Market Quiet

Volume Small as Traders Watch European Situation

NEW YORK, Aug. 30-(AP)-Stocks skidded a little in a quiet market today with losses for leaders running from fractions to more than a point.

A tendency to rally a little at the opening was quickly overcome as traders eyed the German-Polish dispute. Most of them hugged the sidelines and volume was small. Transfers totaled 496,-420 shares compared with 483,-340 yesterday. The Associated Press average of 60 stocks declined .3 of a point at 47.0, losing a third of yesterday's rise. Some of the day's develop-view settlement might be long, drawn out and difficult. There was some hope expressed the mediation efforts of King Leopold of the Belgians and Queen Wilhelmina of Holland would be successful.

Settlement of the Texas fight on the oil shutdown aided stocks in this group and both Standard of New Jersey and Texas Corp. showed small net gains for the day. Other domestic news appeared to be ignored, although the rail group was resistant most of the session on forecasts last week's carloadings would show a seasonal advance.

US treasury obligations were at the fore of an early rally in the bond market, but yielded from their best in later dealings. Eastman Kodak was up about 2 on small volume and Philip Morris and Kennecott added plus signs.

In a well scrambled curb market losses of fractions to more than a point showed for Lockheed, Niagara Hudson Power and Todd Shipyards. As much higher were Electric Bond & Share, Humble Oil and Newmont.

Carol had been furious when Ace Barnes had broken the news to her that she must change on Mile. But Carol had been furious when Ace have had she looked as stunning. Shortly Mike found herself out on the street breathless, her purse with $50.00 clutched in her hand. She had to have another pair of shoes. It was almost one o'clock. She should get a dress or a suit or something. The white linen would not do for September. Frantic, she tried to figure just what would be absolutely necessary purchases. When she came out of the store, it was 2 o'clock. She was hot and faint. She'd had no lunch. Desperate, she climbed into a cab with her packages. She could not face struggling with the bundles in the subway. And she felt guilty about such extravagance.

When she finally walked into the apartment, Jimmie was resting and so was her mother. She came in like as summer cyclone, dumped her purchases on the table, and the words
