

Drowning Victims' Funerals Are Set

Cruikshank, Kelly Rites Will Be Friday at Aurora

AURORA—Funeral services for Donald James Cruikshank, 13, who drowned in Pudding river Tuesday night, will be held Friday at 3:30 from the German English Lutheran church at Aurora. Rev. S. A. Goldenman will conduct the service, which is in charge of the Miller mortuary. Interment will be in the Aurora cemetery.

George Kelly was born in South Dakota, March 10, 1916. Surviving are his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George F. Kelly; his wife, Mrs. Hazel Kelly; three brothers, Arthur, Lawrence and David; one sister, Leone.

Beaches Attract Jefferson Folks

Oklahomans Are Guests at Barnes Home; Others Visit

JEFFERSON—Mr. and Mrs. H. E. McKee and two children and Mr. and Mrs. Delmer Buchner spent the weekend at Newport. Saturday night they were unable to get a place to stay overnight, as there was such a crowd at all places along the coast, so they returned to Toledo and were able to get a room.

Others spending Sunday at the coast were Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Knight and son, Jack, Lyle Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Glover and daughter, Jean, and Gladys Kelly.

Mr. and Mrs. W. T. S. Barnes of Tulsa, Okla., are guests at the home of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Barnes. This is their first visit to Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Jenness and daughter, Lucille, and Mr. and Mrs. Olin Aerni attended the camp meeting of the Church of God at Junction City Saturday. Lucille Jenness remained to visit week with Mrs. Jenness' cousin, Mrs. Clarissa Croft.

Miss Betty Weidman, who has been staying with Mr. and Mrs. Jake Meng, left for Castle Gate, Utah, where she will make her home with her sister, Mrs. August Marra.

Jake Meng is looking forward to a visit with his mother and sister, Mrs. John Meng and Mrs. Helene Dalton of Red Oak, Iowa, who are expected to arrive the latter part of this week.

Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Hutchings and children, Sara Margaret and Martha Jane, and Mrs. Hutchings' sister, Mrs. Eleanor Burt, of Louisville, Ky., spent Sunday at Silver Creek Falls.

Visitor Honored At Dinner Sunday

LEBANON—A surprise dinner was held Sunday at the Gene Smith place honoring Mrs. Minnie B. Smith of Berthod, Colo., who is visiting relatives here. Those present, besides the host, were Mr. and Mrs. Will T. Smith, Mr. and Mrs. John Stryker, Mr. and Mrs. Will Stryker, Robert Stryker, Mr. and Mrs. Howard Smith, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burian and Jack Stryker.

Robert Bellinger observed his birthday Tuesday by inviting a group of other children to a picnic at Bates' park.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Sturtevant, Rensselaer, N. Y., and her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. B. F. White, and children, Frank and Susan, have been guests at the Glen Wallace home. Mrs. White is a sister of Mrs. Wallace. Mr. Sturtevant is Congregational pastor at the community church at Rensselaer, N. Y. He and his wife are graduates of Pacific college.

Liberty Hill to Get More Water Pressure

SILVERTON—The long-sought additional water pressure for Liberty Hill residents will soon be obtainable. Word received this week at the local water department was to the effect that the steel tank equipment would arrive August 25. The 15,000-gallon storage tank will be placed on a 94-foot tower off Eureka avenue. The tank will give much stronger pressure to water systems on Liberty Hill.

GO TO FAIR BRUSH CREEK

BRUSH CREEK—Miss Alice Jensen and her brother, Reuben, are spending a week at the San Francisco fair. Jensen, who returned Saturday from a summer spent in Alaska, will return to Astoria this fall to begin his 11th year of teaching there. He has taught there since his graduation from Oregon State college.
