2 Salem Youths Enlist in Army

Two Salem young men enlisted in the army last week for foreign service and one for domestic service. Sergeant Sam Gimpelson, local army recruiter, announced yesterday.

Robert D. Runner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll D. Runner, route 4, will go to the coast artillery, Hawaii, and Sidney A. McKinney, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred E. McKinney, 1775 North Front street, will go in the engineers, Hawaii.

Howard D. Raynor, son of Mr. and Mrs. William H. Raynor, route 3, enlisted for the 10th field artillery, Fort Lewis, Wash.

Leo A. Boelens, 1076 Larmer avenue, has been selected by the army air corps for enlistment as a flying cadet of the class beginning December 30, according to word received here by Sergeant Gimpelson.

Upon enlistment he will be sent to the Alton Hancock College of Aeronautics, Santa Maria, Calif. After three months training there he will, if found suited as a military pilot, be admitted to Randolph Field, Texas.

Sergeant Gimpelson said that he had received word from Lieutenant Colonel H. D. Bagnall, Portland recruiting officer, that there are 400 openings for army flying cadets for each of the next three classes which begin in February, March and May. Civilians as well as enlisted men of the army are eligible for these appointments, Gimpelson pointed out.

Information can be obtained from him at the army recruiting office in the postoffice building.

Salem Schools Herald Season With Programs; "Christmas Broadcast" By Grant Grade Players Is First

'Twas the week before Christmas, and as early as yesterday Salem schools inaugurated it with Christmas programs. Grant grade school, with a "Christmas Broadcast" that began at 1:15 yesterday afternoon, had the distinction of being the first unit of the city school system to stage a Yuletide program, with Christmas Eve, and Richmond, Leslie, Highland and Parrish will wind up the week's festivities with programs Thursday afternoon.

Other schools which held programs yesterday included Englewood, during a 1:30 p.m. assembly, and Richmond, with a Parent-Teacher association, and school Christmas program last night. Mrs. Green's sixth grade presented "Why the Chimes Rang" on the latter.

Superintendent Frank B. Bennett will make his first appearance before the entire Salem high school student body when he takes the platform as the principal speaker for the annual homecoming exercises Thursday afternoon. The program is to begin at 12:50 p.m., with greetings to the old grads to be extended by Principal Fred Wolf and Bill Shinn, student body president.

Stunts by the Pep club and several numbers by the high school band are also billed on the homecoming program. Wesley McWain, Salem high graduate now attending Willamette, will call upon a number of fellow graduates to speak.

Official hosts are the "S" club, honor society and girls' letter club, while Miss Ola Clark is chairman of the committee.

Other school programs: Tuesday—At Grant, "The Least of These," to be given by the fifth

'Re-Union' Theme Of Annual Dinner

"Re-union" is the theme for the seventh-annual homecoming dinner of Sigma Lambda chapter, national honorary society of Salem high school, to be held Thursday night at the school cafeteria. All of the approximately 275 who have been admitted to membership since the chapter's inception in 1933 are asked to attend the banquet, and may secure reservations by telephoning Grace Covert.

President Vernon Scott will preside at the banquet. Student speakers include Stuart Nelson, Natalie Neer, Wesley McWain and Virginia Steed. Principal Fred Wolf will address the gathering.

Methodist Women Elect Officers

DALLAS — The Junior Women's social club of the First Methodist church was entertained at the home of Mrs. William Young Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. Paul Bollman as assistant hostess.

This was the annual Christmas party and an exchange of gifts was held during the afternoon. The gifts were placed on a table centered with a small Christmas tree and guarded by red tapers.

During the afternoon an election of officers for the new year was held. Those elected follow: Mrs. W. H. Hill, president; Mrs. Robert Dunn, vice president; Mrs. R. C. McKnight, secretary-treasurer; Mrs. Walter Ballantyne and Mrs. McKnight, flower committee; Mrs. J. N. Mills and Mrs. Ray Gohrke, telephone committee; Mrs. Merritt Hart, Mrs. William Young and Mrs. J. Paul Bollman, sewing committee.

Gives Red Cross Report
SILVERTON—Mrs. A. C. Barber, chairman, reports that $417.21 was collected in the Silver-ton territory this year for the Red Cross roll call.

Over $300 has gone out in the Christmas seal sale also.

Farmers Union News

CLOVERDALE—The local Farmers Union held its December business meeting Thursday night, two weeks early, due to conflicting dates. Karl Steiner was unanimously voted a member.

Results of election of officers were as follows: president, Eddie Ahrens; vice president, Clarence Rosenau; secretary - treasurer, Margaret Miller; conductor, Henry Ahrens; door keeper, Cyrus Barker; chaplain, Clair Holcomb; executive committee, Earl Hedges, Arthur Kunkle and Alfred Dumbek.

Other committees appointed by the president for the January meeting which will be held the regular date, the fourth Thursday, were: refreshment, John W. Schifferer, Walter W. Miller and Fay Webb; entertainment, Karl B. Wipper, Carl Booth and Clair Holcomb; good of the order, Mrs. Alfred Dumbek, Mrs. Clarence Rosenau and Mrs. Everett Vickers.

Also an important meeting will be held January 13 concerning the annual lamb show. Election of the chairman of the lamb show will be held. All persons interested in the welfare of this show are asked to attend even though they are not members of the Farmers Union.

Christmas Events Planned, Lebanon

LEBANON — Children of the Baptist and Christian Sunday schools will take part in programs on December 21. Mrs. Victor Carlson is in charge of the program at the Baptist church.

Distribution of gifts will be made December 23 by the members of the Fellowship Guild of the Presbyterian church. The Girls' League of the high school is in charge of collecting donated toys, which are being left for collection at the Queen Ann school.
