

Parties Given At Buena Vista

Woman's Club Discusses Modern Magazines; Union Meets

BUENA VISTA—Mrs. Louis Price gave a Halloween party at her home for the school children of the first room. The older children held their party in the school gymnasium sponsored by Mr. Price.

The Woman's club met Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. N. C. Anderson and Mrs. Earl Arley as hostesses. Mrs. George Webster led in a discussion of modern magazines.

Farmers Union met Friday night. The men served oyster soup. The E. H. Busby family were Wednesday night dinner guests at E. D. Long's.

Is Weekend Guest
Mary Mitchell of Independence was a weekend guest of Lena Coble.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Prather and children were Monday night dinner guests at Cecil Hultman's. The Welby Gray family returned Wednesday from a trip to eastern Oregon.

The Sheep club met Thursday night at Perry Wells. Mrs. Alice Pean of Bufo, Mont., visited Sunday with her brother, C. E. Miller. She sails November 3, from San Francisco enroute to Honolulu where she will visit her daughter.

Mrs. Leland Prather and Mrs. Jon Graber entertained the members of the Friendship class at a Halloween party Tuesday night at the Graber home. Funds were raised by the class to purchase rubber treads for the sturveys at the church.

Grows Big Sunflower

BRUSH CREEK—A. Donnelly has been successful in sunflower growing this season if size of bloom is any indication. Donnelly produced one that measured 15 1/2 inches in diameter.

'We're Glad!' Ruth Judd Kin Say as Killer Is Nabbed

"We're glad she's been captured," were the sentiments of Ruth Judd's family in Phoenix after the half starved fugitive from the Arizona State Hospital was captured to rob a home near the asylum for food. Dr. W. C. Judd, husband of the murderess, is pictured comforting her aged and dying father, Dr. Harvey McKinnell, while Ruth's mother looks on. The captured woman was given medical attention at the hospital, was not questioned.

Silverton Union To Give Program

SILVERTON—The Industrial Employees union is sponsoring a "Song and Dance" program Saturday night at the local armory. The program will start at 8 o'clock and will be followed by dancing.

Among the numbers will be a short concert by the O. K. Cole band, selections by the Little German band and the string quartet from the high school under the direction of F. L. Ellefson; tap dancing by Juanita Wickert; saxophone solo by Ruth Hassenstab;

Silverton Youth's Funeral Is Held

SILVERTON—Visitors from far and near attended the funeral services Friday afternoon at the Elman Memorial chapel for young George Steelhammer, 16, only child of Mr. and Mrs. George Steelhammer.

Dr. Sidney Hall, former pastor of Silverton's Methodist church, delivered the talk. Pall bearers were close friends of the family and included George Hubbs, Norris Ames, Wendell Heath, Nelson Adams, Dr. C. R. Wilson and Rhonda Cooley.

Suver Community Meeting Planned

SUVER—A program of plays, readings, and music is being prepared for the Community meeting Friday night, November 10, at which time a pie sale will be held for the benefit of the club.

Mrs. C. D. Ritchey and Mrs. Lloyd Goodman will entertain the Ivy club at the home of the former in Independence Wednesday, November 8, for an all day meeting. Dinner covered dinner at noon. The club quilt will be worked on.

Mrs. Lester Mason Dies at Mill City

MILL CITY—Funeral services were held at the Presbyterian church Wednesday at 2 p.m. for Mrs. Lester Mason, who passed away Monday night. Mrs. Mason was taken ill when on the street and carried home. She lived about two hours.

Mrs. Mason, formerly Laura Farrington, was born in Columbia Falls, Montana, in 1898, coming to Mill City in 1920, where she taught in the grade school for four years. In 1925 she was married to Lester Mason, who survives. Her two daughters, Trudy and Marie, a father and mother in Montana, an aunt, Mrs. Van Loan of Monmouth, all survive.

West Stayton Has Halloween Franksters

WEST STATON—Halloween night passed very quietly here with a few windows receiving a coat of soap. More pranks were played on Monday night. The most serious was the taking of Oscar Stahl's car from his garage across the road from his home and letting the air out of all the tires, then throwing the caps away.

