In the Valley Social Realm

SILVERTON - Miss Dorothy Stirber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wenzel Stirber of Silverton, was a charming bride Saturday morning at 9 o'clock when her marriage to Joseph Sterk of Se-attle was solemnized at St. Paul's Catholic church. Father Richard Carberry read the ceremony

The bride wore white satin fashioned with a long train with lace inserts, a stand-up lace collar and long close fitting sleaves. Her veil of tulle and lace was arranged in cap effect with rb'nestones and tiny calla lilies. She carried white rosebuds and cou-

Miss Verna Stirber, in floor length, blue taffeta, was her sister's only attendant. She carried small pompons, wine colored chrysanthemums, matching the velvet bow in her hair. Charles Stirber was best man.

Sister Olivette presided at the organ and Mrs. Ben Zollner sang. Following the ceremony, the bridal party was entertained at breakfast at the home of the bride. A noon luncheon was served with those in charge: Mrs. Tom Reiling of Woodburn, Mrs. William Rue, Mrs. Ben Zollner, Mrs. Joseph Shneider and Mrs. L B. Scharback.

Covers were placed for the tridal party and for Father Carber-ry, Father G. M. Snederhorn of Stayton, Rev. J. C. McGrath of Portland university, Mr. and Mrs. W. Stirber, Miss Edna Stirber and Miss Geraldine Gates of Sil-Bjerks and Theodore, Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Williams and Alfred and Eleanor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Davis, Mr. and Mrs. John Stirber and Jack, Mr. and Mrs Will Mc-Mt. Angel.

For going away, the bride Miss Rita Frank. wore a moss green crepe dress with matching hat, black coat and accessories. Mr. and Mrs. Sterk will make their home in Seattle.

75% OF DOCTORS DIE FROM EXHAUSTION

The average Doctor is a good example of what his patients shouldn't do, in the way of burning up energy faster than it can be replaced by nature.

Directly, or indirectly, in the case of 75% of the Doctors who die each year, plain exhaustion is the cause. Depletion from over-work, worry and lack of rest induces heart trouble, kidney disorders, acute gastric conditions.

The physical and mental demand on a Doctor with a busy practice, would appall the average business man. He simply would not be able to understand why the Doctor does not aystematize his practice better and insure himself a more healthfully rounded out routine.

However, the patient can often help, by being on time to appointments, telephoning only when necessary, calling at night only in cases of emertency—and co-contrating with the Usually when it is necessary for you to wait on a Doctor
