Methodists Start Fall Activities

Silverton Church Begins new Classes; League Has Rally Party

SILVERTON—The Just Folks Sunday school class of the Methodist church is beginning its fall program of activities under the direction of Mrs. Floyd Ellefson. This class is for young people out of high school.

At the Sunday meeting officers will be elected and plans will be made for the first class party. The Epworth League of the Methodist church held its rally week party Thursday night in the church social rooms. Over 40 attended. Games were in charge of Harry Bowel, newly elected fourth vice president. Refreshments were served by Miss Louise Bahrke and Miss Florence Walker. Singing was in charge of Miss Mary Alfred.

A Queen Esther circle, a group of girls under the Women's Home Missionary society of the Methodist church, has been organized with Mrs. Edward Terry as councilor. Officers elected for the year include grand marshall, Marian Baller; marshall, Vera Carpenter; division leader, Marian Hubbs; stylist, Agnes Naegli; coil collector, Norma Finlay; secretary, Connie Reed.

Other new members of the Queen Esther circle include Mildred Holliday, Virginia Baller, Betty Williams, Virginia Tuggle, Vivian Dack, Joan Cooper, Louise Bahrke, Betty Lee Robins and Janis Burr.

A religious drama, "The Lost Church," will be given at 4:30 at the Methodist church Sunday af-Stewart, Betty Francis, Mildred Hubbs, Agnes Naegeli, Louise Bahrke and Marian Baller.

The drama is given under the direction of Mrs. Floyd Ellefson and is open to anyone.
