Former Residents Visit With Reeves; Gills Go to Fair

LEBANON—M. C. Mathews, dentist, has established an office in Lebanon in the Booth building. A graduate of North Pacific Dental college in Portland, Mathews formerly resided in Salem, where he graduated from Salem high school. His wife will join him in Lebanon about September 1, and they will establish residence here. Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Molst and daughter, Mrs. John Anker and two children are visiting at the Dolph Reeves home. Molst is a brother of Mrs. Reeves. The Molsts are from Gaston, and Mrs. Anker, who will be remembered in Lebanon as Frances Molst, resides in Portland. Mrs. J. G. Gill and daughter,

Miss Donna Gill, teacher in the Albany public schools, left Tuesday for San Francisco to attend the fair. Dr. R. Bruce Miller and son, Jack, and Mr. Miller's sister, Mrs. G. R. Abraham of Amity, have returned from an extensive drive through eastern Oregon. They visited Mrs. C. L. Jameson in Canyon City. Willie Mr. and Mrs. Delbert Scott are in the mountains on vacation. Mrs. Dorothy Simons is working as secretary in the office of Dr. J. G. Booth and Dr. N. E. Irvine. Mrs. Floyd Mills, Lebanon, is a patient in the Salem general hospital. Warren Gill is vacationing at Seaside. BECKERS MOVE ELDRIDGE—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Becker have rented the A. J. Rasmussen place near the Eldridge school. The Scharr family, who formerly lived here, have moved to Salem.

Polk Fair Plans Nearly Completed

500 4H Club Members Will Exhibit; Many Others Are Entered

DALLAS—On Monday of this week the Polk county fair board met in the Monmouth city hall with committees from the Monmouth chamber of commerce. Fair plans are nearly completed, according to County Agent W. C. Leth. Members of the committee report much enthusiasm. According to Leth, 500 4H club members are looking forward to exhibiting at the fair. In the livestock division there will be many exhibits of calves, swine, sheep and poultry. In the domestic science and art divisions there will be displays of sewing, cooking and canning. Nine farmer organizations, the Polk County Federated Women's clubs, the Monmouth thimble club and the Monmouth WCTU have all reserved booths for community displays. In addition there will be many exhibits of grain, vegetable grasses, horticulture, cut flowers, domestic science and domestic art work. Judging of exhibits will begin promptly at 10 a. m. on August 31. H. G. Smith will judge livestock and O. T. McWhorter will judge agriculture produce including horticulture, grains and vegetables. Miss Lois Schneider will judge 4H club home economics including demonstrations and style revue. Miss Lucy Case, extension specialist in nutrition, will judge domestic art and science in the adult divisions. W. F. Lee will judge poultry while Mrs. J. S. Landers will judge flowers and Mrs. Burton Bell will judge the art exhibits.

School Boundary Lines Changed

ALBANY—Following a second posting of notices regarding a change in the boundary lines between District 87, which is in the Greenville school district, and Sweet Home, No. 55, Zeller home, has been named Geraldine Eleanor and weighs 7 pounds, 5 ounces.

School Boundary Lines Changed

part of district No. 87 be added to that of District 55. Facts showed that a large number of children in the Greenville district were living nearer to Sweet Home. The change takes approximately 500 acres from district No. 87 and adds that many to district No. 55. There are some nine or 10 children affected by the change. The second posting of the notices regarding the meeting was necessitated by the clerk of one district concerned not posting the original notices properly.

Fall City Site Chosen for Mill

FALL CITY.—(Special.)—Loren Cooper of Airline has bought a mill site at Fall City and will start operation around the first of September, he has announced. The mill, which is now under construction, will have a 20,000 capacity. Cooper has been operating a mill at Tarter, near Airline, for the past year. He previously operated a small mill at Airline with his brother, J. F. Cooper. The Cooper family plans to move to Fall City soon.

Accident Retires Softball Catcher

BRUSH CREEK—Miss Juanita Moe, well-known softball catcher, is at her home recuperating from brain concussion following an accident Thursday at Peninsula park. She was catching for Park Barracks when the accident occurred. Miss Moe remained unconscious for three hours and at first it was feared her skull was fractured but X-ray revealed otherwise. Miss Moe will be unable to catch during the remainder of the summer.

Novaks Burned in Gasoline Explosion

MILL CITY—What might have been a very serious accident occurred at H. Maag's garage Saturday when Joe Novak asked to have his car filled with gas. Novak did not shut off the engine, and as it had more gas in tank than he thought the gas ran over, causing an explosion. Novak was accompanied by his daughter, Connie, and the family dog. All were burned as they were unable to get the door open at once. Connie was burnt the most serious.
