MUSIC

By MAXINE BUREN

"We Shall Have Music," and we shall hear and see America's great violin virtuoso, Jascha Heifetz, play the lead just as he would appear in real life. Because Mr. Heifetz is so reserved in his natural actions, he almost underacts, but those who have appreciated his picture say that he is himself, even to the mask he wears when playing.

In Olin Downes' review of the film in the New York Times he deplores the fact that, like so many others of great artists, the story is unacceptably poor. He recalls that when Paderewski was filmed in "Moonlight Sonata" the drama that might have been, built around the fantastic story of that great musician who was one of the world's important statesmen, should have been replaced by an incipient story of the great man playing for children's parties.

Leopold Stokowski and Walter Damrosch, he says, also stooped to conquer, and when Lawrence Tibbett and Grace Moore appeared in films they sang only in altered versions of the masterpieces.

Downes says, "The film has more than one sovereign virtue, the musician is no longer the accessory, but the mainspring of the plot, and the music itself (principally in the person of Mr. Heifetz, but also present in various other human manifestations) is the hero of the drama."

"On the whole by his complete absence of acting, Mr. Heifetz is the more himself and he pours forth without stint or limit, his emotions, his genius into the musical performance."

"It is a wonderful performance and he has never, in my recollection, played with more completely released passion and virtuoso fire. The film would remain, if for no other value, as a record of the playing of one who will surely endure as the pre-eminent violin artist of his period. For time to come audiences, as they do today at the Rivoli, will crash into applause after he finishes on the film, just as they do when he is present in the flesh at Carnegie hall."

