The master of West Salem grange, D. Kuhn; of Brush College, Lyle Thomas; of Rickreall, Joe Harland.

grange will be held December 15. A Christmas party will be enjoyed and supper served by the Younger Grangers association following the evening meeting.

The Home Economics club held its Pollyanna party Tuesday afternoon at the grange hall. At this time plans were discussed for the supper which the club will furnish following the installation. Members are asked to bring salads, sandwiches and cake.

At the Pollyanna party, the secret sister was revealed and gifts exchanged. Readings were given by Mrs. J. H. Maulding and Mary Ann Murray. Mrs. E. A. Beugli, chairman, has also arranged for pencil grams and singing of Christmas carols.

LIBERTY—A good crowd turned out for grange at the Red Hills grange hall Monday night. A covered-dish dinner was served and the meeting followed. The turkey dinner which was to have been held on December 15 was postponed till after the holiday season.

It was announced that the officers elected for next year will be installed at appropriate ceremonies at Chemawa grange December 19.

A program of Christmas music and a play was presented by Miss Fern Morgan, lecturer. The Rose-dale Farmer Union Juniors presented the play with Velleda Trick, Eva and Bud Tucker the actors and the other members the accompanying chorus.

K of C Degrees Will Be Given

Initiation Ceremonies Are Announced by State Deputy Bell

SUBLIMITY—State Deputy Edward J. Bell returned Monday from a week-end trip to eastern Oregon where he officiated in the exemplification of the degree of the Knights of Columbus on a large class of candidates for the Verberton and Baker councils. Upon his return he announced three large degrees of the order for the month of January. On January 14th a joint initiation of the Oregon City and Hillsboro councils will be exemplified at Pendleton and on Sunday, January 21, a joint degree for the Albany and Corvallis councils at Corvallis.

The anticipated class for the Sublimity Knights of Columbus which was scheduled for December has been postponed until January, due to lack of facilities for banquet and on account of the holiday season. Sixteen new applications have been filed to date for this coming class. This will be the second large degree for the local council for the fiscal year, which will end June 30, 1940. The Sublimity Knights are endeavoring to hit the "century club" mark during this fiscal year.

The regular monthly meeting of the Sublimity Knights of Columbus will be held at Sublimity Tuesday night, December 19, which will be the regular Christmas program under the direction of Lecturer Nick J. Fehlen. All members attending this meeting are asked to bring some gift of food or clothing, to be distributed by the Knights of Columbus in the locality to needy.

SUBLIMITY—Mr. and Mrs. Anton Neilling, former residents of this place now of Manson, Wash., are visiting relatives and friends here. They have returned from a trip to Toledo, Ohio. They expect to return to Washington by December 20.
