

Melissa Jordan Services Today

Albany Woman Is Survived by 12 Children; Heart Trouble Causes Death

ALBANY—Mrs. Melissa Florence Jordan, 77, a resident of Lincoln county for many years, and the mother of 12 living children, died at the Albany General hospital Tuesday night. Death was due to heart trouble.

Funeral services have been arranged for Friday at 2 o'clock from the Christian church in this city. Rev. Virgil Halbig will conduct the service. Burial will be in Central cemetery. The Fisher funeral home is in charge of arrangements.

Mrs. Jordan was born October

24, 1862, in Fulton, Ill. She was married to R. B. Jordan on March 10, 1885. In 1898 they came to Oregon, the greater time since being spent in Linn county. Mr. Jordan died many years ago. Mrs. Jordan was a member of the Christian church.

Survivors are the following children: Frank of Ashland, Mrs. Eva Gearheart of Seio, Mrs. Elizabeth Sprenger of Portland, Mrs. Effie Wilson of Eugene, Mrs. Grace Shaankland of Portland, Mrs. Ella Cantrel of Denver, Col., John Jordan of Silverton, Paul Jordan of Santa Cruz, Calif., Mrs. Leora Carraway of Mill City, and Mrs. Maggie Gearheart, Mrs. Mary Wilson and Sport Jordan, all of Albany. She is also survived by a brother and sister, Ed Darrow and Mrs. Effie McDannal, both of Brighton, Colo., and a number of grandchildren.

Funeral Services Held for Tibbetts

ALBANY—Eben Davis Tibbetts, 77, a resident of Oregon for the past 35 years, 18 of which were spent in and near Albany, died at the Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene Monday night. Funeral services were held from the Fisher funeral home in Albany Wednesday afternoon at 3:30. Dr. C. E. Coles had charge of the services and burial was in Riverside cemetery.

Tibbetts was born in Duluth, Minn., August 13, 1862. He came to Oregon from Wisconsin in 1901. The first 18 years after his arrival here he spent in Eugene and then came to Albany where he lived until recently when he had been making his home in Yachats. He was a member of the Methodist church.

Surviving is the widow, Cora

Moore Tibbetts, and the following children: Harry of Toledo, Mrs. John Lambert of Albany, Mrs. Lydia Howard of Ashland, Mrs. Esther George of San Francisco, Calif., and Mrs. Madeline Garver and Mrs. Hazel Kimmey of Portland. He is also survived by a sister, Mrs. Lydia Smith of Jacksonville, and five grandchildren.

Return From Vacation In California, Mexico

UNION HILL—Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Tate and daughter, Marjorie, returned from a two weeks vacation in California. While there they visited the fair and went on into Mexico. They also visited with relatives along the way.

Five tables of "500" were in play at the social night at the grange hall on Saturday night.

Macomber Found Guilty by Jury

DALLAS—A Polk county circuit court jury returned an unanimous verdict of guilty in the case of the State vs. Glen Theodore Macomber here Tuesday afternoon after deliberating one hour. Holt Stockton was foreman of the jury. Judge Walker announced that he would sentence Macomber on Thursday morning at 10:30.

Macomber was charged with grand larceny. He allegedly took four tires and wheels from a truck belonging to Joe Cliff of Dallas on the night of August 1.

The case had been heard before Judge Arlie C. Walker here Monday and Tuesday of this week. At the conclusion of the state's case at the resumption of court Tuesday afternoon the defense announced that the defendant did not wish to take the witness stand and that he had no other witnesses. Later the defense attorney asked that the case be reopened and Mrs. Macomber, mother of the defendant, took the stand but did not testify.

Entrance Time Is Extended by Vote

SALEM HEIGHTS—Time of entrance of primary pupils was extended to December 1 at a special school meeting held Wednesday night. The date is fixed by law at November 15, but specifies that it may be changed as a special meeting.

The school board has placed seats in the vestibule of the community hall.

Mr. and Mrs. Arlie Robins, former Heights residents, now living east of town, lost all their belongings by fire recently.

Swegle PTA Hears Of Value of Radio

SWEGLE—The first regular meeting of Swegle Parent-Teacher association was held at the school house Tuesday night with almost a 100 per cent attendance. Following a dinner Mrs. William Hensel entertained with a piano solo while the dishes were cleared for the business meeting.

The upper grade room won the picture given for the attendance of parents and friends, by 96 per cent. Two new members, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Nelson were welcomed. The program committee presented a suggested program for the year.

The speaker, Art Kirkham, was presented by William Hensel. Kirkham emphasized the use made of radio programs by the citizens of a democratic form of government, and of how the broadcasting systems contribute something worthwhile as social and educational agencies.

Following the program the members voted to sponsor hot lunches for the school children and a committee was appointed to take charge of the project, Mrs. William Hensell, Mrs. L. W. Star, Mrs. Homer Conklin.

The next regular meeting will be the third Tuesday in November with a reception for the teachers and Mrs. Agnes Booth being planned.

Youth Group Elects

SILVERTON—The Young People's club of St. Paul's Catholic Parish has named as its officers president, Leslie Weatherill; vice president, Leonard Strobel; secretary, Vera Zollner; treasurer, Cecelia Weatherill. The club is making plans for its first dance of the season to be held November 10.
