Attractive Twin Homes Completed

Announcement of the completion of two modern duplex homes on the northwest corner of Capitol and Marion streets was made yesterday by R. L. Forster, Salem builder. Dr. Floyd B. Dayton, Portland optometrist, is the owner.

Each four-room duplex has an individual entrance, walk and basement. Soundproofed wall construction is featured in each of the four units, and silent gas refrigerators and automatic gas furnaces aid further to eliminate sound. Equipment was selected, according to Dr. Dayton, after a careful survey in Salem and Portland.

The homes are colonial bungalow type of architecture, with hardwood floors, papered living rooms and bedrooms and strictly modern bathrooms. Built-ins and modern gas appliances are featured in the colorful and streamlined kitchens.

Capitola Rink Is In Full Operation

The Capitola skating rink, management of which was recently taken over by the noted professional skaters "Happy" Collier and "Bill" Deschner who have appeared in vaudeville as "The Aristocrats," is now in full operation following completion of improvements including the resurfacing of the floor.

Something YOU Can't Ignore! Dr. Painless Parker Says: "Seven thousand, nine hundred and ninety-three school children—96 per cent—in a group of 8,315 examined recently, were found to be suffering tooth decay. "Each child, to reduce the figures to the individual, had 4.3 cavities... 1,600 of these occurred among permanent teeth. "Only 322 were without cavities, or fillings." You need not reflect long on these statistics to realize the need for constant dental care... how imperative it is that you see a dentist at frequent intervals. Don't delay until middle age, until teeth crumble away and fall out.
