Fair today and saturday with valley fogs; no change in temperature. Max. temp. Thursday 59, min, 44. River

EIGHTY-NINTH YEAR

Salem, Oregon, Friday Morning, December 1, 1939

Price 3c; Newsstands 5c

No. 214

Governme It of Finland Resigns Under Fire

10:45 a. m .- Willamette university—Talked to Dean Erickson here and admitted we had never read much of Robinson Jeffers' poetry. He aits on rocks at Carmel, Calif., and doesn't mind the seaguils. At Willamette or somewhere we of the smart aleck students who in answering a test ques- Paul H. Hauser, jr. tion wrote merely, "See Smith's paper for correct answer." When the papers came back they bore no grade but the note Smith's paper for grade." Smith's grade: C minus.

11:00 a. m.-Capitol press room where we learned the Finns had finally pressed the Russians too far. This reminded us for some reason of the Finnish person who was up before a naturalization court down Astoria way. When the examiner asked him what flag meant the most to him he replied, "Ay tank dot red flag, yedge." Flabbergasted, the judge demanded an explanation. "Well, yedge," said the Finn, "ay drive model tay ford and ay go like -Sometimes twenny, twenny-fi miles hour. Ay vas going along like sonofagun when ay see red flag. Py yimminy, yedge, if it weren't for dot red flag ay youldn't be here today. Da bridge she's out. Dot's vy ay tank dot red flag is best."

11:30 a. m .- Still in the press room where D. Applegate is showing tricks with pennies and putting off writing a story. He informs us three Salem restaurants are serving full Thanksgiving dinners this day. Nice to know.

12:15 p. m .- Gone to lunch,

1 p. m .- Statesman printery where we find all busy and rushing, so we leave.

2 p. m .- East on State street where we pause in our mad flight to inspect the new fire station in that neighborhood. It's a mighty pretty little igloo for a fire stathere was no furniture in the living quarters so we guess Buck Hutton was right when he said the firemen would be in by Christmas, maybe. Memo to ourself: Slide down brass pole in fire sta-

3 p. m. Bluebird where we find Pauline Corning, the flying waitress. She is going to open her restaurant at the airport soon, she says. Mike Balkovic says he'll help fill air pockets, Snix (Miss Corning, to you) says there'll be a big celebration when the airport is officially opened under new score going into the last period, management, Nobody knows for the Uclans' two dusky halfback sure yet whether that'll be under stars, Kenny Washington and lease or as a city operated setup.

the police department has been all done over. And the question of the hour is solved. Don Nicholson an offense and stormed to the will ride the city's tricycle. Now 26. Here Washington passed to all the chief has to do is to find Robinson, who caught it on the

Candidacies Not

SPOKANE, Wash., Nov. 30-(P)
-Walter L. Tooze of Portland, chairman of the republican regional conference to be held here Saturday and Sunday, said tonight there would "not be any discussion of candidacies" at the fivestate party meeting. "And that goes for any candi-date, state or national," Tooze

"The meeting will have just two purposes: gates from the northwest states, and, second, to work out a plan or organization to make this co-pperation effective."

Sheriff Retakes Man After Break

T. Anderson, 27, who escaped from the Gilliam county jail last night, was captured today by Sheriff Frank Bennett. He was found asleep in a railroad box to three years in the state peni-tentiary for larceny, sawed his turned in the afternoon and way out of jail. His escape was discovered when the sheriff went to the jail to take him to Sa-

In One Ear. FDR Begs for -Paul Hauser's Column Innocent Lives In New Clash

President Asks Finns, Soviets to Refrain From Barbarism

Note Asking Immediate Reply Is Sent to Both Nations

WASHINGTON, Dec. 1-(Friday)-(P)-A telephone conver-sation between Washington and Helsinki, capital of Finland, shortly after 2 a. m. (EST) today was reported interrupted by air raid warnings and the noise of bursting bombs, No further details were obtainable.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30-(AP)-President Roosevelt called on Russia and Finland to pledge that they would not resort to inhuman barbarism of bombing civilian populations from the air. president's message, delivered by American diplomatic representatives in Moscow and Helsinki, came after reports of a Russian air bombardment of Helsinki. It was almost identical with messages dispatched recently to Germany, Great Britain and

The president said: "The ruthless bombing from the air of civilians in unfortified centers of population during the course of hostilities which have raged in various quarters of the earth during the past few years -which has resulted in the maiming and in the death of thousands of defenseless men, women and children-has sickened the hearts of every civilized and has pro foundly shocked the conscience of

Lives of Innocent Persons Would Be Sacrificed "If resort is had to this form of inhuman barbarism during the period of the tragic conflagration with which the world is now con (Turn to page 3, col. 1)

Late Bruin Spurt Defeats Cougars

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 30 .- (AP)-Rolling over three touchdowns in the final quarter, the Bruins of the University of California at Los Angeles subdued Washington State in a hard fought Pacific Coast conference grid encounter tonight, 24 to 7.

