

88 Students On Honor Roll

College of Education Gives Out Names of Smart Pupils

MONMOUTH—The honor roll for the Oregon College of Education for the fall quarter contains the names of 88 students with grades of "B" or 3 or better. Eighteen of these received an average of 3.5 or better, while 70 received a 3 to 3.5.

Those getting 3.5 were Mrs. Flossie Conway, Eugene; Irene DeVries, Salem; Margaret Forrest, Lyons; Helen Funderburgh, Astoria; Kenneth Horner, Lebanon; Conrad Hlyton, Monmouth; Ellen Lindquist, Milwaukie; Virginia Logan, Portland; Hazel McMullen, Lebanon; Betty Lou Phelps, Portland; Ruth Schmidt, Corvallis; Blanche Sears, Monmouth; Hazel Swanson, Portland; Stan Tornbom, McMinnville; Edna Wacker, Portland; Helen Wahlstrom, Monmouth; Melba Whitney, Sheridan; Kent Woodward, Monmouth.

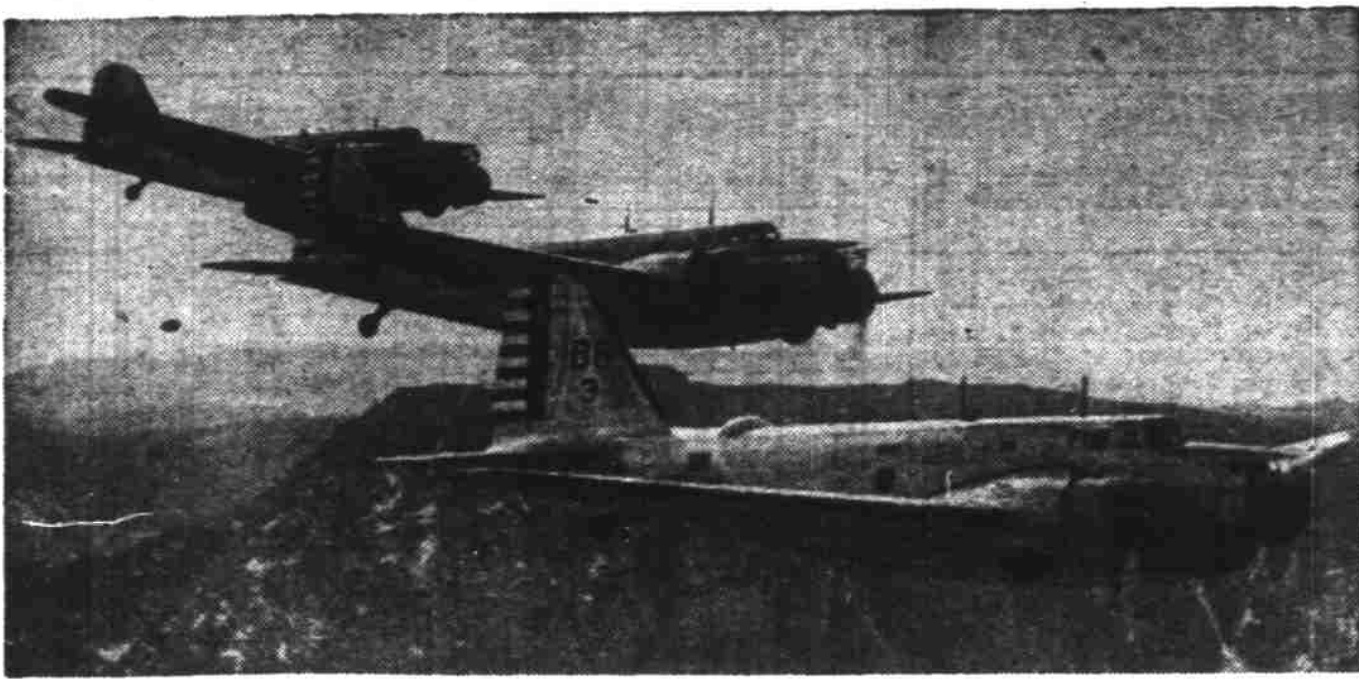

Those getting a 3 or better were Byron Adams, Portland; Margaret Ambler, Portland; Glenn Anderson, Milwaukie; Jeanne Appleberry, Tigard; Marjorie Ashby, Lebanon; Edith Barnhart, Independence; Mary Blaine, Molalla; Mary Blodgett, Portland; Ruth Buhler, Dallas; Betty Byers, Monmouth; Mary Cannon, Coquille; Irene Clabart, St. Helens; Pearl Clauson, Multnomah; Mildred Coleman, Milwaukie; Roy Collins, Monmouth; Audrey Coyle, Lebanon; Frederica Cutter, Portland; Lillian Dahl, Monmouth.

Tom DeFretas, Portland; Brad Dobson, McMinnville; Charlotte Ellingsworth, Nehalem; May Glanery, Willamina; Don Foos, Milwaukie; Gladys Gavette, Monmouth; Grace Gertula, Kerville; Helen Hamilton, Monmouth; Lillian Hayden, Milwaukie; Virgil Hayden, Brownsville; Maxine Hirtzel, Rainier; Ruth Holbrook, Crisswell; Annamie Holverstott, Coquille; Jean Irvine, Independence; Connie Johnston, Independence.

Thelma Johnston, Monmouth; Lucille Jungsk, Portland; Bob Keuscher, Salem; Norma Kimble, Boring; Doris King, Holley; Philip Leder, Woodville, Wash.; Irene Lee, Eugene; Alice Leitch, Albany; Clarence Leitch, Albany; Jane Logan, Arlington; Virginia Martin, Salem; Walthea McKean, Roseburg; Marjorie McLean, Portland; Mary Meyers, Salem; Kathleen Moore, Corvallis; Beverly Moran, Monmouth.

