Announcing. . .A New Name
An Improved Loan Service

BEGINNING JANUARY 1, 1940, the name of the PEOPLE'S FINANCE COMPANY of Salem, will be changed to—CALKINS FINANCE COMPANY, Room 201, Second Floor, First National Bank Bldg., Salem.

The Personal Loan service rendered by the People's Finance Company to the citizens of this community is well known. It is a service of which we are justly proud. In changing the name to the CALKINS FINANCE COMPANY, the same helpful, liberal lending policies will be continued—plus new improvements which will make our service broader and more helpful than ever before. The name of CALKINS is one that has long meant the finest in loan service throughout the state of Oregon, and it will mean just that here in Salem.

CALKINS FINANCE COMPANY now brings to the people of Marion and Polk counties an improved, modern, liberal loan service on furniture, livestock, automobile, or note.

The following table shows how easy it is to pay off the amount you borrow:

$ 5.86 per month repays $ 50.00 in 10 months
$ 6.72 per month repays $100.00 in 20 months
$10.08 per month repays $150.00 in 20 months
$16.00 per month repays $250.00 in 20 months
Other amounts in proportion.

Finance Manager

J. L. Whitehouse will remain manager of the loan company formerly known as the People's Finance company, which has just been purchased by Calkins Finance company.

Finance Company Changes Owners

Change in ownership whereby Calkins Finance company acquires the stock and assets of People's Finance company, was announced yesterday by J. L. Whitehouse, manager.

The Calkins Finance company, with other offices in Eugene and Albany, will continue the policies of the former ownership, and offices will remain at the same location at 201 First National Bank building. Present customers of the People's Finance company are not affected by the change, Whitehouse said.

Whitehouse expressed his pleasure with the new connection with what he termed one of the fastest growing personal finance companies in Oregon.

John C. Farmen Dies, Woodburn

WOODBURN — John Christian Farmen, 73, died at his home east of Woodburn late Monday night. He was born September 13, 1866, at Larvik, Norway. He came to the United States 57 years ago and to Woodburn from Minnesota in 1926.

Surviving are four sons, Alvin of Woodburn, Ednor and Gordon of Salem and Clarence of San Francisco; one daughter, Mrs. Don Vestal of Lebanon; a brother, Thomas in California; and a sister, Mrs. Anna Danielson in South Dakota.

Board Will Open $6,000,000 Bids

Bids for road and bridge construction aggregating a cost of between $6,000,000 and $7,000,000 will be opened by the state highway commission at a meeting to be held in Portland January 11 and 12.

A number of county delegations were expected to appear at this meeting to discuss local highway projects, R. H. Baldock, state highway engineer said.

Albany Man Dies Of Bullet Wound

Bill Karstens, 54, Was Long-Time Resident Of Community

ALBANY—F. W. (Bill) Karstens, 54, a resident of the North Albany community practically his entire life, died at the Albany General hospital Monday morning at 6 o'clock. Death was caused by a weakened heart, made by two bullet wounds, which, according to Sheriff W. M. Harper, were apparently self-inflicted sometime Sunday afternoon.

Karstens was alone at his farm home at the time he was shot, and after regaining consciousness at the hospital to which he had been taken, told a brother that he remembered nothing of the shooting nor of events leading up to it. Neither could he recall having talked to a sister-in-law earlier in the afternoon in regard to a family dinner to have been held on New Year's day.

Mrs. Karstens, the former Mrs. Verna Vibrans of North Albany, whom he married on July 14, 1939, had gone to the coast for the day with a party of friends from Colorado, having left early in the morning. It is said Karstens did not go as he had some work he wished to attend to, and so was alone at his home.

Born in Iowa

Karstens was born in Westside, Iowa, June 2, 1885, but came to Oregon with his parents the following year. The family settled in North Albany and the Oak Grove district. Here he had spent his life farming. For many years he served as a road supervisor in his district, was on the soil conservation committee, and was leader of 4H clubs in that district for a term of years.

His chief interest was that of raising thoroughbred Percheron horses and Jersey cattle, which he exhibited at various fairs. A few years ago his health failed and as a result he had discontinued much of the active work.

Surviving besides the widow are four brothers, Henry P. of Sheridan, Hugo H., and Richard J. of North Albany, and Otto C. of Knox Butte, two sisters, Mrs. Albert W. Stellmacher of Portland, and Mrs. Elden Brush of Tangent, and a step-son, Billy Vibrans, at home.

Funeral services have been set for Thursday at 2 p. m. from the Fortmiller home, followed by burial in Palestine cemetery.

First Aid Crew Takes 644 Calls

Lack of courtesy upon "the part of both the pedestrian and the motorist" was blamed yesterday by Captain Charles M. Charlton of the Salem first aid car for the injury of 35 pedestrians by automobiles in 1939. Charlton's annual report stated that approximately one-half of the crew's 644 calls were in connection with automobile wrecks. Automobiles were involved with bicycles in 25 of the accidents.

Charlson asked public cooperation in the prevention of suffering. "Drive and walk carefully and save a life."

Big Rum Profit Paid to Pearson

Liquor profits in Oregon for the year 1939, already turned over to the state treasurer, aggregate $3,275,000, as compared to the total public assistance appropriation for the current biennium of $6,500,000, officials announced here Tuesday.

A check for $274,000 was turned over to the state treasurer Saturday by the liquor control commission.