Held on the short end of a 7-6 score going into the last period. Jackie Robinson, turned the game into a rout with a brilliant exhi-

Late in the third quarter the Bruins finally gathered together 15 and out-danced Cougar safety men to score standing up. The tally broke the Cougar spirit. Robinson set it boiling with a 34 yard touchdown sprint. Topic at Parley the field and Strode was signalled On the kickoff fists blew to the bench and UCLA was penalized half the distance to the goal. A Cougar fumble, a few rushes by Washington and a 32yard run by Robinson again set the stage for a score. The two first-string backs were taken out of the game with the ball deep Washington State territory, but the seubstitutes carried on for the final touchdown, Charlie Fenenbock passing to Jim Mitchell, end, for a score.

Leslie Student Gets Burns In 'Soup' Incident

Bob Stacey, route three, will steer clear of girls carrying soup bowls. Stacey, a student at Leslie junior high school, bumped in-to a girl leaving the school cafeteria with a bowl of soup yesterday noon and received second degree burns when the soup spilled over his chest and He was given treatment by Captain Charles Charlton of the Salem first aid crew.

1940 Salem Taxes To Set New High

Millage Expected to Pass 61; City Levy and School Tax Up

Salem will pay a record high property tax levy next year, millage figures announced by County Assessor R. "Tad" Shelton indicated yesterday. Fixed at 60.8 mills for the current year, the city levy will rise above 61, probably to 61.5 mills for 1940, on a $15,1779542 valuation, it

City, school, county and state levies all have been increased fractionally despite gains in assessed valuation of $148,040 within the city proper and $214,425 in the Salem school district. The city government levy will be 21.3 mills in 1940 as against 20.9 this year and the school district levy 24.4 as against 24.1. County and state millages will show smaller increases, Levies and valuations of five other local taxing units were listed by Shelton as follows: Stayton, valuation $356,805, miliage 14.4, down .2 mill. valuation $479,848, millage 21, land.

Woodburn, valuation $712,993, nillage 15.9, up .6 mill. Woodburn school district No.

03, valuation $880,096, millage 8.1, up ,8 mill, Marion county non-high school district, valuation $16,219,364, millage 6.6, up .4 mill.

2 Women Drown Selves in River

Mrs. Gertrude Macklin, 1704 Broadway, committed suicide yesterday by drowning herself in the Willamette river, Coroner L. E. Barrick reported.

Despondent for some time, Mrs. Macklin was found missing by her husband, J. E. Macklin, about 9:15 o'clock yesterday morning. Mr. Macklin, fearing that his wife might have contemplated ending her life, asked police to aid in finding her.

The body was found floating in the river at the foot of River street about 2:30 o'clock. Mrs. Macklin is survived by the widower and a son, George E. Macklin of Hood River.

INDEPENDENCE-Mrs. Ralph E. Duganne, about 45, drowned herself in the Willamette river near Independence about 11 a. m. Thursday morning. She was reported to have been in ill health for some time.

A collie dog, which accompanied Mrs. Duganne when she left home shortly after 6 o'clock yesterday morning, twice dragged her from the water, but she returned a third time. A boat sent from the Independence ferry was unable to reach the woman in time to save her. She is survived by the widower and her parents in Canada.

"First, to focus attention upon the desirability of cooperation among national convention dele-Testimony of Youth Leader

WASHINGTON, Nov. 30 .- (AP)-Mrs. Franklin D. Roosevelt blithely demonstrated her continued faith in the American Youth Congress today by dropping in twice CONDON, Nov. 30-(A)-Bruce at the Dies committee hearing to listen to youth leaders testifyand taking the girls to lunch at the White House during the noon

When the committee failed to call William Hinckley, former congress chairman, at its mornstayed until the congress leaders were called although it means missing a 4:30 o'clock appoint-ment. Several months ago Ken-lamb, passed up an invitation to sit at the committee table on her, first visit in order to take a front row seat among the youth congress leaders. When Hinckley took the stand, outfit trimmed in black Persian the first lady moved from her front row place by Frances Williams, congress administrative secretary, to the end of the committee table, where she could bet-ter see and hear the blond, 29year-old former congress chair-