Roberta Mott, Forest Grove; Marjorie Munson, Portland; Harry Niermann, Cornelius; Lynn Roberts, Sheridan; Evelyn Runyan, Multnomah; Jane Russell, Molalla; Helen Sandberg, Portland; Jean Schaefer, Eugene; Mary Sevek, Klamath Falls; Betty Sherman, Salem; Dorothy Spencer, Portland; Pauline Stein, The Dalles; Helen Stone, Portland; Louise Stubblebine, Portland; Earl Tutthill, Portland; Walter Vincent, Swishome; Florence Voight, Salem; Ray Williamson, Halsey; Dorothea Wilner, Gresham; Beatrice Wilner, Gresham; Esther Worden, Eugene.

Army Bomber Hop Skirts Highest, Lowest US Points

Over the highest peak in the US soars the trio of powerful tri-motored army bombers of the 10th attack group from March field, Riverside County, Calif., in photo above. They are on a reconnaissance hop over Mt. Whitney, Calif., 14,495 feet high, shown in center background. On the return non-stop flight they soared down over the lowest point in the US, nearby below-sea level Death valley.

First Class Under US Woman Flier

America's first woman government flying instructor, Evelyn Hudson, pictured center, is shown with two pupils of her first class in Los Angeles recently, part of the Civil Aeronautics Authority civilian flying program. Five girls registered for the sky training. Miss Hudson is shown teaching Esther Rudkin, left, and Virginia Bagg, right, to operate a parachute. In background is the training plane.

Sunday School Superintendent Since 1885 Relected Again at Aumsville

AUMSVILLE—Since January, 1885, met again to elect a superintendent for the year 1940. In appreciation of Mr. Porter's faithful service, through the storms and sunshine of 55 years, he was elected for the last time, as his many friends specified in their vote that his reelection is to extend to an indefinite period. Mr. Porter is 89 years of age and is still in excellent health. He has announced a number of plans which he intends carrying forward for the success of the Sunday school for the new year.

Missourians Leave Turner for Home

Methodist Women to Give
Silver Tea Friday;
Men Plan Dinner

TURNER—Mr. and Mrs. Raymond East and Mr. and Mrs. Jack LaRonde and baby left Thursday morning for their homes at Clinton, Mo., after spending two weeks at the John Mickey and Vester Bones homes.

Turner school opens Tuesday morning.

A Methodist Aid silver tea will be given with Mrs. F. C. Gunning Friday afternoon, January 3.

