

Many Awards Made at Sweet Home Fair

Parade Shows Sixty Floats

Principal Address Given by Victor P. Morris of Eugene

LEBANON—Thursday, the first day of the Sweet Home fair, was well attended and Lebanon was well represented.

High school bands from Brownsville, Lebanon and Sweet Home played.

There were 60 floats in the parade. Victor P. Morris of Eugene gave the principal address.

Floyd Mullens judged the general flower exhibit. Vegetables, fruits, grain and forage were judged by N. S. Averill. Cooking, canning, needlecraft and 4H exhibits were judged by Miss Annabelle Fisher.

The Sweet Home Garden club flower show was judged by three members of the Lebanon Garden club.

In Gymnasium
The school gymnasium housed the exhibits and was filled with visitors from neighboring towns.

Winners in the school division in the parades Thursday morning were: First, Crawford; second, Casaccia; third, Sunnyside.

Church division winners were: First, Church of Christ; second, Evangelical; third, Crusaders class.

Lodge winners were: First, Royal Neighbors; second, Rebekahs; third, Boy Scouts.

In the club division winners were: First, Happy Workers; second, Square Circle; third, Sweet Home Garden club.

Commercial winners: First, Santiam Feed; second, Sweet Home Hardware; third, Timber City Garage.

Industrial: First, Sweet Home bakery; second, Bennett's grocery; third, Sweet Home dairy.

Individuals: First, Mrs. John Warden; second, A. C. Wells; third, Joe Thomas.

Bicycles: First, George Overton.

Flowers: First, Fred Spires; second, Burgess Brothers; third, school district 57.

Horseback riders: First, Claud Smith; second, Jess Moss; third, Mac Moss.

Boy Scouts Start Membership Drive

SCIO—A drive to increase membership in the Scio Boy Scout troop will be launched at a meeting of the order Monday evening, September 25, in the hall above the Morrison store, according to M. D. Zander, scoutmaster.

Jeffrey Marsh, new grade school principal, will act as an assistant for the current year.

Several boys will complete first class tests and be eligible to act as leaders to a troop of cub scouts by the first of the new year, Zander expects.

A camping trip is planned for the troop members within the next few weeks.

GOES TO SCHOOL
ABIQUA—Fritz Dahl has gone to Corvallis where he will assist in opening preparations for his house, Dahl is president this year of Phi Kappa Tau.

Kenneth Dahl is with the Harms Brothers' sheep being exhibited at the San Francisco fair.

Grangers' News

FALLS CITY—The Grange Home Economics club held its September meeting at the home of Mrs. J. Fabrique Friday afternoon, September 22. Mrs. Frank Brown conducted the study.

LYONS—The Santiam Valley grange sponsored the third annual harvest festival in the Lyons school gymnasium Saturday afternoon and night. Mikesell, 4H club leader from Albany, and Debert Hill of Mill City were judges.

FALLS CITY—The September business meeting of the local grange will be held in their rooms in the IOOF hall Monday night, September 25.

ROBERTS — The regular grange meeting was held Saturday night with just enough members present to fill the officers chairs, due to the busy season.

The regular meeting of the home economics was postponed to September 25 at the home of Mrs. S. L. Minard. Plans will be completed for the grange fair Saturday night, September 30.

DR. CHAN LAM
CHINESE MEDICINE CO.
393 1/2 Court St. corner Liberty. Office open Tuesday & Saturday only, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m., 4 to 7 p. m. Consultation, blood pressure & urine tests are free of charge.

Frank Wilsons Wed Fifty Years

Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Wilson of Orchard Heights road, who will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary Monday with a reception at their home. (Eby photo.)

Frank W. Wilsons Married 50 Years

Will Celebrate Golden Wedding Anniversary at Reception

A half century of married life lies behind Mr. and Mrs. Frank W. Wilson, who Monday afternoon and night will celebrate their golden wedding anniversary with a reception at their home on the Orchard Heights road.

They were married September 25, 1889, in Audubon county, Iowa. They moved to Washington in 1899 and lived there until in 1905 they bought their Polk county farm.

