Homecoming and Rally Day Booked

First Evangelical Church Will Celebrate With Four Ministers

Homecoming and rally day at the First Evangelical church will be celebrated Sunday with former ministers speaking at the three services of the day.

Rev. A. F. Lanyon, who was minister during the erection of the present edifice, will be heard at the 11 o'clock worship service. The choir will sing "The Presence of the Lord," von Berge, and Mrs. D. B. Kleihege, organist, will use "All Souls Day," Schubert, as a prelude, and an adaptation of the hymn, "We Thank Thee, Lord," Quale, as offertory.

A fellowship dinner will be served in the dining room of the church at 12:30.

A musical program at 3 o'clock in the afternoon will open with "The Bells of Aberdore," Stewart, as prelude, Oscar Carlson, director of the choir, has arranged a program of special numbers which will include "My Home, Sweet Home," Vandall, sung as a tenor solo by Rev. J. E. Campbell, and the choir, and them, "He Was Displeas'd," Hoemmer.

The message of the afternoon will be
