

Canned Goods Sent To Skagway Folks

LEBANON — Thirty dozen quarts of assorted canned fruits and vegetables have been shipped from here by George Smith to his brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Perry M. Hern, Jr., of Skagway, Alaska.

The Ladies' Aid, first division, of the Methodist church, surprised Mrs. D. Lester Fields, wife of the pastor, when they met at her home Wednesday afternoon for a tea. Fourteen members were present.

Jean Blalock, Safeway, store manager, and family have moved to 103 Sherman street, the house owned by Mrs. Bernice Wallace, who has moved into the Cormier apartments.

The roof of the Ralph Scroggin warehouse is being repaired. Preparatory to the opening of school, the school buses of district 16 are being overhauled and put into operating condition.

Concrete Poured At Scio Bridge

SCIO—Concrete is being poured for abutments at the bridge site in Scio to replace the narrow highway crossing on Main street. Steel and other materials are being delivered. Concrete is trucked from Albany, the mixing process starting near Green's bridge and being completed by the time the truck reaches the construction point in this city. The new structure, a county activity, probably will not be ready for use until well into November, it is estimated.

Among the many seeking locations in the Willamette valley and the Scio area were George E. Rhoades and son, Albert, recently from Colorado. The men are brother and nephew, respectively, of Mrs. N. I. Morrison of this city, and are temporarily located at Manmouth.

Scio school board states all plans are virtually complete for opening of the 1939-40 school session September 11.

Mrs. Anna Sticha was reported somewhat improved this week at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. F. Wesley, at the south outskirts of the city. She is 84 years of age.

Services Are Held For Lillian Sims

SCIO—Funeral services for Mrs. Lillian Sims, 76, were held at the Christian church in Scio Thursday afternoon, with the Rev. V. L. Loucks of the local Baptist church in charge. Burial was in Shelburn cemetery.

Mrs. Sims had been an active worker in the Scio Christian church for many years. She had also served on the local board of education for some time. She was born in Kansas July 20, 1863, but had lived in Scio and vicinity since she was 15.

Survivors include the sons W. Z., Scio, Ted, Medford, Kenneth, Corvallis, and Errol, Willamina; daughters, Mrs. Lloyd Gilchrist, California, Mrs. Lloyd Harrison, Nehalem, Mrs. Hutchinson, Portland, and Mrs. G. W. Flook, Mill City. W. A. Gilkey, near Scio, and L. E. Gilkey, Salem, are brothers of the deceased.

Mill City Church Group Entertains

MILL CITY—Members of the Brownsville C. E. society of the Presbyterian church were visitors at the C. E. society meeting of the Mill City church Sunday night. A dinner was served in the scout cabin at 6:30, after which a program was given in the church.