There she heard Hinckley read statement in which the youth congress charged the Dies committee with misusing congressional power, conducting "un-

Dropping Exports

Mar Trade Scene

Mar Trade Scene

PORTLAND, Nov. 30—(P)—
Dropping foreign exports alone marred the picture of booming

Scandinavian Trio Shocked By Red Thrust

Foreboding Increases as USSR Forces Raid Border

Feeling Strong Among Citizens as new Danger Looms

COPENHAGEN, Dec. 1-(P)-Just before breaking off the telephone communication between Helsinski and Copenhagen at 8 a.m. (2 a.m., EST.) to1 day, the operator said, "New air raid."

(A similar reason was given for the disruption of telephone service between Helsinki and Stockholm.)

By WADE WERNER COPENHAGEN, Nov. 30 .- (AP)-Sweden, Norway and Denmark into Finland. officially maintained an attitude of neutrality tonight as they watched with foreboding soviet Russia's vast war machine bring death and destruction to Finland.

All three countries were profoundly shocked by the invasion of Finland, but diplomats pointed out the Stockholm meeting of the Scandinavian soveerigns and Finnish president October 19 agreed on moral and economic collaboration but not military aid.

Anti-soviet Russian feeling ran high in Oslo, Norway's capital, where an angry crowd tonight smashed all the windows of the communist newspaper Abeideren which had supported editorially Stayton school district No. 77, soviet Russian moves against l

> Oslo Group Curbed by Economic Agreement

A Belgian government spokes man in Brussels said the Oslo unit of seven north European nations could take no action in the Russian-Finnish conflict because the group was formed for economic purposes only.

(The Oslo group includes Finland, Belgium, Sweden, Norway, Denmark, The Netherlands and Luxembourg.)

The Scandinavian governments earnestly checked the dryness of their powder-but carefully avoided any official comment. Feelings of the general public, however, were plain.

Men and women crowded about Swedish newspaper offices exressing grief and indignation at he Russian invasion. Women cried when they read that Helsinki had been bombed. Students Express Sympathy At Finnish Legation Typical of the outbursts of feeling was that of an unidentified Swede who jumped up during a luncheon and shouted: "It's horrible. All Europe will be drawn in before this is over." In Oslo, students marched to the Finnish legation to express their sympathy. Government officials conferred in Stockholm, Oslo and Copen-

A foreign office spokesman in Sweden said his country was in a state of preparedness and no new measures were needed. Many Danes felt the invasion was a personal blow because Finland was a neighbor and new dangers seemed looming for the Baltic neutrals.

(Unconfirmed rumors circulated in Oslo that soviet Russia had demanded three naval bases on Norway's Arctic coast. The Norwegian coast on the Arctic ocean is separated from Russia only by Finland's narrow corridor northern waters.)

Collections Started for Finnish War Refugees Adding to Norway's fears was the extension of Russian aerial warfare along Finland's short Arctic coast to the Norwegian border.

Fund collections started in many areas for Finland's war refugees. Unless their governments prevent it, many Danes, Norwegians and Swedes are expected to go to Finland as volunteers. In Stockholm it. was thought possible a Swedish statement might be forthcoming tomorrow when the foreign affairs committee meets.

Sprague to Open New High School

A. Sprague will speak at Silverton's new high school dedication Wednesday night of next week, his first address here since he became governor. The dedication is under the auspices of the Silverton Parent-Teacher association of which Mrs. J. J. Lewis is marred the picture of booming business in Portland this month.

Building permits, worth $1,725,390, were issued for 405 jobs, including 104 residences to cost $455,475, a record month in a smart green woolen $1339.

Men, congress executive secretary, by liberal and labor organizations who charged labor organization

Resumption of Peace Moves Expected of Next Ministry

Army Advances On Finn Soil

Official Soviet Radio Withholds Fact of War From Public

"Armed Provocations" Held Reason for USSR's Drive

MOSCOW, Nov. 30 (Friday)-(AP) The Soviet government announced early today that its red army le-gions had advanced 10 to 15 kilometers (6% to about 10 miles)

The announcement, distributed by Tass, official news agency, declared that Russia had hurled her military might against the neighboring republic only after "new provocations" by Finnish As a result of these reported border violations, the announcement said Russian forces crossed the frontier at 8 a.m. yesterday (midnight, EST, Wednesday) on the Karelian isthmus and a number of other points.

