August Brides-Elect Make Plans for Forthcoming Church Ceremonies

August is another favorite month for weddings this year and is nearly equalling the number of June brides. Brides-elect are announcing plans for the weddings while others are revealing details for early fall ceremonies.

Miss Hill to Wed Saturday

The largest wedding of the coming week will be that of Miss Charlotte Hill, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. David Bennett Hill, who will be married to Mr. Vernon Frank Pomeroy, son of Mrs. Frances Clay Pomeroy on Saturday night. The ceremony will take place at the First Presbyterian church at 8 o'clock with Rev. W. Irvin Williams officiating.

Miss Virginia Hurst of San Francisco, who will be the maid-of-honor, will arrive in the capital Monday to remain at the Hill home until after the ceremony.

Miss Barbara Pierce, one of the bridesmaids, will entertain with a delightful informal party at the Fairmount hill home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Edgar Pierce, on Monday night for the pleasure of Miss Hill. Bridge will be in play during the evening with a late supper following. A bridal shower will compliment the bride-to-be.

Luncheon in Portland

Mrs. Robert Stanfield and Mrs. Howard Gattie of Portland, aunts of Miss Hill, are arranging a luncheon for her on Wednesday afternoon at the Waverly Country club in Portland.

Covers will be placed for Miss Charlotte Hill, Mrs. David Bennett Hill, Mrs. William H. Lytle, Mrs. James Hill of Pendleton and members of the bridal party, Miss Virginia Hurst of San Francisco, Miss Barbara Pierce, Miss Shirley Evenson, Miss Shirley Cronemiller and Miss Isabel Hill of Pendleton.

Following the luncheon Miss Hill and her mother and Mrs. Lytle will attend a tea for which Mrs. Joseph A. Knapp will be hostess at the Waverly Country club for her son and daughter-in-law. Mr. and Mrs. Burke Knapp of London, who were recently married and are visiting in Portland.

Miss Hammond to Be Married

Miss Betty Hammond will be married on August 21 to Mr. Joseph Cronin, jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Cronin, sr., of Seattle, at St. Joseph's Catholic church at 9:30 o'clock with Father John J. Reidy officiating. Miss Mary Ellen Hammond will be the maid-of-honor and Mr. Paul Sylvester of Chicago will be best man. Mr. Dan O. Hammond will give his sister in marriage. A wedding breakfast will follow the ceremony. Miss Hammond is the daughter of Mrs. Oliver C. Hammond.

Miss Holman August Bride

On Wednesday, August 23, Miss Grace Elizabeth Holman, daughter of Mrs. Thomas Holman, will become the bride of Mr. Winston Williams, son of Mrs. Stella V. Williams, at a large church ceremony at the First Methodist Episcopal church at 8:30 o'clock in the evening.

Rev. J. C. Harrison will perform the ceremony. Mrs. Bruce Hamby (Margaret Heltzel) of Eugene will be Miss Holman's honor attendant. A reception at the Holman home on North Summer street for members of the family and close friends will follow the wedding.

Reveals Wedding Plans

Another August bride-elect to announce her wedding plans is Miss Elizabeth Morehouse, daughter of Mrs. W. G. Morehouse, who will become the bride of Mr. Clayton Steinko, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Steinko, on Sunday, August 27. The ceremony will be performed at St. Paul's Episcopal church with Rev. George H. Swift officiating at 4 o'clock.

Mr. Manning Nelson will sing preceding the service and Professor T. S. Roberts will play the wedding marches. Miss Edith Morehouse will be her sister's honor attendant. Mr. James Fowler will serve as best man for Mr. Steinko. Ushers will be Mr. Raymond Steinko, Mr. Charles Schannep and Mr. George Dawson. A reception in the gardens of the Morehouse home will follow the ceremony.

Mrs. F. O. Repline will be hostess to members of the North Salem WCTU on Tuesday at her home at 250 Union street. Mrs. L. Roberts will lead devotions and election of officers will be held.

Mrs. W. Ludd Read, Mrs. J. E. Burns and Mrs. C. C. Cannon are leaving the first of the week for a six-weeks trip east which will take them to Minneapolis and Indiana where Mrs. Burns resides.