New House Will Be Shown at Silverton

SILVERTON—Open house will be held at the new six-room colonial house recently completed by Guy DeLay on Wesley street. Mr. DeLay has set the inspection house on Saturday from 5 to 9 p. m. and on Sunday from 2 to 7 p. m. Anyone interested is welcome to come, says DeLay.

Silverton to Have Clinic

SILVERTON—A baby and pre-school clinic will be held at the Eugene Field health center Tuesday with Mrs. E. W. Preston in charge. Mrs. H. W. Preston and Mrs. George Jaeschke are assisting Mrs. Ekman locally.

Farmers Union News

TALBOT—Members of the Sidney Talbot Farmer's union enjoyed a masquerade Halloween party this week. Games were enjoyed. A Halloween lunch was served.

ARBOR GROVE—Arbor Grove local of Farmers Union met at Donald last week. After a short business meeting president Lora called on two visitors from Gervais local, Mr. and Mrs. St. John. Both gave instructive talks concerning the business of Farmers' Union warehouse in Salem.

The public is to be invited to the next meeting, November 24, to hear a speaker on health.

Silverton Youth's Funeral Is Held

SILVERTON—Visitors from far and near attended the funeral services Friday afternoon at the Elman Memorial chapel for young George Steelhammer, 16, only child of Mr. and Mrs. George Steelhammer.

Dr. Sidney Hall, former pastor of Silverton's Methodist church, delivered the talk. Pall bearers were close friends of the family and included George Hubbs, Norris Ames, Wendell Heath, Nelson Adams, Dr. C. R. Wilson and Rhonda Cooley.

Altruistic Club Meets at Dallas

DALLAS—Members of the Altruistic club were entertained at the home of Mrs. E. A. Wagner Wednesday night with Mrs. Miriam Murray as assistant hostess.

Several tables of "500" were in play with prizes presented to Mrs. Mary Starr and Mrs. L. H. Rowell and a guest prize to Mrs. Elwyn Craven.

Valley Churches

AUMSVILLE—Sunday will be rally day at the Aumsville Church of Christ. Rev. E. J. Gilstrap will give a travelogue of his four weeks trip in the case. A basket dinner will be served at noon.

UNION HILL—Rev. Trailer of the Christian church in Stayton will hold church services at the Union Hill grange hall. Sunday school will be at 1:30 o'clock.

Grangers News

UNION HILL—Mrs. Byron McElhaneey will entertain the members of the Union Hill Grange Home Economics club at her home on Wednesday, November 8. Roll call will be "What Are You Thankful for." Program committee head is Mrs. Verna Scott.

Hollywood

The 8 McQuateers in "The Night Riders" and Chester Morris in "Blind Alley" are featured in the Hollywood section.

Farmers Union News

TALBOT—Members of the Sidney Talbot Farmer's union enjoyed a masquerade Halloween party this week. Games were enjoyed. A Halloween lunch was served.

DANCE

Every Saturday Nite 2 Miles North of Independence with TOMMIE SCRINE A 10-Piece Sweet-Swing Band Admission 25c at KENTI

Boosters Club To Raise Fund

Will Give Series of Card Parties at Jefferson; Pep Meeting Planned

JEFFERSON—The Jefferson Community Boosters club met Tuesday night in the club room, with W. L. Cobb presiding. Plans were discussed for the series of card parties to be given by the club for the benefit of the Christmas fund. Hal Wiley was appointed chairman of a committee to make arrangements for a pep meeting at the next regular meeting of the club. Jack Tyson spoke of the possibilities of shipping a great many tons of vegetables from here next year, and what has been done in that line this summer and fall.

Arthur Lake arrived this week from Berkeley, Calif., for an extended stay with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. William Lake.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bailey entertained with a Halloween party Tuesday night for members of the school faculty. Present were Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Nelson, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Henningsen, Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Looney, Mrs. Emma Whedbee, Miss Josephine Getchell, E. A. Jensen and Mr. and Mrs. Bailey.

Will Have Sale
The Methodist Ladies' Aid society are sponsoring a cooked food sale Saturday afternoon, beginning at 1 o'clock, in the Mason building.

Mr. and Mrs. Gottlieb Weiss, Fred Weiss and Ben Jacob of Tillamook were guests Monday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Pierce Jacob and Mrs. S. M. Green. They were en route home from a trip to San Diego, Calif., and the Golden Gate exposition.