The statement was issued following a midnight broadcast which gave the Russian public the first official news of the in-The broadcast said merely that red troops had invaded Finland. Russian Public (A broadcast from the Moscow station picked up in Copenhagen and London said Russia had given Finland until 3 a.m. today (5 p.m. PST Thursday) to capitulate or Helsinki would be destroyed). Until then, despite alarming general public was kept completely in the dark on what was hap-

The official announcement declared that despite unfavorable weather Soviet airplanes made reconnoitering flights and dropped bombs on the airdromes at Helsinki and Viipuri (Viborg). Reciting the alleged action of Finnish troops before the invasion, it said that at 2 p.m. yesterday (6 p.m. EST Wednesday) (Turn to page 2, col. 1)

Building Permits High for Month

Total of $62,264 Recorded in Salem for Heavy Gain Over '38

Building for last month exceeded building for a year ago by $23,299, according to the monthly report of the city building inpection department which shows 96 permits issued last month for total valuation of $62,264 as against 66 permits in November, 1938, with a total valuation of Residential building slumpe off from October's high mark of 29 to 11 permits with a valua tion of $30,410. November, 1938, produced 10 permits for $30,050 valuation.

There were 14 permits last month for new non-residential construction totalling $22,341 and including one theatre at $10,100 and a conveyor unit for the state

Astoria's Finns Begin Collection Willamette valley tonight open ranging the program, which in-

ASTORIA, Ore., Nov. 30-(AP)-The Finnish population of this fishing center at the mouth of the Columbia river began today to campaign for funds for civilian relief in Finland. It was estimated that a third of the city's 10,000 population is Nearly all the families have relatives in Finland, many of them in Hesinski, which was bombed today by Russian planes. Police Seek Pair

In Bank Robbery

Russia Claims Russian Birds of War Pounce Along 800-Mile Finnish Line

Hot spots of Russian war planes' sudden invasion of little Finland Bombers swooped down yesterday on Petsame and other Finnish towns on the Rybachi peninsula (1) above the Arctic circle at northern tip of 800-mile border, on Vilpuri (3) at the southern tip, on the capital, Helsinki, and Hango (5). The Russian fleet was reported attacking from the Gulf of Finland (6), Asland

Warfare in North Spreads to Norway

rumors in foreign circles, the Planes Bomb Finnish Cities; Machine Gunners Attack Bus, Motor Cars; Red Navy Blocks Ports as new Conflict Intensified > KIRKENES, Far Northern Norway, Nov. 30-(AP)-The Russian air force today carried its invasion of Finland to the Norwegian border above the Arctic circle.

> The soviet planes, fighting at the extreme northern end of the 800-mile Finnish-soviet frontier, repeatedly bombed the Finnish towns of Petsamo, Liinahamari and Parkina. They machine - gunned motor Ocars and busses on the main high-#### which lies between Norway and Petsamo and Liinahamari, leadng towns of the corridor, were partially razed. They lie 200 miles above the Arctic circle and about

65 miles west of the soviet port of Murmansk. Parkina, the third town bombed, is on the mouth of the Yaranger fjord and is adjacent to the Norwegian border. The Russian attack reached the Norwegian border also in the bomb and machine gun slaughts on the main finished road running north to Petsamo. This road runs along the frontier at several points.

The machine-gun attacks were made on an omnibus running mail between Petsamo and Enare, on another bus near Nautsi, almost on the Norwegian border, on three automobiles with passengers near Petsamo, and on several taxicabs further south on the #### way of Finland's 20-mile wide corridor to the Arctic ocean, Britain Scores Soviet Invasion

The red navy blockaded the (Turn to page 3, col. 1)

Empire Too Busy in Own War, However, to Take Part in new Crisis

By ROBERT BUNNELLE LONDON, Nov. 30 .- (AP)-Parlia ment resounded today with condemnations of Soviet Russia's intions were that Britain, preoccu pled with her own war against Germany, could do nothing to help the little Baltic republic.

Prime Minister Chamberlain told a sympathetic house of commons that the government regarded as unjustified "this fresh attack on a small, independent nation which must result in fresh suffering and loss." Authoritative sources said, how ever, that Britain had no obligation to help Finland, and that

(Turn to page 3, col. 5)

Permits for repairs totaled 70 with a valuation of $8713. Older Boys' Conference to Hold First Sessions Today

Two hundred fifty boys of the | year assumed responsibility of arprinicpal speakers.

