Jones' absence holds up City Business
Jones is under $5000 bond. Jones' absence has held up some city business and should be not be located by Monday it is probable an acting recorder would be appointed.

A special meeting of the council will probably be called if no trace is found of the recorder. City Attorney Paul R. Hendricks said yesterday he would give the council an opinion that Alfred Maudt, deputy recorder, has authority to fill all functions of the office.

The statement approved by ten aldermen follows:
"It is exceedingly to be regretted that publicity was given to the audit of the books of the city recorder because of the inference that might be drawn indicating a suspicion that the books of Recorder Jones were not in order. There should be no such inference. Under the circumstances of his absence such an audit is a reasonable, prudent, business-like procedure even though there is no evidence to substantiate even a suspicion of irregularity in the affairs of office. It should be remembered that his books have been regularly audited—the last time by the state department of audits, an impartial authority—and nothing has ever been found to indicate the slightest irregularity and auditors have been generous in their praise of his department."

"Mr. Jones has taken his vacations in irregular periods between meetings of the council and the various commissions and committees it is his duty to attend. During such times he has sought seclusion for more complete rest. When he last left Salem he was suffering from a severe cold and informed his secretary that if his cold did not improve he intended to "hole in" for a vacation until it was improved. The strain of his work and his added duties with several fraternal and civic organizations with which he has been active have noticeably impaired his health during the past year. The possibility that he met with foul play can not be ruled out in view of the fact that a substantial part of his work has been that of municipal judge and committing magistrate.

"In consideration of common principles of fair play as well as in consideration of his long record of public service, the members of the city council who have been most intimate with his office urge the public to form no conclusions until all of the facts are known."

mage and 63 from passes, or a total net of $6.

Bottled up the first quarter and the early part of the second by Little Dick Emerson's beautiful punts, one of which—a quick kick—was good for 62 yards, the Beavers took up their first touch-down tramp on their own 48, to where Bob Olson returned one of Emerson's kicks from the 40. Dow, the stumpy, 195-pound reserve fullback from Montana, who as a freshman two years ago was a sensation but who didn't find himself with the varsity until last week's Washington game, was the spearhead and driving power of that march. Slamming through the tackles with tremendous drive, he personally accounted for 29 of the 55 yards that were accomplished by the Beavs in just nine plays.

Olson at left tackle lost one, but Dow rammed through right tackle for 14 and a first down on the WSC 42. A pass, Olson to Peters, was completed for a loss of three and Tomich held for no gain at right guard, but Olson then rifled to Tomich for a first down on the WSC 15, the pass good for 20 and the run for five. Dow, in two tackle slams went to the three for the third consecutive first down, and in two more plunges plowed over left tackle for the touch-down. Younce, with Olson leading, booted home the conversion from placement.

There were but four minutes left to the half when they scored, but the Beavers, by dint of a 21-yard punt return by Olson and two first-down thrusts by Tomich, Dow and Olson, were battling back down the field when the halftime gun sounded.

The Orange drove 57 yards to the Cougar five in the third quarter, but two fumbles, one on a fourth down play cost them the scoring opportunity and the ball on the Cougar 18. Midway of the final period big

John Tsoutsouvas, Beaver center, intercepted Sewell's third down pass on the Oregon State 22, and on the sixth play from there Kiselburgh whammed off the Cougar right tackle to sprint 34 yards into pay dirt unimpeded. On that 63-yard drive Vic Kohler took a reverse around left end for 22 yards and a first down on the Oregon State 44; Kiselburgh drove right tackle for nine and three yards to a first down on the WSC 44; Morrie Kohler circled right end for nine and Kiselburgh made it a first down on the 34. Big Jim then went through the tackle slot for his 34-yard scoring gallop Younce's conversion attempt from placement was blocked by Senuty.

Tsoutsouvas' interception of Sewell's pass ended the Cougars' only serious threat they had just marched to the Orange 16, after Center Keith recovered Vic Kohler's fumble on the WSC 46. A pass Sewell to Fletcher, netted 24 yards and a first down on the OSC 31. Sewell romped through tackle for 13 and a second first down on the 18. Section in two drives picked up two yards to the 16, and then Sewell let go of the pass that wound up in "Choo-choo's" hands.

The Beavers, who are now the Coast conference's only undefeated and untied team, hung up 12 first downs, including six scoring ones and three from passes. The Cougars, whose sole threat was the mighty toe of little Emerson, gathered two first downs from scrimmage and three from passes.

