It was way back thar, 10 years ago this month, that the League of Nations began its 10th annual meet with a mythical dove of peace hovering o'er, that three local gents were grabbed by Salem gendarmes for possession of gin, and that the Salem Senators won the Western Oregon baseball championship by defeating Coquille, 9 to 6.

During the same month, Tommy Loughran announced he'd surrender his lightweight title, the 63-year-old state fair pavilion was rased by wrecking and fire, and Bobby Jones met his Waterloo at Pebble beach—being eliminated in the first round of national amateur play by Johnny Goodman.

Fourteen Salem scissorblades paid parking fines in one day, Mussolini (and Mrs. Mussolini) had a new daughter, and Amy Hauser signed as assistant Bearcat football coach.

A billion bucks were lost in the panic that hit Wall street, French Premier Aristide Briand advocated a United States of Europe, a sum of $500,000 was being raised to send Salem's drum corps to the national American Legion convention in Louisville, Ky., and "another" murder was staged in Chicago.

Lutheran Gridmen Edge out Pacific

TACOMA, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Pacific Lutheran Gladiators of Tacoma defeated Pacific university, of Forest Grove, Ore., 14 to 13, in a game opening the season for both teams here tonight. The Glads took a 14-6 lead in the first half on two touchdowns and a safety. Two 30-yard passes from Halfback Marv Tommervik to Sig Sigurdson, end, set up both Lutheran scores. Tommervik punched one touchdown and Marv Harshman, fullback, drove over the other.

Pacific university scored in the second period on Fullback Woodward's 3-yard plunge, and again in the third quarter on Bobby Boak's short drive. Quarterback Horner converted the second touchdown.

Wenatchee, Sept. 23.—(AP)—Tacoma's Tigers captured the Western International league playoff crown by defeating the Wenatchee Chiefs 5 to 3 in a strategy-packed 10-inning thriller here last night.

Bobby Garretson's double, two bases on balls and Jack Colburn's squeeze play bunt gave the Tigers the winning markers in the overtime frame.

Wenatchee used three pitchers trying to stop the Tacoma attack and they allowed only seven hits, but they were enough. Bob Cole went the route for the Tigers, permitting 10 blows including home runs by Henry Bonetti and Jim Nicholson. Bobby Garretson homered for Tacoma.

Half-Pint Back Sparks Cougar

Emerson Behind 3 Drives as WSC Scores 19-6 Win on Gonzaga

PULLMAN, Wash., Sept. 23.—(AP)—By the margin of superiority of one Dick Emerson, half-pint left halfback, Washington State college Cougars opened their 1939 football season here today with a 19 to 6 victory over the Gonzaga university Bulldogs.

The 165-pound halfback was the spark plug behind all of Washington State's three touchdown drives.

In the first quarter, after WSC took the ball from a Gonzaga punt after the kickoff, Emerson passed from the Gonzaga 40-yard line to Right Halfback Earl Ross on the 15. Ross lateralled to Don Greeley, quarterback, who went over for the first touchdown of the game less than eight minutes after the opening whistle.

In the closing minutes of the second quarter, Emerson intercepted a Gonzaga toss and ran it back 57 yards to the Gonzaga 14. On the next play, with Bulldogs sifting through from all directions, Emerson was blocked from a pass formation and went around left end for the Cougars' second touchdown.

The Bulldogs counted midway of the third period when Ray Hare went over from the Washington State three-yard line.

The final score came on a break for Washington State with less than two minutes left to play in the game as Bill Bantz, Cougar tackle, recovered Emerson's punt on the Gonzaga six.

Buzz Brown, two-time mitt tosser from Portland, who Wednesday night in Salem's armory will put his northwest lightweight title up against Harry Conway, Eureka, Calif., challenger.

All Kinds Color On Tuesday Card
All - Cleanie, All - Meanie and Meanie - Cleanie
Mat Bouts Due
Grappling takes on a three-color aspect in Salem's armory arena next Tuesday night, according to Promoter Herby Owen, who announced the program would contain one meanie-cleanie clash, one all-cleanie combat and one all-meanie melee.

