

Dallas Women Hear Speaker

Island Trip Is Described by Miss Arbuthnot; Toy Shower Given

DALLAS—Miss Katherine Arbuthnot of the Oregon College of Education at Monmouth was the guest speaker at the monthly meeting of the Dallas Women's club Tuesday afternoon. Miss Arbuthnot gave an interesting account of a recent trip to Hawaiian islands, the Samoan islands, New Zealand and Australia.

Especially interesting was the description of the country and the people of the Samoan islands group. In telling of Australia she stated that the city of Sydney has one of the most beautiful harbors in the world. She also told of the new capital of Australia at Canberra. Miss Arbuthnot had brought home many photographs and other interesting things purchased in the countries visited, which she used to illustrate her talk.

Other numbers on the program included a talk by Betty Smith from the high school telling of her experiences attending the national debate tournament at Los Angeles last summer; Christmas music presented by the junior high school girls' chorus under the direction of Raymond Van Dyke; two vocal solos, Delores Kewson; piano solo by Clark Robb; vocal solo and tap dance by Beverly Osuna with Marthian Jean Plummer at the piano. The program was announced by Mrs. Chauncey Gettman.

Proceeding the program Mrs. J. Paul Bollman, president of the club, presided at a business meeting. Mrs. W. C. Leth, chairman of the civic committee, reported that the series of bridge lessons sponsored by the club was most successful. Mrs. George Cooper, chairman of the annual Christmas seal sale, reported that the response to date had been excellent. Mrs. Bollman announced two new club members, Mrs. Martin Knittell and Mrs. Clarence Smith. A report was read from Mrs. Charles Blyen, chairman of the golden jubilee committee, giving plans for a party to be held in January in celebration of the golden jubilee year of the General Federation of Women's clubs.

Mrs. J. G. Van Orsdel, charter member of the local club, was named as the pioneer clubwoman in connection with this observance. It was announced that Miss Beryl Holt of Salem, state president of the American Association of University Women, would be the speaker at the January meeting which will be held on the second Tuesday of the month, January 9. The dinner meeting, which is sponsored each year by the club in cooperation with other local civic groups, will be held this year on Wednesday night, January 10. Earl Snell, secretary of state, has been secured as the speaker for this meeting. A special feature of the afternoon was a toy shower for the community Christmas tree with

Music Groups Plan Concerts

Lebanon Grade School to Exchange Programs With Others

LEBANON—The Queen Ann grade school instrumental music department is working on plans to exchange concerts with other grade school music organizations. The first concert is being arranged with the Junction City grade school.

The department at the Queen Ann school includes a band of about 40, a drum and bugle corps of about 75, a fife and drum corps of about 75, and an orchestra of about 30, including 13 violins. Members of one musical group are not permitted to be members of any other of the groups except the orchestra.

The exchange of concerts is expected to add stimulus to the work of the youthful musicians, who have been practicing the past week with enthusiasm. The drum and bugle corps and the fife and drum corps will march in the Santa Claus parade next Saturday afternoon, behind the high school band, which played alone for Santa last Saturday.

Gordon Tripp is director of all instrumental music in the Lebanon schools, and Mrs. Betty Cox is assistant director in the Queen Ann school.

The American Legion's Christmas party and dinner this year is to be bigger and better than last year's, when 125 pounds of turkey was served by the legionnaires to the auxiliary members. The legionnaires themselves will prepare and serve the dinner for the regular dinner meeting December 19. At this meeting the auxiliary members will be guests. Art Wilson is in charge of the dinner, which will be followed by separate meetings of the two groups, and a specially prepared program. Mrs. Luttitia Bohannon is building a new house on Maple street. The new Roy Weeks residence is rapidly nearing completion on Vine street. The new George Surey house on Rose street has been started, and is going up fast.

Rev. Clower Worse

SILVERTON—Rev. E. F. Clower, who has been confined to the Deaconess hospital at Salem for the past two years, was reported very ill this week. Rev. Clower, a retired Methodist minister, made his home at Silverton for many years. Mrs. Clower has continued to live here since her husband has been at the hospital.

Dallas Police To Get New Car

DALLAS—At a meeting of the Dallas city council here Monday night the purchase of a 1940 Ford coupe for use of the Dallas police department was authorized. The car now in use will be turned in toward the purchase of the new car.

The council approved the laying of new sidewalks on Main street between Mill and Court street in the business district of Dallas where replacements are necessary.

An ordinance was introduced for the first reading regulating the parking of trucks of certain length in certain parts of the business district in Dallas.

To Survey Sewage Plant

SILVERTON—Members of the senior class in civil engineering of Oregon State college will survey the recently installed sewage treatment plant at Silverton Saturday. The plant, the message

News Behind Today's News

(Continued from page 8) best be saved next year with Mr. R. at the head of the ticket. Even if he lost the election, he could in any event carry to victory the local democratic organizations in a great many areas.

Whether these trends will become a gale, or are becalmed, will depend (this is still the trust-worthy report being expounded) upon the war. If long range fighting continues, popular opinion may be diverted more and more from concentration on the dangers of the US becoming involved. If the war grows more serious, the back-draft around from the college states, is "directly in line with our study of sanitary engineering."

Fred Merryfield, professor of civil engineering, will direct the class.

the White House may become sweeping.

Other candidates are getting wound up as if ready to spring. A friend who dropped into Valde to see Vice President Garner within the week, quotes the VP as saying: "If I were shot in the leg today, the bullet would bounce off."

The friend conceded it might be true when Garner announced he had walked 12 miles that day on a hunt (deer, not delegates). The VP's experiments in hunting so far this season have proved, however, he says, that the deer has six ears, one under each hoof as well as the two in their accustomed places.

The McNutt camp seems to be using General Farley's postal system for its heaviest campaign efforts—not with the general's consent but upon payment of the usual 3 cents per ounce. A heavy mailing list has been built up in the manner which Louis Howe perfected for Roosevelt at the beginning of the '32 campaign.

But there is concrete evidence (don't ask what it is) that the Hoover aspirant and Mr. Roosevelt have not yet reached a mutual understanding of where they stand. Prevailing Washington impression still is that Mr. Roosevelt will not be for Mr. McNutt next June.

Mild opening of the Dewey campaign on the republican side was deceptive. The New Yorker has a wide inside organization and sound financial backing from within his organization. His plans are reported to have been worked out in minute detail with his brain trust and political associates for months in advance. Some republican authorities suggest, possibly facetiously, that he has already chosen one member of his future cabinet.

Dewey need not waste much time in the south looking for delegates, however. So far as Taft's friends have preceded him there. You can, for a major instance, count the Texas delegation for Taft even now.
