Salem Preps Play Chemawa

Heat Is Felt Here, too; Hawk May Be Forced to Use Two Teams

The gates to Salem's 1939 football season flop open at Sweetland stadium tonight, with Coach Harold Hawk's Salem high eleven meeting Coach Jerry Gastineau's Braves of Chemawa, beginning at 8 o'clock.

While the Warhoops have one game already behind them for the season, in which they spotted Hood River five touchdowns in the first canto and then beat the Applegate to a lone goal-line crossing in the second, tonight's contest will be the first of 11 in as many weeks for the local preppers.

"If the hot weather continues," said Hawk last night, "I'll be forced to use about all of the boys who know the plays. That means about 22."

Far From Top Shape

With only four days of drill behind them, the Vikings are far from top shape and a hot night such as last is expected to emphasize their lack of condition.

The Salem mentor revealed he would have to start Chuck Domogalla, who was at first figured as a third-stringer, in the pivot slot. Harry Heckes and Ray Gottfried, who have shared the first team center duties this week, are on the injured list.

500; California, 80,000; Penn U, 78,104; Cleveland, 78,000; Ohio State, 77,800; Yale, 74,000; Illinois U, 70,000; Kezar stadium at San Francisco, 60,000.

Fish Take Flies On Rogue River

PORTLAND, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Fishing conditions will be fair in most parts of the state over the weekend, the state game commission indicated in its weekly report today.

Fly fishing for steelhead in the Rogue river was reported very good.

The bulletin:

Benton county: Low water conditions make fishing conditions as a whole not good, although some ice cutthroats are being taken in Alsea river, C. A. Hearing, game warden reported. Lower Alsea has run of bluebacks.

Coos county: Conditions are fair. Streams are low and water warm. Some salmon catches in tidewater Coquille and Coos rivers. Cat fishing at Lakeside is fair, with some trout reported taken. Striped bass fishing in Coos bay and other inlets fair, and Freddie Andrews, at full-back.

Yada, groomed in spring practice and in early work this fall for a halfback post, has been moved back to the guard position in which he alternated last season.

Other youngsters certain to see action tonight include Ends Pete Tow and Clarence Soliday, the latter ticketed by Coach Hawk as a corner; Guards Rollie Cleveland and Don Wilson, both of whom Hawk believes will be pressing the first ringers before the season is over; Tackles Irish and George Bartruff; Left Halfbacks Frankie Evans and "Spanky" McFarland; Right Half Craig Randall; Fullbacks Larry Doerfler and Leonard Rush; and Quarterback Bill Eisey.

Cardinal, Red Keep Winning

Cincinnati Turns Phillies Back 8-3; St. Louis Stages Thriller

CINCINNATI, Sept. 21.—(AP)—The other half of the Reds' "me and Paul" team—Paul Derringer—delivered today to give the Reds an 8 to 3 triumph over Philadelphia and his own 23rd hurling victory of the year.

Just as Bucky Walters, his star mound-mate, turned the trick yesterday, Derringer breezed in today for his eighth straight despite being rather freely hit. He aided his own cause by singling in one run and advancing two runners by the sacrifice route.

For Derringer, it was his sixth straight undefeated start against the Phils this year and his eleventh, dating from midsummer of 1938. Together, Derringer and Walters have accounted for 49 of the Reds' 88 victories.

Philadelphia ..... 3 11 1 Cincinnati ..... 8 13 0

Pearson, Kerksieck and Warren; Derringer and Lombardi.

Cards Finish Strong

ST. LOUIS, Sept. 21.—(AP)—In as valiant a finish as the old walls of Sportsman's park ever have seen, the St. Louis Cardinals ripped off three singles and a double after two were out in the ninth inning today to beat the Brooklyn Dodgers 6 to 5.

The last inter-sectional engagement of the year for the two foes was a heart stirring spectacle, and kept the Redbirds 2½ games behind Cincinnati's league leaders.

