Brigadier General and Mrs. Thomas E. Riley and Mr. and Mrs. William D. Evans have invited guests to a supper party at the former's home on South High street Saturday night.

The affair will compliment Mr. and Mrs. Curtis Johnson of Vallejo, Calif., popular visitors in the capital and guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Laban Steeves. The evening will be spent informally. Covers will be placed for 20 guests.

Pattern

Here's a practical and becoming shirtwaister to wear from sun-up to sun-down. It's easy as can be to stitch from Anne Adams' Pattern 4899. That buttoning that goes all down the front not only lets you dress speedily, but makes for easy, flat handling while sewing, too. Darts or tucks below the all-around yoke release splendid roominess. For an attractive effect, you might sealop the edges of the pockets, the sleeves, and the becoming collar, (which looks radiantly fresh in white). Notice the nice, slim lines of the paneled skirt. Doesn't this attractive style suggest one of the popular checked cottons or washable spun rayons?

Pattern 4899 is available in misses' and women's sizes 16, 18, 20, 24, 36, 38, 40, 42, 44 and 46. Size 16 takes 4 3/8 yards 36-inch fabric and 1/2 yard contrast.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coin for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and STREET NUMBER. Allow three weeks for shipment. Please enclose money in advance. For more information, send today! SEND FIFTEEN CENTS' PATTERNS FIFTEEN CENTS. BOOKS AND PATTERNS TOGETHER, TWENTY-FIVE CENTS.

Send your order to The Oregon Statesman, pattern department.

Style - Smiles - - - by Gretchen

"Art's getting a little discouraged. He says the only thing that's just around the corner from him is another woman driver!"

Whether it's discouraging to the other sex or not, be in the driver's seat this fall with a jacket and skirt ensemble smart as the one on the left. Multicolored plaid covers a mustard ground in the beltless jacket; directly below the fitted waist, large patch pockets reach to the hem. Paired with a navy skirt, plaid in several browns, a new fall coat, right, puts sharp emphasis on back flare and on a luxurious lynx collar.

Miss Savage Is Honor Guest at Supper Party

Garden Tour Is Planned for This Month

The Salem Garden club is to have another of its popular garden tours, and it's scheduled for Friday, August 18. For the fourth season, this active Salem club has sponsored "open gardens" and this year's tour will include an entirely new set of back yards.

The gardens were chosen because, although they are not the largest or most elaborate in town, they are among the most interesting. Several are new, each has some unusual feature, most are on the creek bank, which gives them added beauty.

Mrs. Ralph Cooley's garden begins the tour, Mrs. Phillip Brandt's, Mrs. Merritt Davis', Mrs. Roger Mything's, Mrs. Edward Burke's and Mrs. Karl Becke's follow.

Those who know these gardens, say they offer ideas galore for any home gardener. Several show what beautiful lawns may be grown in deep shade.

Publicity Good For Humble Frankfurter

Publicity often falls to do a human good, but all this notoriety gained for the humble hot dog, who crashed into royal society during the viceroy king and queen, only served to add prestige to a popular American favorite.

Frankfurters (hot dogs to you) are putting on party airs these days, but as yet, they remain their own sweet selves. A generous slice of American cheese added to the frankfurter takes none of the ruggedness away from this favorite.

Just the correct amount of good flavor is added to make the heat even more popular. There's no trick to preparing the super-frankfurter. Simply make a lengthwise slit in one of the more plump ones, place a generous wedge of American cheese in the slit, wrap with a piece of bacon and skewer with a toothpick. Broil slowly until the cheese is bubbling and bacon is brown. Serve hot in picnic rolls with salad and iced coffee or tea.

Those who know these gardens, say they offer ideas galore for any home gardener. Several show what beautiful lawns may be grown in deep shade.
