Showers, Fighters Athena Survivor

GRANTS PASS, Sept. 11.—(P)—The combination of showers and 250 fire fighters brought two fires south of here under control today, after they had burned an undetermined number of buildings and forced several families to flee.

The flames raced over farm lands and mountains yesterday, engulfing the thick timberlands of the Bluey mountain, untouched by fire for 20 years.

Dr. C. L. Ogle of Grants Pass reported the greatest individual loss—a 10-room mountain home valued at $16,000. H. H. Wardrip, county school superintendent, said he lost two barns, a garage, chicken house, windmill and quantity of hay.

Wardrip was burned about the hands and face in the fight to save his home.

Several small shacks and cabins, owned by persons who intended to erect summer homes, also were destroyed, Dr. Ogle said.

Nikola Lubitsch
Among passengers rescued from the torpedoed liner Athena was Nikola Lubitsch, 10-month-old daughter of Ernst Lubitsch, well-known film director.
