

Ward, Spokane, Golf Champion

Cool, Fighting Game Gives Westerner US Amateur Links Trophy

By EARL HILLIGAN
CHICAGO, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Marvin "Bud" Ward of Spokane, Wash., a fellow who likes to stand in there and punch until something happens, slammed his way to the national amateur golf championship today.

Producing a fighting game which left his opponent no quarter, Ward drove to a 7 and 5 victory over Little Ray Billows of Poughkeepsie, N. Y., in the 43rd title tournament at the North Shore course.

In succeeding Willie Turnesa of Briarcliff Manor, N. Y., as the United States Golf association's amateur titleholder, Ward did it with such cool, deadly purpose that before the morning round was three-quarters over it seemed only a matter of time before the New Yorker would try to hang on gamely—would go down for wood.

The final four holes furnished almost a perfect brief of the entire duel. Seven up through 27 holes, they halved the 28th. Then Billows, with one last desperate rally, won the 29th with a par as Ward missed a five foot putt that would have given him a half.

At the next hole Ward hooked to a trap, but the Spokane curly-head came out of the trap beautifully, getting a half which enabled him to deliver the knockout punch at the 31st.

On this 190-yard hole both were on the green with their tee shots. Billows about 15 feet away and Ward knocking his to within six feet of the pin. Billows missed by a yard. Ward coolly stepped up and rapped the putt down for the hole and championship.

Ward's route to the championship started with his one up win in 20 holes over Eddie Held, Edgewater, Colo., and was followed by these victories: Chris Brinke, Birmingham, Mich., 5 and 4; Joe Thompson, Burlington, Ont., 3 up; Ed Kingsley, Salt Lake City, Utah, 3 and 1, and his semi-finals win from Chicago's Art Doering, 2 and 1.

McMakin Is Best Pendleton Cowboy

South Dakotan Acclaimed by Huge Crowd on Closing Day

PENDLETON, Ore., Sept. 16.—(AP)—Bill McMakin of Trail City, S. D., was named the best all-around cowboy of the 1939 Pendleton roundup today, final day of the 30th annual western classic.

A crowd of 25,000 persons jammed the arena, bringing the four-day total to 85,000.

McMakin was awarded the Sam Jackson trophy for best all-around cowboy for the second time, having previously won the title in 1937.

Besides capturing the all-around championship, the slender straight riding cowboy of Trail City won the world's bull-dogging title and placed third in the bucking contest.

Thelma Parr, 16, of the Walla Walla tribe won the American Indian beauty contest. Louise Hall, also of the Walla Walla tribe, placed second.

World's bucking championship: Jack Wade, Halkirk, Alberta, first; Ward Watkins, Thatcher, Colo., second.

World's bull-dogging championship: Bill McMakin, Trail City, S. D., first; Dick Herren, Carmel, Calif., second.

World's steer roping championship: Asbury Schell, Temple, Ariz., first, two-day time, 39 4/5 seconds.

World's calf roping championship: Roy Lewis, House, N. M., first, 84 4/5 seconds.

Amateur bucking championship: Cody Dodson, Enterprise, Ore., first; Ray Ham, Athena, Ore., second.

Amateur calf roping championship: Wid Fuller, Camp Verde, Ariz., first 36 3/5 seconds.

Fight Locale Argued; Joe Says Five Rounds

By SID FEDER
PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 16.—(AP)—Mike Jacobs' punch caravan headed west tonight for the Joe Louis-Bob Pastor party in Detroit, enlivened by a loud and boisterous argument over the stage setting for the main act of 1940's fistic follies. Joe Jacobs, Galento manager, objected to staging the fight in New York.

This attraction of course, is the return go between Louis (if he gets by Pastor Wednesday night) and the round little bar-keeper from Jersey, Tony Galento, who wound up at the head of the heavyweight contending parade again last night by stopping Lou Nova in 14 rounds of the bloodiest kind of butcher-shop carving seen in any ring any time.

Mike Jacobs pointed out that he holds a five-year exclusive contract on Two-Ton Tony's fistic activities.

Lou in Hospital
Heading west, the fight crowd left behind the tall California kid who didn't quite measure up to the solid gold of his reputation as "the golden boy." Battered and bruised, he remained in a hospital, 10 stitches in the right eye which Galento opened to the bone when he held target practice last night in municipal stadium.

A chief topic of discussion was the work of Referee George Blake of California, imported especially for the bout. This veteran of the ring acted on the theory that it was the fighters' fight and he interfered as little as possible. The result was a bout that started out to be just a fight and wound up in a brawl in which anything went, although neither batterier tried biting. And the public loved it.

Van Horn and Riggs Finals

Surprising Los Angeles Kid, Davis Cup Star, Seek Tennis Title

FOREST HILLS, N. Y., Sept. 16.—(AP)—Welby Van Horn, the ball-busting kid from Los Angeles and Bobby Riggs, Wimbledon champion and Davis cup star, won their semi-final matches at Forest Hills today and will clash tomorrow for the national tennis championship.

Van Horn, 19-year-old, unseeded amateur of the tournament, produced another of his last-ditch rallies to defeat Jack Bromwich, the double-handed Australian champion, 2-6, 4-6, 6-2, 6-4, 8-6. As the score indicates, it was a thriller: full of fire and brimstone.

The cool canny Riggs had no trouble at all squelching Joe Hunt, the Annapolis midshipman, 6-1, 6-2, 4-6, 6-1. The east of his victory established him a favorite over the youngster he faces tomorrow, no matter how hard the crowd might be rooting for the wonder boy.

Two long-time California rivals, Alice Marble and Helen Jacobs, reached the women's final, Alice, the defending champion, scarcely got a warm up in turning back Virginia Wolfenden of San Francisco, 6-0, 7-1, and Helen disposed of Kay Stammers of England, 7-5, 6-0.

Van Horn was the day's big noise, as he was yesterday in beating Wayne Sabin. There is little doubt in anybody's mind that he will be the champion next year, no matter what Riggs does to him tomorrow.

of Puget Sound, Gonzaga university and St. Martin's at Lacey. Major Wright, a flier since 1917, was transferred here from Atlanta, Ga. He is also an officer in the army air corps reserve and was in the Pacific northwest from 1929 to 1932 for the bureau of aeronautics.