Founded in Salem by Claude

A. Kells, general secretary of the local YMCA, the meet draws delegates from Polk, Yamhill and Marion counties, as well as an ever-increasing number from districts both to the north and south. A meeting of some of the delegates some weeks ago determined the theme, "Whither America," and chose their speakers, who will include Dean U. G. Dubach of OSC, Dr. Donald M. Erb, president of U of O, and Dr. Bruce R. Baxter, president of Willamette university.

All boys attending the conclave will see the Salem-Corvallis high school football game Friday night as guests of Salem high.

Forums led by Dean Dubach and Dr. Erb will feature Saturday is sessions. Officers for 1946 will be elected Saturday night following a supper in the high school cafeteria.

Housing for delegates has been arranged by the Hi-Y Mothers club and includes a bed Friday night and breakfast Saturday morning. On the committee, besides those assisting in the var-

STEVENSON, Wash., Nov. 30

-(P)—A heavy moon-faced robber and his companion were sought by police of two states tonight for the robbery of the Bank of president, and Roy Johnson of Stevenson this afternoon.

Baxter, president of Willamette morning. On the committee, be university.

Officers for the conference are lous churches, are Mrs. Arthur Bates, chairman, Mrs. D. C. Burton, the robbery of the Bank of president, and Roy Johnson of Stevenson this afternoon.

conference with a banquet at 5:30 of an area Hi-Y council. Presi-in the senior high school cafe-teria. Governor Charles A. Sprague and Gerald Mason of the Arthur Cotton; Ward Miles, Harstate parole board will be the rison Elliott; and Harold Hamm, Branch Rickey. All boys attending the conclave

Cabinet Quits Despite Votes Of Confidence

Reds Set Agreement Deadline for 5 P. M. Today

Resignation Seen Probable Move for Armistice

By LYNN HEINZERLING HELSINKI, Dec. 1 .- (Friday)-(AP)-The Finnish government, its capital bombed and aflame, with the Soviet Russian army swarm ing across its frontier, resigned early today despite a unanim vote of confidence in parliament The cabinet, which for weeks had negotiated vainly with Mos cow on Russia's territorial demands on the little republic stepped aside after a Moscov broadcast threatened annihilatie of Helsinki unless an agreement was reached by 3 a. m. today ( m. PST Thursday).

Although no announcement was made regarding a new govern-ment, it was believed a new cab-inet would be formed before to-

Mentioned as probable new premier was Vaino Tanner, finance minister in the old cabinet, who took part in the unsuccessful con-ferances in Moscow. Resignation Considered Move For Truce

(The resignation was seen in some circles as a move for an ar-mistice. Reports were received in Copenhagen that Tanner proba-bly would attempt to restore dip-lomatic relations with Moscow and would seek cessation of hos

The opinion prevailed in som diplomatic quarters that Russia might deal with a new Finnis sar Vyacheslaff Molotoff emphasized the resigned government's "attitude of irreconciliable hostility" yesterday in announcing severance of relations with Finland. The reason for the resignation government representatives of all Word of the government's resignation, which came less than 24 hours after the first Red troops crossed the border, was forwarded to Moscow by a representative of the American legation. It was expected the American embassy would communicate it to the government spokesman said, was a desire to bring into the Red Air Force, Troops Invade Corridor Before the cabinet resigned Russia's troops were marching nto Finland at points along the 800-mile frontier from the lathmus of Karelia, near Leningrad, to Finland's narrow corridor on the Arctic ocean, 200 miles above the Arctic circle.

The Russian air force bomber Helsinki, setting fire to building capital. Newspapers estimated the dead at between 100 and 200 per-(After the extraordinary a sion of parliament last night, the Finnish cabinet decided tentatively to move the seat of government to Nikolainkaapunki (Vassa), a western Finnish port on the Gulf vices received in Copenhagen.

(A Finnish defense ministr. broadcast heard in London sa Russian troops "were all repulsed this afternoon. There was lively artillery fire on the border and two Russian tanks were staff, and those of other foreign powers moved last night from Helsinki to Grankulla, a western suburb. The Red fleet steamed west-ward in the Gult of Finland and kari and began shelling Viipuri (Viborg), and other coastal cities Vilpuri, a city of 75,000 population, was, like Helsinki, set (Turn to page 3, col. 3)

