Gifts Received Mrs. Else Eb-sen, librarian of the art center, reports the gift of 17 art books, several hundred art magagines, and numerous color prints to the library. Outstanding was a collection of 48 color prints, the gift of Governor Sprague, and The Oregon Statesman. An item of particular interest is the folio of prints of pen drawings of Indians and cowboys by the great western artist, Charles Russell. Also available to artists and teachers are some 80 folders containing thousands of clippings in reference to fine and related arts. The state and public libraries maintain continual loan of about 100 ar books for use at the art center.

George Potts Returns-Back from a two-month visit with relatives in Montana, George W. Potts, former president of the Farmers Union, yesterday gave encouraging reports of the state as to agricultural and livestock conditions. He reported viewing a sale of 500 head of cattle at Billings at gratifying prices, using a new method in weighing each animal and selling by the pound. The sugar beet industry near Billings is also tlourishing, Potts said, with one of the world's biggest refineries aiding the growth of that city. Potts crossed the entire state on his trip and also included Yellowstone national park.

July Building Lusty Figure

$97,519 Total for Month Exceeds 1938 Period; Many new Homes

Building permits for July of this year outran those of the same month last year by over $11,000, figures released by City Building Inspector E. C. Bushnell yesterday indicated. The total for 1939 was $97,519, while a year ago only $86,192 worth of permits was taken out.

Permits for erecting 24 single family dwellings at a total estimated cost of $62,000, were taken cut during the 31 days just elapsed, while a year ago the erection of 16 was allowed, at an estimated cost of $48,300. The situation was reversed in the matter of alterations and repairs, however, for a year ago permits for an expected $35,602 worth of repairs were issued, and during July, 1939, the total was $16,158.

It was pointed out that the permit for building the new city fire station on State street, at a cost of $15,398, was included among this year's July permits, as well as those for the large number of pri-

A person reported to be soliciting funds for the keep of the city first aid car and said to have been successful to some extent, particularly in the Hollywood area, was sought yesterday by city authorities. He was reported to be offering, in most instances, a bottle of extract, 10 cents of the purchase price of $1 of which was to go to endorsing agencies.

Mayor W. W. Chadwick stated yesterday that no authority had been given by the city to use its name in such merchandising When a representative of the city called on him, the mayor reported that no ordinance covered the situation. Ross Goodwin, chairman of the fire department committee, stated that the city still has sufficient funds to maintain the first aid car and that no outside help is wanted or has been authorized.

Captain Charles Charlton, in charge of the car, is assisting in putting a stop to the practice.