Mrs. Donald Young and son, Donny, have returned from a stay at the Gearhart hotel.

Miss Mock to Be Bride in September

An early September wedding to be solemnized is that of Miss Aileen Mock of Salem, daughter of Mr. C. O. Mock of Bluffton, Indiana, to Mr. Joseph F. Bernardi, son of Mrs. Roy Weston of Salem.

The ceremony will take place on Saturday, September 2 at St. Vincent dePaul church at 6:45 a.m. Father Robert S. Neugebauer will read the service.

The bride has asked Mrs. George Smith to be her matron of honor and Mr. Smith will serve as best man for Mr. Bernardi.

The couple will leave for a short trip and will return to Salem to reside.

Seen and Heard

HIGHLIGHTS from the American Legion auxiliary convention... The decorations at the various events were effective and unusual... Perhaps the largest and most colorful affair was the tea on Friday... The setting for the tea was the spacious green lawn on the Willamette university campus between Waller and Eaton halls... Gorgeous lawn furniture in greens, blues and white including several dozen chairs, swings, umbrellas and tables were arranged about the campus... The small punch tables were centered with pastel summer bouquets... Hundreds of Salem women and visitors called during the afternoon... From there the guests went on a garden tour viewing both formal and informal gardens.

At the past presidents' banquet on Thursday the state house and patriotic color scheme was used in the decorations... At the speaker's table an exact replica of the new state capital building made of white blossoms and banked with red gladioli... At each place was a red geranium in a blue pot... Other blue, white and red flowers were used on the tables with lots of greenery adding to the effect.

Clever table arrangements at the secretary and treasurer's breakfast on Friday with the state fair as the theme... At the head table a sunken garden made of varied colored flowers... Each table represented a different part of the fair... One was the concessions with a merry-go-round, trains, ferris wheel and stands... A dog show for another... An automobile show... The Chemawa Indian school exhibit... fish and fowl... fruit and vegetable exhibits... The guests at the luncheon were... The particular theme of the decorations.

A FEEK INTO a few new Salem homes... The modern colonial home of Dr. and Mrs. Carl Emmons on the hill at Fawcett street and has a grand view of the four mountains from both living room windows, bedrooms and the terrace... The living room in old rose and Alice blue... two love seats and an all-rose carpet... blue figured drapes at the two very large windows... a study in ivory and gold... the large terrace... a bedroom downstairs with separate closets for the man and woman... Blue predominates in the dining room with the china carrying out the same color scheme with a touch of gold... Beautiful wall paper all over the house with exquisite color schemes... Margaret Jane's bedroom with twin beds and a balcony at one end... A large recreation and game room in the basement with fireplace... A few conveniences in the kitchen... A tiny swinging cupboard for spices... towel dryer, sprayer in the sink and an opening in the floor for the housewife to remove her dirt after sweeping.

Out on the Schurman road overlooking the Salem Golf club is the country home which goes out into the house with exquisite color schemes... Margaret Jane's bedroom with twin beds and a balcony at one end... A large recreation and game room in the basement with fireplace... A few conveniences in the kitchen... A tiny swinging cupboard for spices... towel dryer, sprayer in the sink and an opening in the floor for the housewife to remove her dirt after sweeping.

Miss Read Is Betrothed to Mr. Cannon

A betrothal of interest to members of the younger set is that of Miss Betty Read, daughter of Mrs. W. Ludd Read, to Mr. Robert Cannon, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Cannon, which was announced at a smartly appointed luncheon Saturday afternoon for which Mrs. Carl G. Collins was hostess at the Ira Jorgensen home on Center street.

The wedding will be an event of Saturday, October 23. Miss Read is well known in the capital and is a graduate of Salem schools. She is a member of Beta Sigma Phi and is now associated with the Northern Life Insurance Co.

Mr. Cannon also received his education in Salem and later attended the University of Oregon. He is now connected with Guy Irwin Packing Co.

