

Freezing May Be Cure for Cancer

Many Years Necessary for Complete Process to Be Developed ATLANTA, Ga., Dec. 13.—(AP)—Treatment of cancer by freezing may prove to be the opening wedge by which x-ray can effect the long-sought absolute cancer cure, Dr. Francis Carter Wood, New York cancer research expert, declared yesterday.

"The freezing process may provide a means of making certain cancerous growths that cannot now be treated by radiation susceptible to successful application of x-ray or radium," Dr. Wood, director of the Crocker Institute of Cancer Research, told the Radiological society of North America in an address prepared for its convention here.

Introduction of some chemical into a cancer or application of heat also may provide the "wedge" for a cure, Dr. Wood asserted. "This is the problem on which surgeons and radiologists must work together, as it certainly will take many years for its complete development."

Certain cancers cannot now be treated by radiation, Dr. Wood explained, because of an unknown quality which makes them so resistant that doses sufficient to destroy the growth will almost certainly kill the patient.
It is on this type of "hopeless" cancer that freezing has been used, with some degree of success in arresting growth, Dr. Wood said. In this procedure the pa-

Washington Sets Day for Finland

OLYMPIA, Dec. 13.—(AP)—To the end the citizens may join in "a great demonstration of moral and material support to the war-torn people of Finland," Governor Martin today designated Sunday, Dec. 17 as "Finland day."

His proclamation urged that "all citizens contribute without delay, through local newspapers, the Finnish relief fund."
The governor also asked mayors of Washington cities to issue similar proclamations.

Flat Tire First Of Mishap Series

GRANTS PASS, Dec. 13.—(AP)—A flat tire caused the fire that damaged Eugene F. Turner's automobile and destroyed his coat and a sack of flour.
Turner struck a match to learn if the tire was flat and ignited the leaking gasoline tank. He tossed the sack of flour on to the flames and tried to beat out the sparks with a jacket. Help hastened to the scene but by then the upholstery was in ruins.
