Caviar.. Breast of Pheasant ..and Jell-well, Dinah!

THE Van Cashmores treat money like chewing gum wrappers. And when Mrs. Van C. orders meals for the family, cash registers ring in three counties. For dessert you might expect Bombe Glacée, Baked Alaska, Crepe Suzettes or some imported tidbit recommended by the International Gourmet Society.

But Mr. Van Cashmore has one outstanding favorite—Extra Flavor Jell-well at about 1c per serving. And he can't understand this ridiculously low price. "Serve it in our gold dishes," he says, "and who'll know the difference?"

He likes the way Jell-well's rich, appetizing color sparkles in the candlelight—and the way Dinah nestles a red cherry in a snowy ring of whipped cream right on top.

In fact, he sometimes sneaks out to watch Jell-well's quick trip from package to ice box... is now a master in the "zipping" technique of the patented Easy-Opening box. He knows why Jell-well is so good for the children—and has even been heard to recite the 8 delightful flavors in his sleep.

Perhaps Mr. Van C. carries this thing too far. But the fact remains that your family will love Jell-well's Extra Flavor... and you'll like it because it jells so well. Hurry to your grocer's before the Van Cashmores buy him out. Just look for the bright red Easy-Opening box.

And look for Jell-well Pudding Dessert, too... entirely different but just as good... Chocolate, Vanilla, Butter-scotch... smooth, delicious... and rich in healthful Dextrose.