A sub-district men's dinner will be held at the Methodist parsonage Wednesday night, January 3, at 7 o'clock.

W. J. Denbern, who has been seriously ill for the past few weeks at a Salem hospital, is reported to be slowly improving.

Mr. and Mrs. Willard B. Bear of Morton, Wash., left Wednesday for Moro after spending the weekend at the C. A. Bear home.

New Year's Eve Party at Abiqua

ABIQUEA—Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Hattberg were hosts New Year's eve to a group of friends who have gathered at the Hattberg home for over 15 years each New Year's eve.

Present were Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Baxter and son, Richard, of Bend, Miss Nettie Hattberg and William Hattberg of Salem; Harold Larson, Alice Jensen, Althea Meyer, Mrs. M. J. Madsen, Lillie Madsen and Henry Madsen, besides the host and hostess.

to extend to an indefinite period. Mr. Porter is 89 years of age and is still in excellent health. He has announced a number of plans which he intends carrying forward for the success of the Sunday school for the new year.

Rainbow Girls Dance, Dallas

Armory Gay With Holiday
Decorations at Annual Formal Ball

DALLAS—One of the smartest affairs of the holiday season for the younger set was the formal dance given by the Naomi assembly, Order of Rainbow Girls, Friday night at the armory. The armory was decorated with holiday decorations and also with streamers of the seven colors of the rainbow.

Music for the occasion was furnished by Robert Howe and his orchestra from Newport.

In the receiving line were Dr. and Mrs. W. L. Pemberton, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Muir, Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Hartman, Mr. and Mrs. Norris Rockwell, Mr. and Mrs. George Kurre, Mr. and Mrs. Maurice Dalton, Mr. and Mrs. John Voth, Mrs. Blanche Eakin, Mrs. William Himes and Morris Laing. Mrs. Kurre, Mrs. Himes and Mrs. Andrew Irwin, Jr., presided at the punch bowl.

Many Attend
Members of the Rainbow Girls and their escorts present for the dance were the Misses Susanne Hamilton, Nadine Gerard, Helen Wagner, Maxine Helms, Miriam Price, Bonnie Grow, Nadine Thomas, Blithe Jones, Beatrice Benge, Margaret Lindahl, Viola Buckingham, Emily Brown, Elvogene Helgeson, Magdelaine Mola, Martha Jean Kurre, Constance Rutledge, Patricia Stockwell, Patricia Randall of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Card.

Patricia Tracy, Betty Auer, Betty Smith, Patricia Smith, Shirley Scott, Beverly Bennett, Jean Pence, Naomi Hayes, Mayme Barnes, Evelyn Watson, Ruth Van Ordel, Jane Crider, Marcel Stinnette, Shirley Johnston, Patricia Erickson, Anne Craven, Althea Zentz, Marjorie Inman of Rickreall, Louise Scott, Barbara Kracher, Merce Brown, Phyllis Dicky, Betty Denton, Helen Hamilton, Julia Belle Bradbury. Escorts included: Ralph Lindahl, Ray West, Donald Pinkerton, Arnold Koelgen, Dick Hartman, Wayne Allen of Rickreall, Robert Woodman, Allen Hagsdale of Rickreall, Sully Soliday, Robert Woods, Bud Foster, Arnold Peters, Bert Krager, Ben Smith, John Ray, Allan Inglis, Jim Low, Melvin Dornhecker, Jim Boydston, Robert Findley of Rickreall, Donald Rowland, Oakley West, Vernon Tilden of Portland, Glenn Wick, Harold Peterson.

Clifford Smith, Charles Lidberg of Portland, Orlando Peters, Duane Jones, Ty Brown, Henry Killever, J. C. Pleasant, Joe Gerard, James Dembowski, Eugene Morrison of Perrydale, Donald Low, Darrell Brown, Robert Foster, LaMoine Klass of Salem, Jack Eakin, Jr., Bob Lee, Milton Kroeker, Eugene Inma, Dean Dawson of Albany, Quenton Zieleski of Salem.

Two Silverton Couples Observe 55th Anniversary

SILVERTON—Mr. and Mrs. Collin F. Matheny observed their 55th wedding anniversary at their home Sunday.