The Marion County chapter of Red Cross is sponsoring a one o'clock luncheon in the domestic science room of the school building, Monday, November 6. Representatives from the various organizations in the community will attend, and Judge Rossmann of Salem, will speak. The meeting is to promote community interest in the annual roll call of the Red Cross.

The Jefferson library board announces that beginning with November 1, the library will be open three days a week instead of two as before. Library days will be Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday afternoons. Miss Addie Libby is librarian.

Funeral services for Mrs. K. Gray will be held at the I.O.O.F. cemetery, Mrs. Gray was born October 2, 1855 in Ohio.

Stayton Stores Agree to Close Armistice Day

STAYTON—The Stayton post of the American Legion has distinguished itself by its success in promoting the nation-wide campaign for the advancement of American patriotism in peace. The local post is receiving one hundred per cent cooperation of the merchants in the suspension of all business activities on Armistice day.

The immediate undertaking in the Legion's movement is to secure universal observance of patriotic days throughout the calendar year.

A number of the stores in Stayton have agreed to remain open one extra hour on Friday evening to avoid inconvenience to many of their patrons.

Funeral Is Today For Mrs. K. Gray

LEBANON—Mrs. Kazia Roberts Gray, 84, died Wednesday night at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Claud Smith near Soda-ville. Funeral services will be Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Harry C. Howe funeral home, with Rev. George Simons officiating. Interment will be at the I.O.O.F. cemetery. Mrs. Gray was born October 2, 1855 in Ohio.

Buy Store at Salem

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rahn have purchased a neighborhood grocery on South Winter street at Salem. At present they are driving back and forth to their new place of business. Rahn has been employed in local grocery stores for a number of years.

INDEPENDENCE—At the First Baptist church new Sunday school classes are starting Sunday morning with Jack Green as superintendent. The pastor will speak on "God's Fellow-Workers" at the morning worship service at 11 a.m. Young people's meeting is at 6:30. Midweek activities include prayer and Bible study Wednesday at 7:30 p.m. and ladies' missionary society Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Harriet Busby, choir meeting Thursday night.

Epworth League members from the First Methodist church will attend the Methodist Youth Council at the Jason Lee church at Salem at 4 o'clock. Sunday school will be at 10 o'clock, morning worship at 11 and evening service at 7 p.m.

INDEPENDENCE—Sunday is missionary day at the Calvary Presbyterian church at Independence. Rev. W. N. Wysham, western representative of the board of foreign missions of the Presbyterian church, will preach. Special music will be furnished by the choir. The service will begin at 11 a.m., following Sunday school at 10 o'clock.

The informal service held each Sunday night at 7:30 will have in charge Dr. George C. Knott, who will present a travelogue on beauty spots in the west. The talk will be illustrated by movies. Question box topics are: How was the presence of the Holy Spirit manifested in the early church? And How Does the Holy Spirit work today? Christian Endeavor meets at 8:45 with Marjorie Travis as leader for a discussion on "Must We Have War?"

Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock a missionary conference will be held, with Dr. W. N. Wysham conducting the conference. Junior Christian Endeavor meets Wednesday afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. Swanson and Mrs. Mahon in charge. Needlecraft meets Thursday afternoon at the home of Mrs. Calhoun with Mrs. John Hiltbrand assisting.

SILVERTON—The upper Wil-jamette Sunday School Teachers association will meet Sunday afternoon and evening at Trinity church. The afternoon session opens at 2:30. Monday night at 8 o'clock the Lutheran Sunday school Teachers' institute will be at Calvary

Fox Valley PTA Plans for Bazaar

FOX VALLEY—The Fox Valley Parent Teacher association ladies held a meeting at the school Wednesday. Plans were discussed for the benefit bazaar, which will be held early in December. Mrs. McRae, and Mrs. Anna Julian, will take care of the applications for things on which to sew.

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Bassett have their home nearly finished. The dwelling has been remodeled both inside, and out and is quite modern. The interior has been finished in plywood with the gumwood design which is very artistic, while the exterior of the building is shingled.

Mrs. Anna Keeton, mother of Mr. Ed Spa, arrived by Tuesday to visit her daughter and family.

