

Pet Parade Is Friday at Dallas

Affair Will Close Summer Recreational Program at City Park

DALLAS—A pet parade and dress-up day will be held at the Dallas city park on Friday of this week, the closing day of the recreational program which has been carried on at the Dallas city park this summer under the direction of Rev. Loyal R. Vickers. The parade is scheduled to be held at 2 o'clock in the afternoon. There will be treats for all.

During the afternoon there will also be racing and novelty contests with prizes for the winners. Friday night there will be two softball games played under the lights on LaCreole field, starting at 8 o'clock. The Dallas girls team will play an out of town team while the playground team will meet Crider's team. There will not be any admission charge but a hat will be passed to help pay for the lighting.

Friday will conclude the work of Rev. Vickers, but Mrs. Busick and Miss Moorehead, PWA instructors who have been conducting classes in basketry at the park will continue their classes until the beginning of school.

WCTU Convention To Be at Halsey

ALBANY — Wednesday, September 6, has been set as the date for the county convention of the W. C. T. U. at the Halsey Christian church. The convention will be held this year in the Christian church, in Halsey, and will open at 10 o'clock. A covered dish dinner will be served at noon, and during the afternoon the business sessions will continue.

Reports of presidents of the various unions will be given, and other business pertaining to the work of the unions will be taken up. The silver and gold medal contests will be part of the program.

A large crowd is expected to attend the convention. There are some eight unions in the county, including those of Bellfountain, Shedd, Harrisburg, Halsey, Sweet Home, Albany, Tangent and Oakville. The Sweet-Home union has only recently been organized.

Mrs. Small Back From Trip South

Mrs. Hugh Small has returned from a trip through California and Nevada. Her daughter, Miss Jessie Small accompanied her as far as Stockton, where a family reunion was held in their honor, and then returned to Iowa, where she has received an internship in the University of Iowa hospital and will work for her masters degree. Miss Small graduated from Oregon State college last June.

While in San Francisco they visited the Golden Gate exposition and from there Mrs. Small went to Carson City, Nev., where she spent several days with her sisters, Miss Mabel and Irma Boughey.