The luncheon table was centered with a fountain and pastel summer flowers encircling the arrangement. Match covers with the names of the couple and the date revealed the news. Contract bridge was in play during the afternoon. A group of Miss Read's close friends made up the guest list.

Mrs. William Horsfall of Marshfield, formerly department vice-president of the American Legion auxiliary, unopposed candidate for presidency, was elected to fill the office on Saturday afternoon at the closing session of the convention.

In the only contested race, Mrs. Laura Goode of Portland won the election as vice-president. Other new officers are Mrs. Mae Whitcomb, secretary; Mrs. Dorothy Templar, Klamath Falls treasurer; and Mrs. Leon Brown of Salem, finance chairman. Mrs. Sylvia Southworth of Lebanon was named president for this district.

Among the important resolutions passed during the auxiliary's three-day session was one by which provision was made to match legion funds for rehabilitation work in the Roseburg and Portland veterans' hospitals. Allowance of $3000 has been made for the national convention.

A resolution was passed for delegates at the national convention to commend congress and the Dies committee on investigation of un-American acts.

Units of this district were awarded several citations and trophies for work during the past year. They include: Lehigh tied with St. Helens for the McIntire membership cup; Hawke radio prize to Salem; Mae Waters national defense prize; Moore history prize, both to Salem.

Mrs. William Horsfall has long been active in club work in Marshfield. She is the wife of Dr. William Horsfall, prominent physician of that city and the mother of Mr. William Horsfall of Los Angeles, Captain George Horsfall of the U. S. Medical corps at El Paso Texas and Miss Marion Horsfall of Glendale, California.

Mr. Horsfall was born in Coos county, attended the old Marshfield academy and then majored in music at the University of Oregon. She has been active in affairs of the Daughters of the American Revolution and the Oregon Federation of Women's clubs and the Federated music clubs, serving as national president of the latter organization for a term.

lovely entrance of brick giving a tower effect with windows... A stone and marble fireplace in the long living room with huge windows looking west and off of it a cement terrace... A breakfast nook of knotty pine with bright red and blue curtains and corner cupboards filled with pottery dishes... A knotty cedar study and boy's room... A large recreation room with large stone fireplace made of various kinds of stones... Ten or more acres surrounding the house and Mrs. Thompson is planning her own sunken flower garden and picnic grounds which will adjoin the house.

The Harold Olingers have a darling white Cape Cod house on Mission street... very modern with a lovely terrace off the living room and French doors... A colonial dining room has unique drapes.

INTERESTING NEWS... Lillian and Earle Potter are leaving the middle of the week for Boston to spend the ensuing year... They will drive east and stop at Yellowstone en route... Earle will continue his studies in voice at the Boston Conservatory of Music... Lillian has received an assistantship in English at Boston university and will also work toward her master's degree... The past year she has been studying at the University of California... Both Earle and Lillian are Willamette university graduates.

Hollis Vick, another Willamette graduate, is now visiting on the coast and in Salem with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Vick... She will leave for the east shortly to be a member of the staff of the central branch YWCA of Pittsburgh, as Girl Reserve executive... For the last eight years she has been associated with the YWCA of Greenwich, Conn.

Salem friends of Barbara Prael of Portland will be interested to learn that she will leave soon for Detroit, Michigan where she has a six month extension librarianship.

BRIDES-ELECT are sharing honors with out of town visitors for much of the entertaining these days... Mrs. Harry Corrigan of Baltimore has been honored at several affairs this week... She is the house guest of her sister, Mrs. Bjarne Erickson... At the luncheon on Thursday for which Mrs. Corrigan was hostess Mrs. Erickson wore an attractive sky blue frock trimmed in dubonnet and crushed belt of dubonnet in front... Mrs. Corrigan's husband is a brother of Douglas Corrigan, the aviator, and was an usher at his wedding several weeks ago.

Another widely feted visitor during the past week has been Mrs. Curtis Johnson of Vallejo, Calif., formerly of Salem. She came north with her husband and daughter, Dorothy, for a visit and to attend the Legion convention... A luncheon or supper nearly every day and at one of them she was seen wearing a chic dusty pink afternoon dress of lace with blue accessories.