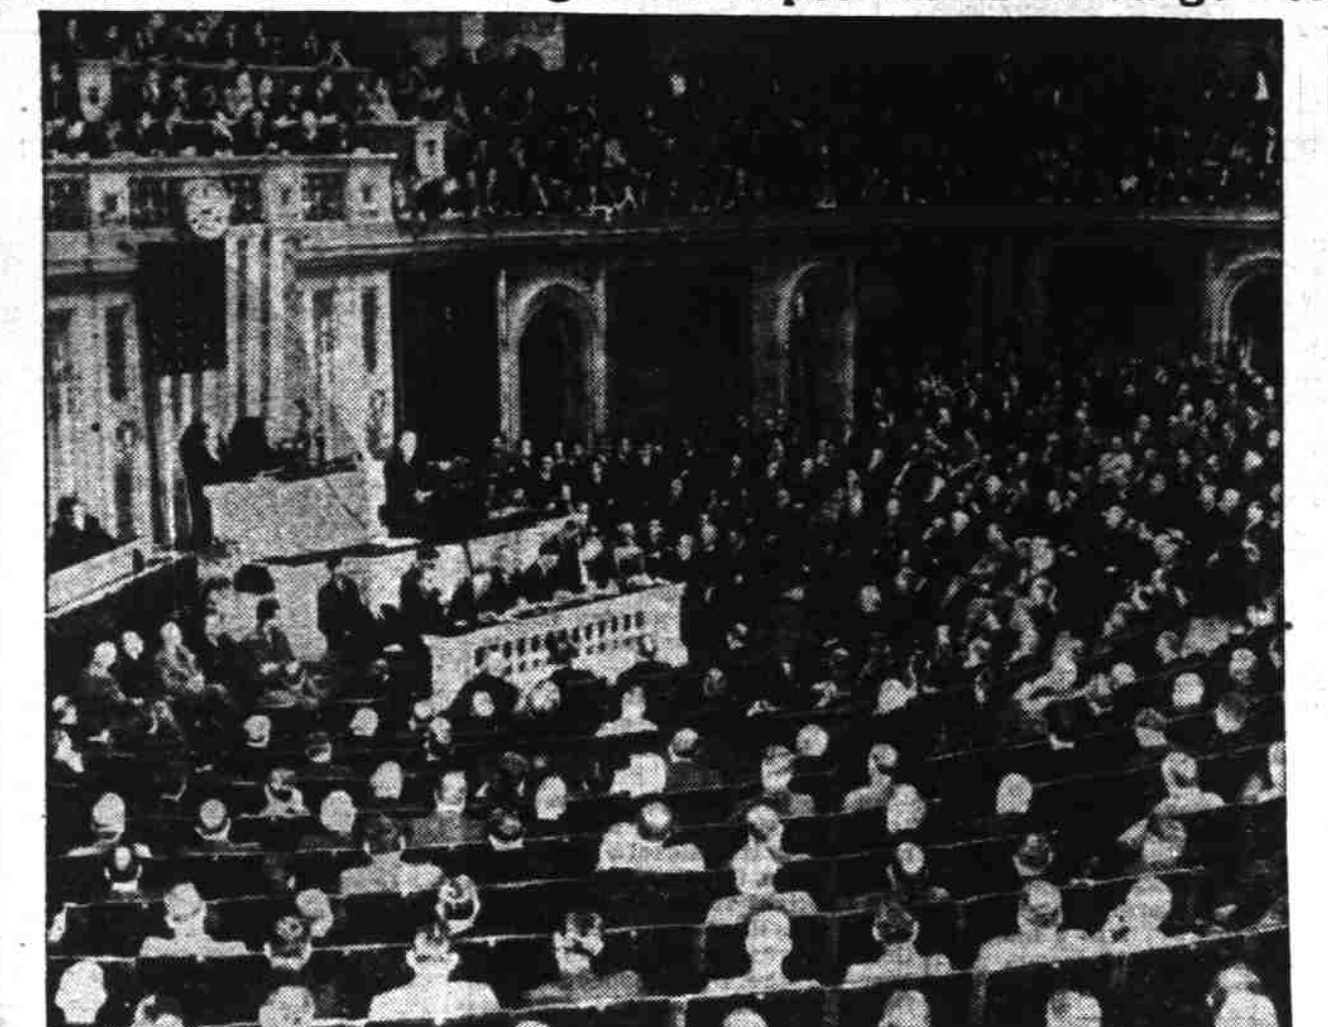

Tonight at 6 o'clock the Ford Symphony hour resumes schedule over KOIN. Lawrence Tibbett will be guest soloist and the orchestra will be under the baton of Eugene Ormandy.

On Monday night at 8:30 o'clock Alice Templeton's program will be heard over KGW with baritone Donald Dickson singing.

Salem Maccabees will give a grand opening ball at Fraternal temple on Thursday night for all members of the lodge and their friends. Out of town Maccabees are to be special guests at the affair. The committee in charge of the dance includes: Mr. Thomas Rogers, Mr. Ray Stryker, Mr. and Mrs. George Deltz.

Roosevelt Calls on Congress to Repeal Arms Embargo Act

Appearing personally before the congress, convened in extraordinary session, President Roosevelt (shown speaking), told the senators and representatives repeal of the arms embargo was necessary because it was "most vitally dangerous to American neutrality, security and peace." He said he could offer no hope that the "shadow over the world might swiftly pass." The house chamber was crowded as the chief executive spoke. (AP photo.)

In the Valley Social Realm

MONMOUTH — A wedding of interest occurred Sunday afternoon when Mrs. Minnie S. Thiele, Portland, was married to Mr. William J. Stockholm of Monmouth. Rev. L. W. Lynne read the service at the Waverly Heights Congregational parsonage in Portland. Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Castor of Portland attended the ceremony. They will make their home on Mr. Stockholm's farm tract, at the south city limits of Monmouth. He is a well known retired farmer, prominently identified with Monmouth grange and Polk county Pomona; also the local IOOF and Rebekah lodges. For many years he has been active in promotion of the Polk county fair. He is a Spanish American war veteran.

BRUSH CREEK — Mrs. C. I. Benson was honored Wednesday on the occasion of her 81st birthday anniversary. Calling on her for the afternoon were Mrs. Anna K. Jensen, Mrs. M. J. Madsen, Mrs. O. S. Haugo, Mrs. Jack Randall and Mrs. Marriet Brenden. Mrs. Benson's daughter, Mrs. Walter C. Larson, assisted during the coffee hour.

