

Louis Catches Pastor in 11 Rounds

Kayo Hung on Game Opponent To Defend Title Eighth Time

BRIGGS STADIUM, Detroit, Sept. 20.—(AP)—After chasing Bob Pastor around 30 minutes and getting nowhere, Joe Louis knocked out the ex-New York collegian in 38 seconds of the 11th round tonight to retain his world's heavy-weight championship. Louis weighed 200 pounds; Pastor 183.

After flooring Pastor four times in the first round and once in the second, Louis couldn't do a thing with the back peddling fighter until his left shot out with sudden fury in the 11th. Pastor dropped, managed to raise himself on his knees, but could not get to his feet before Referee Sam Hennessy counted the full ten.

A crowd estimated at 40,000 contributed to a gross gate of around $400,000. Louis successfully defended the title for the eighth time since he won it from Jim Braddock in 1937.

Didn't See Punch
Pastor, after his weak start, came on in the eighth, ninth and tenth and once in the eighth, had the Brown Bomber befuddled with a two handed sally.

In his dressing room after the fight Pastor said he didn't see the punch coming.

"My eye was full of blood," he explained, "and I was blinded. The punch paralyzed me and I didn't know anything until I gander threats in this country is the tons and tons of pigskin publicly sent out by the colleges. . . . Larry Kelley's recent blast in Look was directed at something that doesn't really exist. Kelley criticized the Ivy league, which in reality is but a term given the foursome by sports writers. . . . Kelley's blasts are likely to prove something less than fatal. The teams will probably manage to move through their schedules anyway.

It is the plan of Clyde Grewell, boss of the local amateurs, to turn big Francis Shouderblade pro shortly after his arrival here. . . . Shouderblade, brother of young Sammie Shouderblade of Chemawa, is holder of the national amateur trophy—the Joe Louis trophy.

Baseball Boon to Boys.

An editorial toast to baseball as a citizenship builder is given by the Walla Walla Union-Bulletin in a recent edition. The U-B writer, instead of begrudging Salem the Western Intercollegiate league franchise that Walla Walla was after, sounds a note of praise for the innovation of the knothole gang to be organized here.

The knothole gang, lest you've forgotten, will take in boys of 12 years of age or younger. One day a week, at least, the gang will be admitted without charge to games. To become a member a boy must be a good student, must agree to a diet that includes health-giving vegetables and must conduct himself in a gentlemanly manner. In order to obtain a membership button and card, parental signature will be required.

Says the Walla Walla editorial: "This all adds up to a pretty fair basis for citizenship and it just increases the testimony in support of the fact that baseball is, truly, the great American game."

Not only, we might add, will the knothole game be subjected to some good, sound American citizenship principles, but will also absorb enough of the "great American game" to create a deeper interest in baseball than this community has had for some time.

There's nothing Water and Bishop could do to keep the cause of baseball more than that their announcement of adoption of policies designed to interest youngsters.

"Ivy League" Name Only.
Hitler said he was willing to die for the Nazi cause, and no one yet has tried to discourage him. . . . Chico high, in holding the boastful K. Falls Pelicans to a 13-12 tie last week, completed 14 of 24 passes for a total of 204 yards. . . . Bill McKechnie probably thinks he knows just how the besieged population of Warsaw feels. . . . One of the biggest propa-

Friend Names Diaz.

It's tackles that are worrying Nig Borleske up at Whitman—so Nig and Spec will be on even worrying basis when they meet in Walla Walla on either the number one or number two Thanksgiving date. . . . Farmer John Friend, former chemist for the Vets here, predicts Hopper's first defeat next Wednesday night. "I think Mark Diaz is too experienced for young Hopper," Friend states. . . . Should Joe Waterman start promoting fights in Portland, and Herb Owens open up in Eugene, the fight business is due for a boom in the Willamette valley. . . . Johnny Peters, the Eureka boy who fights Turner next Wednesday, tosses 'em from the southpaw stance. "It'll be something new for 'The Lion'."

George E. Waters, boss of Salem's new Senators, reveals that very favorable reports on his venture have been coming into him from surrounding towns, even as far away as Lebanon. . . . Maybe this Pastor guy does have something more than a bicycle. Last night made it twice he's stayed with Louis ten full rounds, which is sub-par for that course.

