-inch thick; spread with melted butter; sprinkle with apples, nuts, raisins, sugar, cinnamon; pour 1/2 molasses over filling; roll like jelly roll; cut in 1-inch slices; place 1 inch apart in greased pan. Four over rest of several times (every 15 minutes for first hour); add 3 tablespoons butter in fourth stirring. Serves 6.

Dessert Bridge Parties Given For Visitors

Two popular visitors in the capital have been Mrs. Thomas Gulle Harvey of Madison, Wis., and Mrs. Charles Crawford Clarke of Galesburg, Ill., sisters of Mrs. James Humphrey. The visitors left for their homes on Friday following a fortnight's stay at the Humphrey home.

Several informal affairs have been arranged in their honor during the week. The Humphreys entertained informally at dinner at the Aero club in Portland Tuesday night for their guests.

Mrs. Humphrey entertained with two smartly appointed dessert luncheons at her Fairmount Hill home on Monday and Tuesday in compliment to her sisters. Bridge was in play during the afternoon and bouquets of summer flowers provided the decorative note.

Pattern

Are you the "I-hate-to-get-up-in-the-morning" type? You'll view the dawn with new eyes in this fresh little cotton frock, Anne Adams' Pattern 4137. The front-buttoning makes it a quick in and out, and lets you spread it flat for speedy ironing. And see those grand side panels—they'll slim your hips and widen your skirts to a youthful flare. There's a generous panel in the back skirt too. Don't you love the way the collar scallops its way all around, ending short or extending into curved revers? It would be most effective in contrasting fabric, with cuffs to match. Ric-rac or ruffles add a gay touch, and a pocket gives extra chic.

Pattern 4137 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30 and 32. Size 16 takes 4 1/2 yards 25 inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrast.