Brooklyn ..... 5 7 0 St. Louis ..... 6 14 0

Hamlin and Todd; McGee, Welland, Davis and Padgett.

Haukmen a Question.

What Hawk's Salem high huskies (and they really are huskies) will do tonight in their first football test of the season, not even he would venture a guess. For, in the light of the fact the squad has actually had but four days of practice, it would be just a guess.

Insofar as many experience is concerned, the starting tackles and one guard will probably be the only green members of the lineup. But even they, Bob Boardman and Norman Shoelseth, at tackles, and Dave Olson at one guard, have had some experience in the Hawk-coached system. All three last year played either city intramural or B-team ball.

At end Hawk has three experienced boys of last year's first team—Lee Pearman, Dave Traglio and Tom Tandy, and in addition has a transfer wingman, Pete Tow from Commerce high of San Francisco, who in spring drill displayed a load of talent.

At center he has Ray Gottfried, who was seeing regular duty at the close of the '38 season; Harry Heckes, the near 200-pounder up from intramural play; or Chuck Domogalla, another ex-intramuralist who seems to be coming along.

Both flashing halfbacks of last year, Don Walker and Bill Shinn, are on hand, each 10 pounds heavier, while Claude Single saw a bit of service at the blocking back post last season before he was injured as did Freddie Andrews at full back.

Coach Hawk's three-year record at Salem high reads: 19 won, 7 lost, 2 tied, 518 points scored and opponents scoring 225.

Louis Near Ring Money Mark; Scramble on to Set Next Foe

By SID FEDER

DETROIT, Sept. 21.—(AP)—Joe Louis pocketed a check for $118,000 today and headed for a vacation, while the scramble went on to determine the next challenger to take a shot at his still intact world's heavyweight crown.

After culling the arguments and rumors that followed his 11-round knockout for Bob Pastor before a crowd of 32,199 in Briggs stadium last night, the following seemed the most likely developments on the way:

1—Louis, still possessor of the most explosive pair of fists extant, and on the road to becoming the ring's top money-maker, will take in the world series in New York, rest for a while before giving a series of exhibitions after the first of the year, and then will prepare himself for his rematch with Tony Galento next June.

2—Pastor will not get a shot at Tony Galento, as proposed by Mike Jacobs. The Jacobs boys—Mike, Joe, songs and patter—gave the folks quite a bit of amusement over that one. When Joe, Tony's manager, heard Mike had suggested a Galento-Pastor get-together for Madison Square Garden this winter, he whispered his refusal in a quiet voice which couldn't be heard any farther than across the international border.

3—Pastor may meet Lou Nova, recent victim of Galento, this winter, or there's always the possibility that Bill Conn, the fighting Irishman out of Pittsburgh, who defends his light heavyweight championship Monday night against Melio Battina, may be trotted out for display with some of the leading heavies.

There was a wide difference of opinion as to just how much class Louis did or did not show last night in flattening the former New York university footballer. Many even went so far as to say he is slipping, has passed his peak. The one fact unanimously agreed on, however, was that he is one of the most dangerous punchers in all fistie history, possibly the "dynamiting-est" bomber of them all.

Slipping or not, however, Joe is on the road now to being the greatest money maker in ring history. With the $118,000 he took from last night's gross gate of $347,870, his ring earnings since he traded his automobile factory job for a pair of boxing gloves reached the somewhat staggering total of $1,669,332, just $330,678 short of Jack Dempsey's high of $2,000,000.

Montana Bobcats Visit at Capitol

Montana State's Bobcats, 40 strong, stopped over here yesterday enroute from San Jose, where they were defeated by the Spartans last Friday, to Portland, where they meet the Portland Pilots tomorrow.

The Montanians, traveling by bus, stopped long enough to tour the capitol building.

The Knockout! — Louis Retains Championship Title

Here's the finish of Bob Pastor's game but losing fight against Heavyweight Champion Joe Louis at Briggs stadium, Detroit. After being dropped several times in the first and second rounds, Pastor came back to stay until the 11th. But here he goes down for the tenth after 88 seconds of the 11th round of the scheduled 20-round bout. Sam Hennessy is the referee. (AP photo).

