Aumsville Annual Homecoming Set

Picnic Planned for Sunday in Highberger Park; Pensioners Meet

AUMSVILLE — The annual homecoming picnic will be held here Sunday in the Highberger park. A picnic dinner will be served at the noon hour and a short program and a business meeting will follow. T. P. Otto and family returned Monday from Douglas county, where they have spent several weeks visiting with relatives. The Townsend club will meet Thursday night at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Kadeau. The meeting will be in the nature of a party, celebrating the birthday of Mrs. Kadeau and their wedding anniversary.

Fred Garbe, president of the Townsend club, announces that the Slater family of Vancouver, Wash., will be in Aumsville, August 20 for an afternoon meeting with the club. Mr. and Mrs. Slater will address the club and their two daughters will entertain with musical selections. Mrs. Edith Ramsey of San Francisco, Mrs. Ulyssa Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. F. B. Greer, Ralph Whitmore of Stockton, Calif., are here for a visit at the home of their sister, Mrs. Otto Fuson. They plan to be in Aumsville for a week's stay.

and Mr. and Mrs. Terhune and family, Mr. and Mrs. Selander left for their home Tuesday, stopping to visit the Golden Gate fair. C. J. Thurston, Mrs. Thurston and two children left Thursday for a vacation trip to the beaches.

Stayton Rebekahs Have Circus Party

STAYTON — A lawn party was enjoyed at the Shaeffer home Tuesday night after the regular meeting of the Stayton Rebekah lodge.

The "Circus" idea was carried out during the entertainment, and ice cream and pink lemonade were served from a decorated pop stand. John Clark, a guest, won the prize as the best tight rope walker, and Mrs. H. J. Rowe won the prize for keeping her balloon in the air the longest. Mrs. B. A. Shaeffer, Mrs. Bee Johnson and H. J. Rowe are on the August committee.

Pleasantdale Farm Produces Heavily

PLEASANTDALE — From a 12-acre field in the J. A. McFarlane farm in the Pleasantdale district an average of 67 bushels an acre of fall wheat was received Monday. Sixty-six bushels an acre of winter oats was grown on a five-acre field on the same farm.

Woodburn Blazes Call Fire Truck

WOODBURN — The Woodburn fire department was called out about 2 p.m. Wednesday afternoon to extinguish a grass fire at the M. Fryer place on Stark street. The fire which was endangering the barn was almost-out when the fire department arrived due to the efforts of the section men who were working nearby. The fire department was called out three times Monday afternoon. Each of these calls were grass fires out of town which were quickly extinguished.

Licenses Issued

DALLAS — Marriage licenses were issued here this week in the office of County Clerk Carl S. Graves to Herbert Raymond McBe and Margaret June Campbell, both of Dallas, and to Albert G. Brooks and Marguerite Humphreys, both of Hoskins.

Woodburn's Fair Plans Expanded

Board Meets Cooperation From City Residents on Coming Event

WOODBURN — Additional plans for the Woodburn fair were acted upon at the meeting of the fair board Tuesday. All committees appointed at the previous meeting reported. Offers of assistance have been given by various persons throughout the community. It is the intention of the board to maintain free admission to all exhibits and entertainments, except the entertainment presented each night. Exhibitors are requested to register at either the Woodburn branch of the First National bank of Portland or at the office of John P. Hunt and Son, as early as possible. Two new committees were appointed. The old time picture section will be handled by Mrs. Ella Fikaa and Mrs. Elizabeth Glatt. Mrs. John Muir, with the assistance of the school teachers, will have charge of the school children's parade. At a recent school board meeting, Rosina Barnes, teacher at Springbrook, Ore., the past few years, was elected to teach the fourth grade at Lincoln grade school here. A baby boy weighing 8 1/2 pounds was born to Dr. and Mrs. A. B. Naslund at a Salem hospital Tuesday. He is their first child and has been named Robert Edward.

Noble Grands on Picnic at Beach

JEFFERSON — Members of the Past Noble Grands of Mt. Jefferson Rebekah lodge held their annual picnic at Newport Tuesday. They visited the Punch Bowl and other places of interest along the coast. A chicken dinner was enjoyed.

In the group were Misses Laura and Flora Thomas, Mrs. Leo Wells, Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hartley, Mrs. T. O. Kester, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Carl, Mrs. Grace Thurston, Mrs. Paul Smith, Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Goin and grandson Floyd Duncan of Pendleton, and Mrs. Bessie Porter. They report having a fine time, though it was foggy and chilly.

The missionary society of the Evangelical church met at the home of Mrs. A. Wilson Wednesday. Mrs. A. P. Layton led devotions and was in charge of the meeting. The topic for study was "What Churches Do for Cities." Mrs. Wilson read a poem, "What Have I Done for Jesus." Miss Helen Kihns reported upon the convention at Jennings Lodge. Rev. Layton gave the book review.

Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Selander of Chicago and Mrs. Edith Anderson of Salem were weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Terhune, Sunday they enjoyed a picnic at Thomas creek. Other guests at the picnic included Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Selander, Geneva and Phyllis of Salem, Harry Clark of Corvallis

Irvin Principal Of Gates School

GATES — Professor J. W. Irvin of Eden, Idaho, has accepted the position of principal of the Gates school.

Mr. Irvin is a native of this state and received his early education in Portland schools. He is a graduate from Pacific university. He taught one year at Lafayette, five years in Washington and three years in Idaho. Construction of the new concrete 7000 gallon water tank for the Gates school is well under way. The building contract was awarded to N. J. Thomas who expects to have the tank ready for use by August 18.

Francis Young was taken to the hospital in Salem last week for an operation on her foot. She has made several return trips for treatment. Mr. and Mrs. Roy Redberg of Oretown visited with Lois Larson and family Sunday.

FRESH FISH—CHICKEN—KIPPERED SALMON

You folks who like Good Living . . .

HAVE YOU TASTED THIS MAN-STYLE BEER?

You'll notice right away that Brown Derby has the real Pilsner head—creamy and unusually fragrant. The clear, brilliant color of Brown Derby is a mark of fine Pilsner, too. And so are those pin-point bubbles that keep darting up through the light golden beer as you drink.

Now take a deep, hearty swallow—the real test! Feel your tongue greet Brown Derby's light, refreshing goodness . . . that matchless Pilsner smack. It's not strong or heavy. It's neither hop-bitter nor malt-sweet. Just temptingly, perfectly balanced in-between!

The true Pilsner flavor, say experts. Judge for yourself, today. Lay in an ample supply of Brown Derby—and enjoy the taste-thrill only real Pilsner can bring you!

IMPORTED PILSNER'S MATCH!

HOW EXPERTS JUDGE TRUE PILSNER

HEAD: Creamy, long-lasting—fragrant

BODY: Bright amber, crystal-clear. With tiny bubbles that keep sparkling up all the while you drink

FLAVOR: Neither strong, bitter nor sweet. A light, mellow beer taste—the true Pilsner smack. Brown Derby has it!