Lilly Hall and Collin Matheny were married December 31, 1884, by the Rev. John Osborn at the Christian church at Scio. They have spent their entire married life in Oregon. Since 1913 they have lived at Silverton.

Mr. and Mrs. George Webber also observed their 55th wedding anniversary at Silverton on New Year's day.

Otto L. Pellats Dies at Aurora

AURORA—Otto L. Pellats, 74, Marks Prairie farmer, died at his home Sunday morning. He bought his farm from George Sutherland 31 years ago and has since made this his home.

Survivors include the widow, Marie; two daughters, Mrs. T. J. Anderson of Aurora, Mrs. T. T. Lilly of Oregon City; one son, Leonard of Marks Prairie; three brothers and a sister in Nebraska; two sisters and a brother in Germany, and a brother, Paul, of Aurora. The body is at the Canby funeral home.

Funeral Wednesday For Alpha Brady

MARQUAM—Funeral services will be held from the Methodist church Wednesday at 2:30 p.m. for Mrs. Alpha Elizabeth Brady, 79, who died at her home here Monday morning. She had lived here 57 years. Interment will be at Miller cemetery.

Mrs. Brady was born November 13, 1860 at Ridgely, Mo., and moved to Gervais in 1874, coming on to Marquam in 1882.

Survivors are two daughters, Terrissa Blair and Jennie Blair both of Aurora, Wash., and one son, W. P. Nicholson of Marquam.