Heading the triple dose of muscle maneuvers, to which all Marion county women, be they housewives, debutantes or hired girls, are to be non-paying guests, will be the second appearance of big Mike Stompolis, the square-jawed Greek who last week tossed Prince Iakl.

Airplane Spinner Returns
Stompolis, airplane spin specialist, will have George Kitchmiller, Portland villain, to try his aerial artistry upon. They get top billing, over the hour route.

Clean, straight-away wrestling is to be in vogue in the semi-final, in which Joe Lynam, ex-Redmond high school football, is to make his Salem debut. Lynam, a clean, fast youngster, will step in against a capable Ernie Roberts, Oklahoma grappler.

The open-out affair with Rod Fenton and Bob Cummings the unscrupulous principals. Varn Clark will referee all bouts, according to Owen.

Defends Lightweight Crown

Buzz Brown, two-time mitt tosser from Portland, who Wednesday night in Salem's armory will put his northwest lightweight title up against Harry Conway, Eureka, Calif., challenger.

130-Pound Brown Has Laugh On Opponent's Fretting Boss

Buzz Brown, the northwest lightweight and featherweight king, who headlines Wednesday night's four-star Veterans of Foreign Wars boxing card at the armory, thinks he has a good joke on his adversary's manager.

"Remember," warned Tug Wilson, manager of Harry Conway, the Eureka, Calif., lightweight against whom Brown will defend his title, "Brown has to come in at 135 pounds or we won't fight."

The reason the great little Elmer is snickering up his sleeve is that he hasn't weighed over 130 pounds for the last five years. "Where in the world did they ever get the idea I was a big guy?" Brown wanted to know.

Heads for Armstrong
Brown and Conway fight the finale of four eight-rounders, each one of which is thought by the local fight club to be of main event calibre. Brown, since he began his comeback, has scored straight victories over Joe Mendola and Mark Diaz, a pair of rugged featherweights, and is bent on putting himself in line for another crack at Henry Armstrong, with whom he once stepped ten rounds.

Armstrong is figuring on a tour following his bout with Ambers, and as Salem is sitting in the logical spot to get his Oregon appearance, it is thought highly possible Brown will get a chance with the little Brown bomber.

Warner Magic Dazzles USF

San Jose State Applies Tricks in 16 to 6 Win Over Touted Foe

By RUSSELL J. NEWLAND
SAN FRANCISCO, Sept. 23.—(AP)—San Jose State college, one of the country's myriad "minor league" teams, applied the football magic of an old-time coach named Glenn "Pop" Warner in the telling fashion today to defeat University of San Francisco 16 to 6 in one of the biggest upsets seen here in many a year.

The old master of the wing-back, reverses and fake reverses was keyed up as the ranked freshman in the rooting section of the state college. He puffed an endless chain of cigarettes, hobbled to the sidelines with the aid of a cane to protest some San Francisco infraction of the rules, and huddled with his one-time Stanford center, De Groot, on tactical changes designed to further confuse the opposition.

The San Francisco eleven ranks as one of the west coast's major gridiron clubs.

San Jose scored the initial points with a 20-yard field goal from placement by Kenneth Cook, guard. In the second period, San Francisco came back in the same quarter to take the lead with a touchdown, after an intercepted pass on San Jose's 42.

San Jose regained the lead in the third period on a 54-yard touchdown drive.

A last minute San Francisco drive was converted into a last period touchdown by San Jose. Bob Tichenal, captain and center, intercepted a pass and behind fine downfield blocking, ran 85 yards to score.

Eliminations in Golf Club Match

First eliminations in the Salem Golf club's annual championship tournament were recorded Saturday as second round matches got under way. In the one delayed first round match, Bob Utter defeated Don Hendrie 4 and 2.

Second round championship flight matches saw Bob Powell defeat Frank Lynch 3 and 1 and Tony Painter win over Walt Cline, Jr. 2 and 1.

No first flight matches were played. In the second flight over defeated Aerehart 2 up and Pekar won over Evans 3 and 2. In the third flight Waterman decisively over Hileman and Dr. Bates won from Potts 1 up. In the fourth, McCallister defeated Dr. Joseph 2 up.