SILVERTON — The Junior Women's club at Silverton will hold its first meeting of the year at the R. F. Larson home Monday night. LaForest McDonald is the president.

Hazlett Makes no Plans
James H. Hazlett, who Friday resigned as state corporation commissioner, said press reports that he would return to Hood River to practice law were erroneous. "I have not yet determined definitely what I will do after October 1," Hazlett said.

LIBERTY STARTS MONDAY
LIBERTY — The Liberty school opened for the new term Monday, September 18, with 106 pupils enrolled, the first day. The first day's enrollment is higher than expected as the prune season is not yet over here and some pupils are thought to be working in the harvest of the fruit.

The list of pupils in the four rooms was as follows: Miss Florence Berndt's first and second grades, 30; in the third and fourth grades, Miss Margaret Gilstrap, teacher, were 26; Miss Alberta Wilson, fifth and sixth grades, 23; seventh and eighth grades, Joseph Watt, teacher, 27. First graders this year are: Jackie Jory, Wayne Spriggs, Roger Berryhill, Billy Schalk, Leslie Peterson, Muriel Hockett, Vernon Henry, Jay Surgeon, Alice Lane, Marlin Schaad, Richard Schaefer, Corrine Ellerton, Patricia Ann Newsom, Alvin Goff, Patricia Sayles, Lee Karsten.

HAVE PROMOTION
UNIONVALE — Promotion day was observed at the Unionvale Evangelical church school September 17.

Kissing the Boys Goodbye

'Tis farewell for the nonce as anti-aircraft gunners attached to the 62nd Coast Artillery, kiss their girls goodbye before boarding the U. S. army transport St. Michel at New York. They are bound for the Panama Canal Zone, where Uncle Sam is bolstering the defenses of his east-west lifeline.

Bridge Wrenched By Power Digger

The state highway commission reported Saturday that power shovel had wrecked a covered bridge over the John Day river between John Day and Prairie City. A 10-ton limit has been put on the bridge until Monday. A new bridge already under construction will be completed in three weeks.

FALLS CITY — Schools will open their doors here Monday morning, September 25, just a week later than had been planned, due to the late harvest. The new grade school building, a $25,333 structure, is completed and ready for occupancy.

The faculty is as follows: high school, Claire M. Price, superintendent of schools; Wilbur Drake, Helen Robertson and Marjorie Jones, grade school; Mrs. Frances Speerstra, principal; J. G. Tuttle, Eugenia Shanks, Thelma Sundrud and Dorothy Schmitt.

HUBBARD ATTENDANCE LOWER

HUBBARD — The grade school attendance is a little below last year. To date the attendance under the different teachers is as follows: First and second grades, taught by Mrs. C. K. Duncan, 27; fifth and sixth grades, taught by Mrs. J. O. Tilberg, 23; third and fourth grades, taught by Mrs. Fern Foster, 24; seventh and eighth grades, taught by Robert Cady, 26. Cady is also grade coach.

Hammers Leave On Deer Hunt

NORTH SANTIAM — Mr. and Mrs. I. R. Hammer accompanied by Henry Condit left Monday for their annual deer hunt in eastern Oregon. Miss Hazel Hitch leaves next week for Monmouth to begin her last year's work at the Normal school.

GO TO SCHOOL
SWEGLE — Swegle young people who enter high schools this fall include Glenna Gean McKinney, Pauline Stanly and Wilfred Waason, go to Parrish Junior high; Carol Shaffer, Clair Swingle, Wilma Watts, Ruby West, Edith Stark, Fred Hensell, Wayne Knight, and Claud Swingle, senior high.

FROM CALIFORNIA
UNIONVALE — Mr. and Mrs. Charles Turner and family of Ventura, Calif., arrived by automobile Monday to visit his brother, Harvey Turner, and family. Mr. Harvey Turner, who was severely injured with a brood sow attacking him recently, is improving and able to be up a portion of the time.
