Pattern

By ANNE ADAMS
All aboard for the streamlined express to fashionland—in a frock with no local stops for waistline seaming! What a breezy, quickly-made style this Anne Adams dress is, with its graceful curved princess lines and sprightly scalloped neck. And what a record-breaker in darning and making. The handy down-the-front buttoning lets you step in and out like a flash, without stirring a single curl. So decorative, too! And when you're sewing this frock, you'll find that same buttoning convenient for flat-spread handling. Choose a gay print... and with the Sewing Instructor close at hand you'll have a new dress before you can say "Anne Adams!"

Pattern 4171 is available in misses' and women's sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 22, 24, 26, 28, 30, 32 and 34. Size 16 takes 4 1/2 yards 35 inch fabric.

Send FIFTEEN CENTS (15c) in coin for this Anne Adams pattern. Write plainly SIZE, NAME, ADDRESS and CITY, STATE and ZIP.

What to do! Let's have summer days stretch for ahead and your hot-weather wardrobe is fitted and ready. Let Anne Adams' PATTERN BOOK help!

Send your mid-season wardrobe, with page after page of quick-to-sew frocks for night and day, work and play. Lots of bright ideas for vacationists on how to look glamorous and cool. Clothes for every type and age from slimming modes for matrons to spirited styles for young people.

Style-Smiles --- by Gretchen

"All he asks are the bare essentials: A place to eat and sleep and a used car!"

Add for her, a teal coat for complete winter contentment. This is the time to get one with a yoke and shirred front fullness. For good measure, shirring at full sleeves and a little roll collar. The black caracul, right, is in the youthful seven-eighths length with swagger back. High pockets, slanting downward on either side of the bodice are a new, and chic, note.

Regional Garden Show Concluded

Flowers From Linn, Benton County Towns Exhibited at Lebanon Armory

LEBANON.—The regional garden show of Linn and Benton counties came to an end Friday night when the exhibits that had been on display at the armory for two days were taken down.

Garden clubs of Albany, Corvallis, Tangent, Scio, Riverview, Sweet Home and Lebanon all arranged exhibits. The display was non-competitive, designed to be educational for the public.

Among the outstanding exhibits were gladioli from Gladland, the farm operated by Grant Mitsche near Lebanon, and displays from Hall's florist shop in Albany and the Hiway and DeKuyper greenhouses in Lebanon.

Thursday night's program included the showing of films of Hawaii and the San Francisco exposition taken by Dennis Cormier, a song by Mary Fredericks, piano numbers by Mrs. J. C. Booth, an instrumental quartet from Lebanon high school, and readings by Mrs. Theda Blinsholder. Awards were presented to winners in Lebanon's garden contest, chosen last Sunday. Mrs. U. G. Smith, state garden club president, gave a short talk. Mrs. E. E. Regester presided.

The reception committee for the garden show included Mrs. Phil Lanning, Mrs. E. E. Regester and Mrs. George Alexander.

INDEPENDENCE.—The Weddles family reunion was held at the Independence city park last Sunday with all members of the immediate family present with the exception of Mr. and Mrs. D. Quincy of Port Townsend, Wash.

Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whaley of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gohl and sons, Eddie and Darol; Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Weddles of Salem, Miss Lois Weddles of Falls City, Miss Esther Weddles and Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Weddles and Aunt Mattie Haptonstall of Independence, Mack Thatcher of Falls City, and Mrs. Rose Clodfelter of Salem.

Scout Activities Told by Speaker

STAYTON.—Scout Master Kenton Thompson of troop 50 of Boy Scouts was the principal speaker at the meeting of the Lions club Tuesday night in the banquet room of the Bon Ton.

He outlined the activities of the Stayton Boy Scouts since March 31. From the membership of 13 in March, the Scouts have grown to the present membership of 31. Every boy in the troop has advanced at least one step higher and 86 badges have been earned in that time.

Mouth harp and guitar music was presented by A. C. Booker.

Will Fight Fire

SILVER FALLS STATE PARK.—Seventy-nine fire fighters left here Thursday for the Sweet Home area where they will remain until next Tuesday. The men were from the Silver Creek CCC camp. The fires were not, officials said, started by lightning, but were burning prior to the storm. The rain was not sufficient to put out the fires.

Church Conference At Turner Closes

Twentieth Annual Summer Meeting Draws 85 CE Members

TURNER.—The 20th annual summer conference of the Oregon Christian Endeavor union which is being held at the Turner Memorial tabernacle this week, will close Sunday following the afternoon vesper service.

The registration reached 85, a little below that of last year, besides 15 faculty members and leaders. Sweet Home and Dufur each sent 10 delegates, the highest number from one locality. Klamath Falls and Baker are the farthest points represented, with the majority of attendance from the Willamette valley and mid-west section.

Nellie Walker, returned missionary from Africa, assisted in each day's program. Dr. Anabel McEwan, dean of girls for the week, spent 10 years in India as a medical missionary. Lawrence Mitchelmore is the dean of men. Dr. W. W. White of Sweet Home has charge of outside recreations. Rosella Straub of Eugene is registrar and Eley Walker of Forest Grove is cashier.

The morning programs consist of morning Bible study followed by discussion of various topics. After luncheon is a rest period until 2:15 when various sports are in play including swimming. Each night closes with a bonfire and program.