Ohio State Loses To Cornell 23-14

COLUMBUS, O., Oct. 28.—(AP)—Cornell spotted Ohio State a pair of touchdowns today, and then showed a dazzling display of gridiron leggedomain to win, 23 to 14, before 49,583 half-frozen fans.

The Ivy league champions, winning their fourth straight contest, battled the Bucks off the road to football fame and rolled up more points than any team has been able to score against Ohio since Francis A. Schmidt became coach here six years ago.

The stunning setback, Ohio's first of the year, came as a decided upset on the heels of Buckeye victories over Missouri, Northwestern and mighty Minnesota.

Montana Downs Idaho U 13 to 0

MOSCOW, Idaho, Oct. 28.—(AP)—The University of Montana's Grizzlies galloped down the Neale stadium turf today with the wind at their backs in the second and fourth quarters for a 13 to 0 victory that turned the University of Idaho's homecoming sour.

The Vandals of Idaho, tamed this year by every team but Montana State, saw a touchdown pass go bad on the Montana four-yard stripe early in the tussle and their one other threat balked on the Montana 35.

Pass interceptions by the wide-awake Grizzlies wrecked both Vandal drives, and one of these produced the game's greatest thrill and biggest Montana disappointment.

Notre Dame Wins Its Fifth Straight

PITTSBURGH, Oct. 28.—(AP)—Again that extra point looked big as a billion as Notre Dame scored its fifth straight victory of the year over Carnegie Tech, 7-6, before a thrilled crowd of 68,000 in Pitt stadium today.

This time it was Lou Zontini, fleet Irish halfback, who carefully lined up his sights and placed that vital seventh point after the Irish had scored their touchdown on a recovered fumble in the third period.

Demonstrations Shift to Outlying Squares, Streets
With the heart of Prague sealed by the police, demonstrations shifted tonight to the more outlying squares and streets.

German authorities and Czech state police, including many mounted officers, cooperated in an attempt to control the crowds.

The majority of the demonstrators wore national colors and the earlier clashes took place on main and side streets leading to Wenceslas square in the heart of the city.

Three clashes occurred at Wenceslas square, which was an especial mecca for the Czechs from early morning because a statute of the city's patron saint, Wenceslas, is located there. It had been roped off early in the morning as part of the ban on public demonstrations.

A group of youths, wearing so-called Masaryk caps (named after Thomas G. Masaryk, co-founder of the republic) to indicate their sympathies, attempted to enter the blocked off square at about noon but were driven back.

As the incident developed, communists began shouting "Long live Stalin," but their shouts soon were drowned out by cries of "Long live the republic."

In midafternoon crowds again broke through the police cord. Before Hotel Sroubek, located on Wenceslas square, German SA men (brownshirts) attempted to rip off patriotic insignia worn by the demonstrators.

The Czechs fought back and the German police were reinforced by Czech state police. One Czech policeman was among those arrested.

The third fight developed late in the afternoon and more arrests were made by German authorities assisted by policing patrols of the National Aryan front and by mounted police.

Sees Third Term

Secretary of Agriculture Henry Wallace on a Pacific coast tour said in San Francisco today he saw Roosevelt as 1940 democratic presidential nominee and a Roosevelt third term.

Said he: "Outbreak of war has made it clear that the president's talents and training are necessary to steer to safety this nation's domestic and foreign relations."

bergen Czechs called out "We want liberty" and "Long live the Czechoslovakian republic, away with the Germans."

Quiet observances of the day were held in other cities of the Bohemia-Moravian protectorate despite the German ban.

(The Czech provinces of Bohemia and Moravia passed under German rule last March following the Munich pact of Sept. 19, 1938, which began the partition of the republic.)

Stayton's Packers Beat Hubbard 25-7

Game Gives Aumsville Championship of B League

STAYTON—The Stayton Bean Packers trounced Hubbard 25-7 at Stayton Friday to give the championship of the Marion county B league to Aumsville and go into second place tie with the Hubbard Rockets, who had been undefeated before today. The Rockets had only a 7-7 tie with Aumsville to mar their record.

Stayton jumped into a seven-point lead in the first quarter, never to be headed, scoring one more in the second, two in the third, and one in the fourth. Hubbard came back in the second to score their only touchdown of the day. They failed to make any consistent gains.

Jordan, Stayton halfback, returned Hubbard's punt 90 yards for a touchdown only to have it called back to the Hubbard 40 on a clipping penalty.

Haworth, Stayton center, took a down field lateral to score a touchdown on a brilliant 40-yard run. The entire Stayton team turned in a brilliant game, both on offense and defense.
