Touchdowns

In sport news coverage are scored every day by The Oregon Statesman's sports reporting.

Seasonal football champions, defeated the college all-stars, 9 to 0, before 81,456 in flood-lighted Soldier field tonight, scoring all points by field goals.

The professionals outplayed their amateur brethren through most of the game, which saw the collegians' best scoring chances ruined by pass interceptions. Ken Strong, with 11 years of professional football back of him, scored two of the field goals for the Giants. Ward Cuff registered the other. Strong's last boot was a long, spectacular one of 41 yards in the fourth period.

"Buzz" Fails to Kayo Diaz; Has to Do With a Decision

"Buzz" Brown tried hard to knock out Mark Diaz at the armory last night, but the little Filipino didn't see it that way, so Brown had to be content with a decision.

The Portland boxer, holder of the northwest feather and lightweight titles, had a little too much class for the brown boy, but that didn't keep Diaz from trying from first to last to land the knockout punch. Before it was over he managed to cut up Elmer's mouth a little and give him a pretty bloody left eyebrow.

Brown made his big bid for a knockout in the sixth, when he knocked Diaz through the ropes after pounding him unmercifully. Diaz had been a little groggy at the close of the fifth and it was Brown's chance to finish it, but the little fellow just wouldn't go for it.

After that Brown didn't get another chance, the Filipino coming back fast, and only a brief flurry at the ropes in the eighth when Diaz unloosed a pair of solid uppercuts and a tenth round toe-toe session furnished rapid action.

Diaz weighed 127 and Brown 126. Jack Hibbard, 160, Klamath Falls, won a technical knockout over Ray Morgan, 163, Portland, who substituted for Jack Rainwater, in the semi-final.

Dan Smith, 185, Longview, punched out two of Jack Dallas' teeth and a six-round decision in a special event. Dallas, 180, Vancouver, was futile, but still trying when the agony ended.

Lefty Reynolds, 135, Salem, won a decision over Ernie Bailey, 132, Independence, in a four-round battle of paperbag punchers.

Pete Keene, 148, Chehalis, won an unpopular decision over Okey Gillespie, 148, Aumville, after the slighter Aumville scrapper had floored him for the nine count in the first round.

There was a triple-killing of referees with Ted Peterson and the first two, "Frisco" Edwards, coast league umpire made available by rain, handling the semi, and Ralph Gruman, the regular referee, the main event.

Gene Shields out Of Grid Business

PORTLAND, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Gene Shields, line coach under three University of Oregon football regimes, quit the gridiron for the logging business today.

Shields, ex-Wisconsin guard who assisted Captain John J. McEwan, Dr. Clarence Spears and Prince Callison, resigned from Washington high school where he coached last season. His successor is Hal Hatton, former Pendleton high school and University of Oregon fullback. Hatton coached at Coquille high before joining the Washington staff last year as Shields' assistant.

Bonetti Hasn't Walked a Man In 56 Innings

LOS ANGELES, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Julio Bonetti, who has not walked a batter in 56 innings, has established what Los Angeles baseball club officials announced today as a new Pacific Coast league record for control.

The Angel hurler, leading the league with 17 victories and four defeats, has not allowed a batter since July 26 when he opposed the San Francisco club. He has participated in seven games since that date.

The major league record for flawless control is held by the late Charley Nisbets who in 1925 twirled 68 innings without walking a batter.

"Choppy" Parke, Ex-Webfoot Back Paralysis Victim

EUGENE, Aug. 30.—(AP)—Friends were advised today that William "Choppy" Parke, 31, one-time University of Oregon halfback star, had succumbed to infantile paralysis at Long Beach, Calif. Parke played for Oregon from 1928 to 1931. He was football coach and director of physical education at Mountsuma school for boys in Long Beach at the time of his death. His widow and baby daughter survive him.

"Choppy's" brother, Bob, also was a noted Oregon football player and once was national collegiate javelin champion.

Canadian Champ Wins CHEBOYGAN, Mich., Aug. 30. (AP)—Although outweighted 33 pounds, Charley Belanger, Canadian heavyweight champion, knocked out Dave Klassen, six-foot eight-inch Gladwin, Mich., giant, in the fourth round of scheduled eight-round match tonight. Belanger weighed 189 and Klassen 227.
