Orangemen Smash Hawaii 39 to 6
HONOLULU, Jan. 1.—(AP)—Oregon State college celebrated New Year's day by smashing the University of Hawaii football team 39-6 before 12,000 spectators today in the pineapple bowl.

Finns and Winter Put Reds to Rout
Hard-fighting Finnish soldiers, raging blizzards and frigid cold stopped the western drive of Soviet Russia, as shown in this map. Bombing of the vital Murmansk-Leningrad railroad cut off Reds in the North from food, munitions and shelter. Russian supply ships, fearing they would be ice-locked, left Murmansk as the Russian retreat turned into a near-rout.

Pattern
By ANNE ADAMS
A really good housekeeper keeps herself looking just as neat and charming as the inside of her home. This efficient, pretty Anne Adams apron style, Pattern 4278, comes in two versions. Side-front skirt panels rise to give a slimming, high waisting and nice softness through the bustline does away with that skimpy look. There's even thoughtful "behind the scenes" treatment in a sash drawn right through the bodied part of the top for secure tying.

Chemawa Defeats Myrtle Creekers
CHEMAWA—Winding up pre-league games, the Chemawa Indians took an 82 to 23 decision from Myrtle Creek high here Saturday night, the fourth straight win over the southern Oregon team.

To End Marriage
Based for divorce recently in Bridgeport, Conn., was Daniel Topping, Jr., millionaire sportsman, by his petite wife, Film Actress Arlene Judge Topping, whom he married in Virginia City, Nev., in April, 1937. The California starlet, once wed to Film Director Wesley Ruggles, charged "extreme cruelty" in the action. Topping, heir to the Red Temple millions, will not contest the suit, mutual friends reported.

Coaches Call for True Sportsmen
PASADENA, Calif., Jan. 1.—As bombs shatter Finland's Olympic stadium and Europe's athletes hurl hand grenades, in America sportsmen are urged to change battlefields to sportsfields. From California's famed Rose Bowl, scene of the annual New Year football classic, came a call from leading football coaches, headed by Alonzo Stagg, to "take the spirit of true sportsmanship into every phase of our industrial and political life."

Runaway Gives Up
Everett Carty, 1117 Umattilla, Portland, gave himself up to city police officers last night after he had run a way from his home. He walked to Canby and hitchhiked to Salem.

Slain Beauty
The nude, mutilated body of blonde Jerry Burns, Los Angeles dancer, yielded no definite clue as to her slayer, police disclosed after a two-day investigation. Police inclined to the belief that she had been slain by a spurned auto, after which she was dumped, presumably from an automobile, into a vacant Los Angeles slum district lot. The girl had been stabbed twice in the back, once in the throat.

Athletes Wed
YUMA, Ariz., Jan. 1.—(AP)—Ruth Jump, 19, Los Angeles, and Ralph Flanagan, 22, Austin, Texas, former members of the U. S. Olympic diving team, were among the 175 out-of-state couples married over the New Year's weekend. E. Mont Smith, superior court clerk reported today.