Berry Moves in.

Word from Eugene has it that the Jay Grabal-Bob Smith halfback combination that has in a measure existed since the boys, now seniors, were freshmen, will this fall be broken up. John "Buck" Berry, 176-pound, Ingleswood, Cal., youngster who transferred from Compton junior college last spring, is the lad who is breaking it up.

Berry, so my Eugene operative says, drives even harder than does Emmons at full, and in addition can pass and punt the oblong apple. He has already edged out big Bob Smith, who last year ran 92 yards for a touchdown from scrimmage against Idaho, comes the word, and is distinctly a boy to watch this fall.

Oregon's number one backfield, barring injuries between now and then, will for the USC game very definitely find Grabal and Berry at halfbacks, the 215-pound, fleet-footed Frank Emmons at full, and Dennis Donovan, who last year shared the post with Hank Nilson (now assistant coach at Linfield), at the quarterback slot, according to my ace sleuth in Oliverland.

It's interesting to note that Bob Smith and Don Mayberry, who have been fighting it out with Berry for the right half job, are southpaw passers, and that the three leading left halfbacks—Grabal, Leonard Isberg and Doug Caven, are equally proficient at propelling the pigskin through the atmosphere.

Cats Play Tomorrow.

It's Saturday night instead of tonight that our Bearcats go against the Leathernecks at San Diego, the date change having been made by wire the day before the 'Cats left here. . . . Biddy Bishop intends to sell or trade his home in Beaverton and make his home in Salem, along with the Senators. . . . It'll be Curly Hopper's first major battle when he crawls into Salem's armory ring next Wednesday night to face Mark Diaz; and most of the boys along cauliflower canal are of the opinion the Los Angeles boy is too experienced for workmanlike Hopper. The little warhoop hasn't been in there tossing 'em for six weeks, which in itself won't help him any. . . . The Hopper-Diaz scrap is eight-rounder number three on the deluxe Vets' card. . . . Top among Hollywood bowlers are Harold Lloyd, the ex-funny man, and Dorothy Arnold whose immediate fame rests on her engagement to Joe DiMaggio, according to Ned Day, national match game champion.

Soldier's Field, Chicago, with seating capacity of 115,000, is the nation's most capacious stadium, in answer to a query.

Others: The Coliseum at Los Angeles, 105,000; Stadium, 90,000; Michigan U, 87,542; Pasadena Rose Bowl, 84,000.

One of Buzz Brown's Titles up At VFW Card Here September 27

Two-title Buzz Brown will put one of his crowns, the northwest lightweight tiara, on the block when he meets Harry Conway, of Eureka, Calif., in the top eight-rounder of the September 27 Veterans of Foreign Wars fight card at Salem's armory.

This was the announcement here yesterday, that also revealed the card would be composed of four eight-round bouts, with Brown, Leo "The Lion" Turner, Curley Hopper and Jack Hibbard the principals in each.

Turner, Hopper Coming

Turner, top middleweight of the state, will be aiming for his 14th professional win when he takes on Johnny Peters, of Eureka, in the semi-windup, while Curley Hopper will attempt to duplicate Brown's victory over Mark Diaz of Los Angeles. In the third eight-rounder, Loger Jack Hibbard is scheduled to meet Tuffy Griffith, the boy who once went 10 beats with Mid-night Bell.

A four-round preliminary will complete what the Vets term a "gigantic fistie spectacle" to officially open the winter season.

Purse and $40 Lost Here By Woman Hop Picker, Are Restored by Finder

Mrs. Beatrice Scogg, 66-year-old Arlington woman, was made happy Thursday when she was advised that a purse containing $40 which she lost here recently, had been found.

Mrs. Scogg saved the money while working in a local hop yard. She lost the purse while in Salem. It was found by Mrs. David Eason.