Expected for the celebration are seven children and their families, Mrs. D. M. Eby of Missoula, Mont., Mrs. J. W. Yates of Woodland, Wash., Mrs. M. W. Clark of Corvallis, Mrs. G. E. Smith, Fred L. Wilson, Wilfred W. Wilson and Ralph A. Wilson, all of Salem.

Mr. Wilson's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Aug Anderson of Iowa, and a nephew, Walter Wilson and family of Iowa, will also attend.

Sunday School Has 176th Meet

Hayesville District Will Gather at Hazel Green Sunday

HAZEL GREEN — The 176th convention of the Hayesville Sunday school district will be held at the Salem Japanese church at Hazel Green Sunday. The theme is "Our Mission."

The day's program is as follows:

Morning
10:00—Song service, Heroshi Kaneko.
10:10—Scripture reading and prayer, Fred de Vries.

10:20—Bible study hour: young people, Mrs. Ross Miles; adults, O. O. Epley; Japanese, Rev. Y. Horikoshi.

11:00—Remarks on lesson and offering.

11:10—Japanese hymn.

11:15—Morning message, Rev. Y. Horikoshi.

11:50—Vocal solo, Mrs. L. E. Harms.

11:55—Announcements and closing remarks.

12:00—Basket dinner and fellowship hour.

Afternoon Program
1:30—Song service.

1:45—Scripture reading and prayer, Albert Brownlee.

1:55—Song, Red Hills District.

2:00—Business meeting.

2:10—Japanese hymn.

2:15—"The Three-Fold Purpose of the Sunday School," Matt. 23:19; "Teaching," Mrs. Sawyer; "God's Plan of Salvation," Rev. Roy Ferguson.

2:55—Song, Pratum Mennonite SS.

3:00—Convention sermon, "The Importance of Our Mission," Rev. Paul A. Collard.

3:30—Song, Christian Missionary Alliance SS.

Closing remarks, Enoch Zimmerman.

Children's Division
10:00 a.m.—Song service, devotions, SS lesson and Bible stories.

1:30 p.m.—Song service, devotions, duets, solos, readings, recitations, and object lesson.

Enoch Zimmerman, president. Jim Rickard, vice-president. Grace Klampe, Sec.-Treas. Mrs. Wiley Biggins, Supt. Children's division.

Scio Bridge Work Begun This Week

SCIO—About two weeks is expected to be required for completion of steel work, begun this week, on the new Linn county bridge across Thomas creek in Scio.

The Gabriel Erection company, Portland, has the contract, with E. G. Landerson in charge of the crew here.

The 90-foot span will include brackets for pedestrian walks to be installed by the city of Scio. The brackets are equipped for either board or concrete walks, the former being in prospect because of lack of funds in the city's road allotment.

The contract also includes three coats of paint for the new structure.

Farmers Union News

AUMSVILLE — The Farmers union will meet Tuesday night, September 26, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Joe Reynolds.

School Plans Open House

Silverton Board Sponsors Event Friday Night; Starts at 7

SILVERTON — Silverton's school board is sponsoring the open house to school patrons Friday night of this week. The hours are from 7 to 10. The annual reception to teachers has been set for September 28 and is arranged by the local Parent-Teachers' association. This will be held in the little auditorium of the new high school.

The junior auxiliary of the American Legion has elected as its officers to include chairman, Vades Dickerson; vice chairman, Elmira Haugen; secretary, Dorothy Towe; chaplain, Jeannette Lerland; sergeant-at-arms, Neva Price. Installation will be held October 2.

Missionary Talks
Rev. Elliott C. Aadahl, a missionary from Honan province, China, is visiting at Silverton. He will speak Saturday night in the Norwegian language at the Frank Lund home on East Hill, and Sunday night in the American language, at the Christian and Missionary Alliance church. He will tell of present conditions in China and what the war is doing to the country. Both meetings are open to the public.