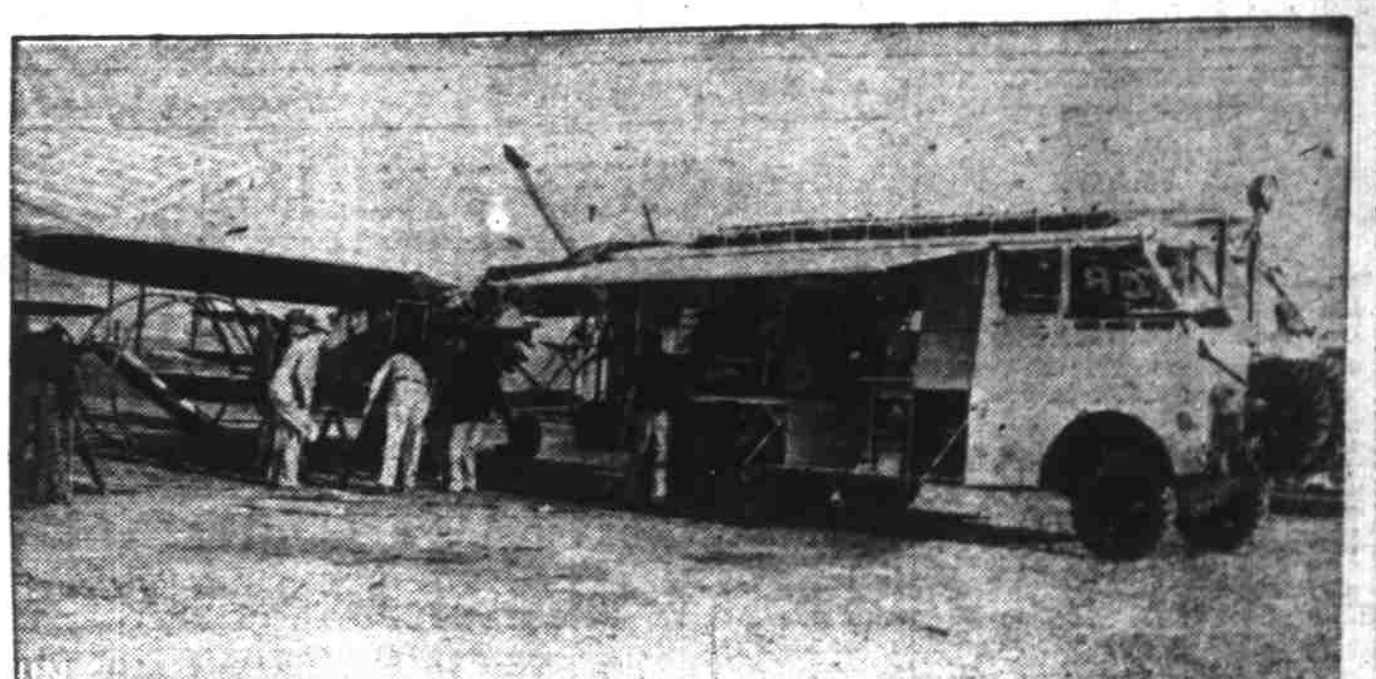

Gun Wound Fatal For Aurora Man

AURORA—Ernest Smith Apperly, 50, died at his farm home, two miles south of Aurora Saturday between 1 and 2 p.m. from a gunshot wound.

He leaves his wife, the former Elise Pardy, four daughters and son; his father, J. F. Apperly, and a brother of Roseburg. Funeral services will be conducted by the Rev. S. A. Goldenman at the Lutheran church at 10 a.m. Wednesday, in charge of the Miller mortuary.

New Year's Dinner Guests
AURORA—Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Miller were New Year's dinner guests of their son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Miller of Molalla.

Mobile Airport on Truck Gets Introduction

An airport on wheels, loaded with all the mechanical equipment necessary for fixing planes in an emergency, is introduced at Newark, N. J., airport. The mobile unit, designed by Kibby Couse of Newark, will sell for $50,000 and may prove an important factor in the European war. Several European governments have already placed orders for the unit.

Linn Road Jobs Start Wednesday

LEBANON—Three Linn county road projects will start Wednesday, John Thoma, county operations superintendent, has announced.

Eighty men will be employed on the projects which are: Construction of one and one-half miles of new road, and surfacing of 12 miles of existing road, near Lyons; improvement of the Fruit Groff road near Crawfordville; widening and improving the road running west from the Santiam highway a mile south of Cottonwoods.

Construction will also start on the 1200-foot flume on the La-comb irrigation project.

Sunshine Sewing Club Will Meet

HAZEL GREEN—The Sunshine Sewing club will meet January 3 at the Melvin Van Cleave home. Mrs. Van Cleave and sister, Mrs. Ralph Worden, and Mrs. LeRoy Van Cleave will be hostesses. School will be in session January 2.

Talbot Residents Away for Vacation

TALBOT—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Freeman and son, Ernest, spent the holidays in Portland visiting relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Henningsen spent the vacation with Mrs. Henningsen's parents at Seaside. Mrs. Henningsen is a teacher in the Jefferson grade school. Miss Ida Ray and Mrs. Frank Kriper attended the Oregon State Teachers' association convention in Portland Thursday.

It's Coming WAIT It's On the Way
BISHOP'S
Greater 1940
TWO for ONE
SALE
Starts Wednesday
Night 7 P.M. (Jan. 3rd.)

HOLD EVERYTHING! MAKE NO DATES FOR WEDNESDAY NIGHT!

REGARDLESS OF RISING PRICES—Our Annual Two-for-One Sale comes to you once again with the largest and finest selection of Nationally Known Men's Clothing and Furnishings we have ever offered in this great event.

Watch your newspaper for complete details, then hold everything 'til Wednesday night 7 P. M., January 3rd.

STORE CLOSED
to Prepare for SALE

Our Doors Will Be Locked Up Tight
Until Wednesday Night

An extra staff besides our regular force will be busy marking Thousands of Dollars worth of new merchandise down to rock bottom prices. Tables, racks, counters and show cases will be piled high with sensational bargains in Nationally Advertised Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats, Shoes and Furnishings.

Double Your Savings at
BISHOP'S
Clothing & Woolen Mills Store
145-147 No. Liberty, Salem.

ALL AMERICA AWAITS IT!

PENNEY'S

White Goods
EVENT

STARTS THIS MORNING!

The new low prices that go into effect this morning on Penney's famous White Goods are effective only while present stocks last and cannot be guaranteed after Jan. 31st. Join the thrifty crowds of shoppers all over America! Get YOUR share of these nationally famous White values at your Salem Penney Store today!

DOORS OPEN 9 A. M.

Penney's
J. C. PENNEY CO., INC.