

Jefferson Bus Times Revised

New Schedule for Schools Is Effective at Start Monday

JEFFERSON—The Jefferson schools will begin Monday morning. Students will not remain during the afternoon. A slightly revised bus schedule will be in effect this year. High school students on the Talbot route will begin classes at 8 o'clock and leave at 3. Students on the Marlon-Parish-Gar run will begin at 9 and leave at 4.

Manual training will be offered this year to junior and senior boys. Because of limitations of equipment, space and the nature of the work the classes will have to be small. Classes will either be enlarged, or more classes added in the future as the district is able to purchase more equipment and schedule more time. Home Economics will again be restricted to junior and senior girls, with the seniors having an opportunity to take a second year course. There will be choral singing in charge of Miss Josephine Getchell for both boys and girls. A half credit may be earned in a year.

This year the non-high school district board is requiring each tuition pupil to have a tuition eligibility certificate. Application of these will be taken when school opens and the procedure explained.

Following are the teaching assignments in high and grade school: first grade, Miss Lillian Ervin; second grade, Mrs. Henningsen; third grade and girls physical education, Miss Doris Beight; fourth and fifth grade, Mrs. Gilbert Looney; sixth and seventh grades, Ruth Nelson; eighth grades and music, Mrs. Hansson.

Manual training, general science, biology and algebra, David Abbott; typing, 1 and 2, U. S. history, civics, orientation and boys' physical education, George Bailey; home economics, 1 and 2, music, English 1, social problems, Miss Josephine Getchell; general mathematics, world history, remedial spelling, senior literature, Mr. Jensen.

Library, girls' physical education, English 2, English 3 and senior oral and written English, Mrs. Dana Logan Smith.