Bucky Walters Gains No 26

Hit by Ball Lucky Break; Reds Edge out 3-2; Cards Also Win

CINCINNATI, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Bucky Walters won his 26th hurling victory of the year and the Reds a ninth-inning 3 to 2 triumph over Philadelphia today—helped by a break when he was hit in the back by a pitched ball.

The Reds' vaunted hitting attack still was missing, but still fielded backed up Walters' six-hit performance in flawless fashion.

The break came when Walters, his usually potent but silent through the day, came up to open the ninth. Him between the shoulder blades and he took first. Werber sacrificed and Frey was deliberately passed.

Philadelphia . . . . . 2 6 1
Cincinnati . . . . . 3 9 0
Beck and Warren; Walters and Hersberger.

Cards Stay in Race.
ST. LOUIS, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The Cardinals' unconquerable spirit burst Brooklyn's bonds today with two furious rallies in the late innings for a 10 to 4 conquest that kept them within 2½ games of the Cincinnati Reds.

For five inning Hugh Casey, the Dodgers' rookie star, held the Red Birds to three hits and one run—a homer by Don Gutteridge in the fourth—but with two out in the sixth the St. Louis slugger forced across four runs on four hits and an error and in the eighth they got five more on four hits, including a home run by Stu Martin with two on.

Brooklyn . . . . . 4 8 1
St. Louis . . . . . 10 12 0
Casey, Doyle (6), Pressnell (8), and Todd; Bowman, Shoun (7), and Padgett, Owen (9).

Hubbell Out Huris Lee.
CHICAGO, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Carl Hubbell, still a handy man to have around when the going is rough, outpitched big Bill Lee today to give the New York Giants a 4 to 2 victory over the Cubs.

New York . . . . . 4 10 2
Chicago . . . . . 2 8 0
Hubbell and Danning; Mancuso (9); Lee and Hartnett.

(Boston at Pittsburgh postponed.)

rine delegation that greeted the visiting Bearcats. Hall, coach of the Marine eleven, is a former team mate of Hollis Huntington, ex-Salem high mentor, at the University of Oregon.

Browns Victor Longest Game

16-Inning Battle Ended in Twilight With Three Run Spurge

BOSTON, Sept. 20.—(AP)—With darkness threatening to end the struggle as a tie, the St. Louis Browns hammered out three runs in the 16th inning tonight to take the longest game of the American league season from the Boston Red Sox, 11 to 8.

A double by Joe Gallagher and singles by Sam Harshbary and Myril Hoar, together with a brace of sacrifices and an error by Fritz Ostermueller, the fourth and losing Sox pitcher, put the game on ice for the Browns.

The Browns banged out 22 hits off the Sox pitchers, starting with Lefty Grove.

Pitching sparkling ball, Bob Harris gave the Sox only four hits over the last nine innings. St. Louis . . . . . 11 22 1
Boston . . . . . 8 13 2
Lawson, Hanning (6), Harris (8) and Harshbary; Grove, Haveling (8), Bagby (9), Ostermueller (9) and Desautels, Peacock (10).

Sandra's Streak Unbroken.
NEW YORK, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Steve Sundra ran his victory string to 11 games without defeat today by scattering 11 hits as the New York Yankees bagged the second straight game of their final series with the Chicago White Sox, 8 to 4.

In the third inning Selkirk singled with the bases loaded, followed with a double for two more. Chicago . . . . . 4 11 2
New York . . . . . 8 8 1
Lyons, Marcum (6), and Tresh, Slatener (6); Sundra and Dickey.

Indians Clinch 3rd Place.
WASHINGTON, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The Cleveland Indians used the Nationals as a stepping stone to unexpected possession of third place here today, beating Washington 7 to 2, behind the 6-hit pitching of Mel Harder.

Cleveland . . . . . 7 9 0
Washington . . . . . 2 6 1
Harder and Pytlak; Krakauskas, Haynes (1), Jacobs (6), Thuman (8) and Evans.

PHILADELPHIA, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The Athletics came from behind twice today to defeat the Detroit Tigers in 13 innings, 5 to 0.

With one out in the final frame Frank Hayes tripled to right and after Al Benton purposefully passed two hitters, beat Hank Greenberg's throw to the plate on Joe Gantebain's ground-er.