Woodburn Rotary Hear Neutrality Talk by Hewitt

WOODBURN—Attorney Roy E. Hewitt of Salem was the speaker at the meeting of the Woodburn Rotary club Thursday noon. His subject was neutrality legislation and he presented his opinion that factors other than any alteration of present laws would ultimately determine whether or not the United States would be involved in the second world war.

Local guests were George C. Foster, Kenneth Smith and J. Sidney Johnson. The latter introduced a special guest, Carl Schultz, of the local high school stock judging team who recently gained national recognition in judging stock in Kansas City.

Rotarian guests from Silverton were Tom Anderson, Parry Ross and Harry Riches and from Salem, Dr. H. G. Miller.

President Willeford announced the charter presentation meeting of the newly formed Sheridan club next Thursday, November 9.

Call Board

STATE
Today—"Rose Marie" with Jeanette MacDonald and Nelson Eddy, "Women in the Wind" with Kay Francis, William Gargan, Victor Jory and Maxie Rosenbloom.

HOLLYWOOD
Today—"The Night Riders" with the Three Mesquiteres, "Blind Alley" with Chester Morris, Ralph Bellamy and Ann Dvorak.

CAPITOL
Today—"Kid Nightmare" with John Payne and Jane Wyman, "Legion of Lost Flyers" with Richard Arlen and Andy Devine.

GRAND
Today—"Pack Up Your Troubles" with Jane Withers and the Ritz Brothers.

ELSINORE
Today—"Jamaica Inn" with Charles Laughton. Short subjects.

Gardeners Plan Show, Oak Grove

OAK GROVE—The Oak Grove Gardeners club will meet at the home of Mrs. Warren Allen Monday, November 6, at 2 p. m. The annual chrysanthemum show of the gardeners will be held Thursday at the Grange hall. All exhibits must be in by 2 p. m.

Miss Alice Riggs, Mrs. Webb Lewis and Mrs. Justin Rowland were hostesses to the Oak Grove aid at the home of Miss Riggs in Salem, Thursday afternoon.

"Goodbye MR. CHIPS"

DONAT GARSON

2ND BIG HIT!

WOLF CALL!

MIDNITE SHOW TONITE

LAST DAY

Jeanette MacDonald, Nelson Eddy, "ROSE MARIE" and Kay Francis "WOMEN in the WIND"

WARNER'S EL SINORE SALEM'S LEADING THEATRE
LAST TIMES TODAY CHARLES LAUGHTON "JAMAICA INN"
STARTS SUNDAY
NO TIME FOR MARRIAGE... FIFTH AVENUE GIRL
WALTER CONNOLLY, VERREE TEASDALE, JAMES ELLISON, TIM HOLT
COMPANION FEATURE "IT'S GOT THE HEART-THROBS OF 'BOYS TOWN'"

WARNER'S CAPITOL
STARTS TODAY
PILOTS OF PERIL!
Richard ARLEN, Andy DEVINE
LEGION OF LOST FLYERS
NAGEL - William LUNDIGAN, Green Big Boy WILLIAMS, One MUNSON

Kid Nightingale
JOHN PAYNE, JANE WYMAN
ADDED ATTRACTION Grantland Rice Sportlight - "Good Skates" Latest World News Flash

GRANGERS News
UNION HILL—Mrs. Byron McElhaneey will entertain the members of the Union Hill Grange Home Economics club at her home on Wednesday, November 8. Roll call will be "What Are You Thankful for." Program committee head is Mrs. Verna Scott.

HOLLYWOOD
The 8 McQuateers in "The Night Riders" and Chester Morris in "Blind Alley" are featured in the Hollywood section.

WANTED! by adding the "Radio" GOOD GIRLS go to PARIS
MELVYN DUNGLAS - JOAN BLONDELL
And Second Feature Will be the star of "Waikiki Nights" OLIVIER
Clouds Over Europe Also News and Musical

THE MOST TIMELY AND AUTHENTIC DRAMA OF SUBMARINE WARFARE AND INTERNATIONAL ESPIONAGE EVER MADE!
FILMED WHILE HEADLINES AND RADIOS TELL ONLY HALF THE STORY!
The Jones Family TOO BUSY TO WORK with JOAN DAVIS
GRAND