SILVERTON — A Bonneville dam project meeting will be held at Silverton in the near future, according to plans made by the Silverton Lions club Tuesday night. The exact date of the meeting has not yet been set.

Plans call for a motion picture depicting the benefits of the project, a speaker from Bonneville and one from Canby.

Mr. and Mrs. Merl Larson opened a gift shop in the White building on West Main street Wednesday. They have not as yet named the shop but are offering prizes for the best name submitted. Prior to coming to Silverton, Mr. Larson was in charge of a shoe store on High street at Salem.

Breaks Collar Bone
SILVERTON—Donald Leonard, son of T. T. Leonard, president of Silverton's Rotary club and chamber of commerce, and Mrs. Leonard, will go to school next Monday with a crushed right collar bone and other minor injuries as a result of a fall Tuesday when his bicycle crashed into the street curbing.

Edward Teigen, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. T. Teigen, fractured his arm early this week when he fell while at play at his home.

Hoagland to Head Scio Senior Class

Dawson Is Vice President; Other Officers Named at Meetings

SCIO—Harold Hoagland was chosen president of the senior class of Scio high school at a meeting this week. Other senior officers include vice-president, Tommy Dawson; secretary-treasurer, Evelyn Hall; council member, Vernon Morgan. Class officers elected by undergraduates include:

Juniors: president, Betty Tallback; vice-president, Edwin James; secretary-treasurer, Evelyn Kendle; council member, Verl Sims.

Sophomores: president, Bob Pletka; vice-president, Everett Ambrosek; secretary, Dale Webber; council member, Harry Holchek; sergeant-at-arms, Helen Rohwein.

Freshmen: president, June Cyrus; vice-president, Henry Barkmeyer; secretary, Pat Holland; treasurer, Robert Dennison; council member, Betty Holland; sergeant-at-arms, Clarence Shope.

Jackson Bliss has begun coaching of a six-man football team. Linn county class B league, of which Scio is a member, has not announced a schedule.

Chorus work, under direction of Irene Neugart, may include both boys and girls, according to Principal P. W. Johnston.

Total registration of seniors is now 11, four more registering in that class this week.

OCE Professor Has Operation

MONMOUTH—Dr. L. E. Forbes, staff instructor at Oregon College of Education, is convalescing at the Veterans' hospital, Portland, from an operation he underwent September 6. Dr. Forbes expects to return home on or about September 30.

Mrs. Helen Blair has sold a four-room house on North Knox street to Mr. and Mrs. Hugh J. Smith of Cottage Grove. The Smith family will take possession Friday. Their son will attend OCE and two daughters will attend the elementary school. A. F. Huber, realtor, made the sale.

Darrell B. Stump is harvesting his flibert crop, which is expected to take about two weeks. Local growers are not very hopeful about the flibert market, as it is thought the war in Europe will eliminate most of the foreign demand, and absorption in this country will not take care of the surplus.

VALUABLE COUPON

Bring This Coupon with You for a

Milk Shake

SATURDAY ONLY!

ONLY 5c

'The Meadows'

326 State St.
Next Door to Ladd & Bush Bank

It's Bargain Days Again!

--Time to Subscribe for Another Year to the Statesman... a Better and Bigger Newspaper Than Ever!

- ★Delivered by Mail Day of Publication!
- ★Complete Worldwide and Local News!
- ★Thought-provoking Editorials!
- ★For Women: Society! Fashions! Recipes!
- ★Up-to-date Market Reports!
- ★Comics... Many Special Features!
- ★Radio Logs—Salem and Portland!

--- PLUS ---

Paul Mallon

WASHINGTON, D. C., COLUMNIST WHO WILL WRITE THREE TIMES A WEEK FOR THE STATESMAN.

One Full Year by Mail... Still Only

$4.00

The Latest News

All of the three major breaks in the European crisis were brought to Salem FIRST by The Oregon Statesman!

The Oregon Statesman is the only daily from Salem or Portland serving the entire Salem and Valley area by mail with its final edition the same day it is printed.

The OREGON STATESMAN

"The Newspaper That Completes the Family Circle"