Detroit . . . . . 4 8 0
Philadelphia . . . . . 5 10 1
Hutchinson, Benton (12), and York; Nelson, Caster (13), and Hayes.

Sparks Vikings

Freddie Andrews, 185-pound junior, who has been handling the fullback spot for the Vikings in scrimmage sessions this week, will be seen in action against Chemawa on Sweetland field tomorrow night.

Vikings Vying For Positions

Lineup Still Uncertain for Opener Against Indians Friday

No official communiques were forthcoming from General Harold Hauk concerning his Salem high grid battalions yesterday.

He was too busy. Too busy directing the second successive day of scrimmage, and the last day of scrimmage before tomorrow night's opener against Coach Jerry Gastineau's Chemawans.

The Vikings are viciously vying for starting positions, but due to the abbreviated pre-game drill it is likely gun time will find as many veterans as possible studying the lineup.

Possibility that Hauk may tee off with a pair of rookies tackled became apparent, however, as for the second successive day big Bob Boardman and bigger Norman Sholseth were given the nod in those important slots. Both worked together last year on the Sophomore Reds team, in the city intramural loop.

Andrews Fullback Prospect
Shining light of the scrimmage sessions has been Fullback Freddie Andrews, whose lack of fire last year caused Coaches Hauk and Cranor to appraise his work with some indifference despite the fact he was the best kicker and aerial artist on the squad. Andrews, who has been displaying a lot of drive and has been consistently hitting his receivers with passes, may be the fair-haired boy to take over the duties so capably accounted for last season by Hutch Nelson.

The number eleven eleven of yesterday stationed Tom Tandy and Dave Tragilo at the wings, Boardman and Sholseth at tackles, Vern Wadsworth and Dave Olson at guards, Harry Heckes in the pivot slot, Don Waller and Bill Shinn at half backs, Claude Swingle at quarter and Andrews at full.

Lebanon Beaten By Sweet Home

Climate Change in South Felt in Practices for Marine Tilt

LEBANON.—The first football game of the season for Lebanon and Sweet Home, was played at Lebanon Friday night on Newport field. Sweet Home won with a 13-6 victory over the Lebanon Berrypickers.

Climate Change in South Felt in Practices for Marine Tilt
(Editor's note: The following comes from Bruce Williams, with the Bearcats at Sweet Home, Sept. 20.—) Thirty members of the Willamette university football squad clambered off the streamliner Monday night after a hot trip south from the Oregon capital city. The 103 mark in Los Angeles proved to be a discomfort to the cooler acclimated northern team.

Due to the sudden change in temperature encountered, a number of the players are now suffering from colds. Gene Stewart, flashy half, is the most seriously afflicted, having lost his voice entirely. However, it is probable he will see action Saturday night against the Marines. Johnny Koib and Maurice Lonergan, lettermen ends, are still somewhat incapacitated due to slight knee injuries suffered before the Bearcats left for the south.

Housed in Barracks
The entire team is housed on the immediate base of the Marines. All the players are lodged in a large barracks building near the practice field of the Marines. Meals are eaten with the enlisted men in the main dining hall.

Practice sessions will be conducted twice daily until game time. However, due to the intense heat, it is probable that one of the workouts will be of short duration. This season's Marine eleven is a formidable outfit. Sunday they defeated the Western Bears of Los Angeles, 41 to 0. A quarterback by the name of Axt on seems to be their main offensive threat.

Major Hall was among the Ma-

Olympia Honors National Champ

OLYMPIA, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The capital city paid tribute tonight to Marvin "Bud" Ward, national amateur golf champion as he returned to the city for the night.

The new champion alternately flashed a toothy smile and hung his head in modesty at the banquet table as old friends and golfing partners sang his praise.

Many men, who ten or twelve years ago paid "Bud" to carry their clubs tonight offered to pay him again if they could only carry his.

Ward made a modest report of his achievements at Chicago and answered a flurry of questions on the match which were fired at him by fellow members of the Olympia Country and Golf club.

MORLEYS MOVE.
SILVERTON.—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morley have moved to the Sunshine apartment at First and High streets. The house they formerly occupied on South Water street has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. Henry Oveross.
